Literature of the 1980s Joseph Brooker, 2012-05-08 Relates developments in fiction poetry and drama to social change from the new generation of London novelists such as Martin Amis and Ian McEwan to the impact of feminism in the writing of Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson

Travellers' Tales of Wonder Simon Cooke, 2013-02-22 Exploring travellers tales of wonder in contemporary literature this study challenges a sensibility of disenchantment with travel It reassesses travel writing as an aesthetically and ethically innovative form in contemporary international literature and demonstrates the crucial role of wonder in the travel narratives of writers such as Bruce Chatwin V S Naipaul and W G Sebald Their travellers tales of wonder are read as a challenge to the hubris of thinking the world too well known and an invitation to encounter the world including its most troubling histories with a sense of wonder

Postcolonial Nostalgias Dennis Walder, 2010-11-17 This book offers an original and informed critique of a widespread yet often misunderstood condition nostalgia a pervasive human emotion connecting people across national and historical as well as personal boundaries Often seen as merely escapist nostalgia also offers solace and self understanding for those displaced by the larger movements of our time Walder analyses the writings of some of those entangled in the aftermath of empire tracing the hidden connections underlying their yearnings for a common identity and a homeland and their struggles to recover their histories Through a series of comparative reflections upon the representation in literary and related cultural forms of memory he shows how admitting the past into the present through nostalgia enables former colonial or diasporic subjects to gain a deeper understanding of the networks of power within which they are caught in the modern world and beyond which it may yet be possible to move Considering authors as varied as V S Naipaul J G Ballard Doris

Lessing W G Sebald and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie as well as versions of Bushman song Walder pursues the often wayward ambiguous paths of nostalgia as it has been represented beyond but also within Europe so as to identify some of those processes of communal and individual experience that constitute the present and by implication the future Garden Plots Shelley Saguaro