Imagination And Existence:

The Theory of Imagination in Classical and Mediaeval Thought Murray Wright Bundy, 1928 Philosophy of Language and Webs of Information Heimir Geirsson, 2013-03-05

The nature of propositions and the cognitive value of names have been the focal point of philosophy of language for the last few decades. The advocates of the causal reference theory have favored the view that the semantic contents of proper names are their referents. However, Frege's puzzle about the different cognitive value of coreferential names has made this identification seem impossible. Geirsson provides a detailed overview of the debate to date and then develops a novel account that explains our reluctance even when we know about the relevant identity to substitute coreferential names in both simple sentences and belief contexts while nevertheless accepting the view that the semantic content of names is their referents. The account focuses on subjects organizing information in webs; a name can then access and elicit information from a given web. Geirsson proceeds to extend the account of information to non-referring names but they have long provided a serious challenge to the causal reference theorist.

The Greatest Books of Spiritual Wisdom is an extraordinary anthology that traverses a broad spectrum of spiritual and philosophical insights capturing timeless debates and teachings that have shaped human thought across centuries. This collection compiles an eclectic mix of literary styles from the meditative prose of spiritual mystics to the piercing rationality of philosophical giants. It presents a rich tapestry of reflections on faith, morality, and human existence, enticing readers to explore profound ideas laid out by diverse thinkers. Standout pieces delve into the human soul's pursuit of truth and the search for a higher purpose, inviting readers to question, reflect, and seek deeper understanding. The contributors to this anthology span a vast historical and cultural landscape, each bringing a unique perspective to the spiritual discourse. From Martin Luther's Protestant reformation insights to Friedrich Nietzsche's existential provocations, the authors represent pivotal movements such as Enlightenment rationalism, Christian mysticism, and Transcendentalism. Their collective voices create a dialogue that transcends time, offering a mosaic of perspective on the human condition. Together, these authors forge an intricate narrative that not only complies with but also questions traditional spiritual paradigms. This compendium is essential for readers eager to immerse themselves in the multiplicity of spiritual thought and philosophical inquiry that has defined human history. It provides an unparalleled opportunity to engage with the profound personal and spiritual insights of history's greatest thinkers, making it a treasure trove for educators, students, and seekers alike. By traversing these disparate voices, readers are encouraged to find their own path amidst the dialogue, fostering deeper
