Intimate Merton Thomas Merton, 1999-11-03 Perhaps the Book of Life in the end is the book one has lived If one has lived nothing one is not in the Book of Life I have always wanted to write about everything That does not mean to write a book that covers everything which would be impossible but a book in which everything can go A book with a little of everything that creates itself out of nothing That has its own life A faithful book I no longer look at it as a book Thomas Merton July 17 1956 In this diary like memoir composed of his most poignant and insightful journal entries The Intimate Merton lays bare the steep ways of Thomas Merton's spiritual path Culled from the seven volumes of his personal journals this twenty nine year chronicle deepens and extends the story Merton recounted and made famous in The Seven Storey Mountain This book is the spiritual autobiography of our century's most celebrated monk the wisdom gained from the personal experience of an enduring spiritual teacher Here is Merton's account of his life's major challenges his confrontations with monastic and church hierarchies his interaction with religious traditions east and west and his antiwar and civil rights activities In The Intimate Merton we engage a writer's art of confession and witness as he searches for a contemporary authentic and global spirituality Recounting Merton's earliest days in the monastery to his journey east to meet the Dalai Lama The Intimate Merton reveals a life lived in continuous pursuit of meaning equanimity and love The Intimate Merton captures the essence of what makes his life journey so perennially relevant My best writing has always been in journals Thomas Merton

The Intimate Merton Thomas Merton, 2006 This text tells the life of Thomas Merton well known spiritual traveller in his own words from 1939 to his death in 1968 It relates his struggles with monastery life and with his Abbot detailing some of his writings and his love affair with a nurse

Mystics William Harmless, 2008 In Mystics William Harmless S J introduces readers to the scholarly study of mysticism He explores both mystics extraordinary lives and their no less extraordinary writings using a unique case study method centered on detailed examinations of six major Christian mystics Thomas Merton Bernard of Clairvaux Hildegard of Bingen Bonaventure Meister Eckhart and

Evagrius Ponticus Rather than presenting mysticism as a subtle web of psychological or theological abstractions Harless's case study approach brings things down to earth restoring mystics to their historical context Writing the Self Peter Heehs, 2013-02-14 The self has a history In the West the idea of the soul entered Christianity with the Church Fathers notably Augustine During the Renaissance the idea of the individual attained preeminence as in the works of Montaigne In the seventeenth century philosophers such as Descartes formulated notions of selfhood that did not require a divine foundation in the next century Hume grew skeptical of the self's very existence Ideas of the self have changed markedly since the Romantic period and most scholars today regard it as at best a mental construct First person genres such as diaries and memoirs have provided an outlet for self expression Protestant diaries replaced the Catholic confessional but secular diaries such as Pepys's may reveal yet more about the self After Richardson novels competed with diaries and memoirs as vehicles of self expression though memoirs survived and continue to thrive while the diary has found a new incarnation in the personal blog Writing the Self narrates the intertwined histories of the self and of self expression through first person literature

Contemplation and Midlife Crisis Rosemarie Carfagna, 2014-05-14 This book helps the reader in midlife crisis frame his/her experience in spiritual contemplative terms and thereby provides a wider context in which to understand and eventually accept it The Living Church, 2000-07 Our Hearts Are Restless Richard Lischer, 2023 In Our Hearts Are Restless Richard Lischer takes readers on a guided tour of spiritual autobiography examining the life writings of twenty one figures from the obvious Thomas Merton to the surprising James Baldwin and from the ancient Augustine to the contemporary Anne Lamott Readers will come away with new insights into these figures' lives but also a new appreciation of the art and craft of spiritual writing Shaped by the End You Live For Bonnie Bowman Thurston, 2020 A survey of Thomas Merton's thought on fundamental aspects of monastic formation and spirituality which also addresses some of the temptations and popular misunderstandings surrounding monastic life Practicing Catholic James Carroll, 2010-04-02 A personal examination of the Catholic faith its leaders and its complicated history by a National Book Award winning New York Times bestselling author James Carroll turns to the notion of practice both as a way to learn and a means of improvement as a lens for this thoughtful and frank look at what it means to be Catholic He acknowledges the slow and steady transformation of the Church from its darker medieval roots to a more pluralist and inclusive institution charting along the way stories of powerful Catholic leaders Pope John XXIII Thomas Merton John F Kennedy and historical milestones like Vatican II These individuals and events represent progress for Carroll a former priest and as he considers the new meaning of belief in a world that is increasingly as secular as it is fundamentalist he shows why the world needs a Church that is committed to faith and renewal Carroll a former Catholic priest who wrote of his conflict with his father over the Vietnam War in An American Requiem revisits and expands on that tension in this spiritual memoir infused with church history Readers who like Carroll remain Catholic but wrestle with their church's positions on moral issues will most appreciate his story Publishers Weekly Thought provoking San Francisco Chronicle An engrossing faith memoir a page turner Kirkus Reviews A Focus on Truth Patrick W. Collins, 2021-04-30 The published writings of the Trappist monk Thomas Merton were always censored from two sources during his lifetime First by Merton himself as he certainly didn't write everything down or share all of what he included in his drafts He selected carefully what he considered appropriate for publication Second Thomas Merton was extensively censored by his religious superiors They regularly judged that things Merton chose to write should not be made available in print This was not infrequently a source of great frustration to Merton In this book Fr Patrick W Collins presents an uncensored view of the life and thoughts of Thomas Merton by plumbing his correspondence with family friends and colleagues over the years Merton's personal and professional correspondence was previously published by Farrar Straus and Giroux In this volume Collins extracts and organizes from these sources many of the significant subjects about which Merton wrote and presents each topic chronologically In this way readers can easily follow the development of Merton's thoughts feelings intuitions and impressions over the years on a variety of topics of concern to him Hopeful Realism in Urban Ministry Barry K. Morris, 2016-05-20 What pray tell does a faithful urban ministry require if not a triadic relationship of prayer justice and hope Could such a theologically conjunctive relationship of prayer justice and hope fortify urban ministry and challenge students and practitioners to ponder and practice beyond the box Frequently justice is collapsed to charity hope into wishful thinking or temporarily arrested despair and prayer a grasp at quick fix interventions An urban ministry's steadfast public and prophetic witness longs for the depth and width of this triad Via three countries decades of endeavors one chapter brainstorms urban ministry practices while another's literature survey signals crucial convictions Amid many seminal theologians are summoned to ground urban ministry intimations and implications Niebuhr on justice Moltmann on hope and Merton on contemplative prayer Evident is passion that fuels compassion in the service of justice hope that engages despair and prayer that draws from the contemplative center of it all thankful resources for long haul ministry The triad presses to illumine a concrete ministry's engagement of relentless forced option issues yet with significant networks resourcing Contrast awareness animates endurance The summary exegetes the original grace based serenity prayer Hence hope vitally balances realism's temptation to cynicism Realism saves hope from irrelevancy Spiritual Masters for All Seasons Michael Ford, 2009 Every age needs figures of spiritual inspiration but in times of recession and uncertainty they are essential in helping us to rise above despair and to search for God deep within ourselves In this new book Michael Ford invites four spiritual masters onto the same stage for the first time and shows how they speak not only to our own times but for all seasons Thomas Merton Henri Nouwen Anthony de Mello and John O Donohue all died suddenly at the height of their fame as spiritual masters but they continue to have immense followings What was their secret and why do their legacies endure Through unpublished interviews with some of the authors themselves encounters with their friends and reflections from readers who have been inspired by their writings Michael Ford journeys across the United States and Europe to assess their place in the world of contemporary spirituality He goes behind the scenes of the Abbey of Gethsemani in Kentucky to hear first hand from monks who were novices under Merton visits Lambeth Palace in London to discover Merton's influence on the Archbishop of Canterbury talks to people about how Nouwen the proverbial wounded healer helped them through depression because he had suffered himself speaks to Jesuits who worked with de Mello in India and tries to find out how close the international storyteller came to Buddhism and takes a walk with O'Donohue through landscapes in rural Ireland that feature in such books as Anam Cara and discusses the appeal of Celtic spirituality Blending the spiritual with the journalistic Michael Ford presents four unique writers as Spiritual Masters for All Seasons Monastic Perspectives on Temporality Riitta Hujanen, 2023-08-07

In this book Riitta Hujanen explores temporality in the context of Catholic enclosed contemplative traditions It investigates based on literature and other sources what enclosed contemplatives might say about temporality through their monastic journeys What makes a young person decide to dedicate their life inside a cloister Do contemplatives have a preference for eternity over temporal time How does the enclosed contemplative life impact one's concept of time How is time perceived towards the end of one's monastic journey What is seen when looking back to the years in the enclosed contemplative life What is experienced at the hour of death The answers to these questions illustrate a paradoxical dynamic in monastic journeys that cover a broad historical scope from the earliest monastic writers to contemporary sources

Miller,2015-03-04 Imagine a rope braided out of seven strands of twine forming a circle so that even the ends of the rope are woven together That is an image of human wholeness This book proposes seven aspects to human wholeness intellectual psychological emotional physical sexual spiritual and aesthetic After examining each of these aspects this work presents a spirituality of relationship It also explores how human wholeness is a basis for relationship Two people relating to each other out of each person s wholeness provide the occasion for an experience of the divine All relationships begin with some connectivity to an aspect of human wholeness As both parties enter more deeply into their relationship more connectivity is achieved By reflecting on the experiences of one s life in dialogue with a trusted friend a person discovers the freedom to be who he or she is in the presence of the other and receives back the gift he or she offers to the other in total freedom This transcendent aspect of a relationship can enable friends to discover God in each other as each other Jesus serves as a model for human relating in him all aspects are woven together into a whole human being Thomas Merton's Encounter with

Buddhism and Beyond Jaechan Anselmo Park,2019-03-07 Thomas Merton recognized the value and possibility of contemplative dialogue between monastics and contemplatives of other religious traditions and hoped that through such dialogue monastics would strive for inter monastic communion and a bonding of the broader spiritual family He held out hope that this bond would demonstrate the fundamental unity of humanity to a world that was becoming ever more materialistic and divided Among other themes and topics this book explores Thomas Merton s role as a pioneer of Buddhist Christian dialogue and monastic interreligious dialogue It delves into the process of Merton s self transformation through contemplative experiences explores his encounter with Zen and Tibetan Buddhists and his pioneering engagements in Buddhist Christian dialogue and presents and responds to the criticisms of those who raise questions about Merton s understanding of Buddhism Fr Jaechan Anselmo Park OSB articulates and analyzes the influences of Buddhist theory and practice on Thomas Merton s contemplative spirituality and shows how Merton s legacy has influenced and continues to inspire interreligious and inter monastic dialogue particularly in an Asian monastic context Awakening Desire Irene

Alexander,2018-04-19 The hope of this book is that it awakens desire to know more intimately the God who breaks through our compartmentalization and naming While most in the West have heard God s name as almost exclusively masculine a child growing up in Israel would have experienced the Spirit of God and Lady Wisdom as female This ruach the breath of God brooded over the face of the deep in the creation story like a hovering mother bird The God of the Bible and the early church has been described with both masculine and feminine imagery referred to by the church fathers and mystics as both Mother and Father In our time we have lost much of this rich feminine imagery This book explores not only this historical knowing of God but also more contemporary writers such as Carl Jung Paul Young The Shack George MacDonald and Thomas Merton

Each of these men engaged with the Divine Feminine giving us examples of how we too may find God more deeply and more intimately Journeys of Transformation John D. Barbour, 2022-03-31 Compelling exploration of how journeys to a Buddhist culture changed 30 Western writers as they explored the meaning of no self
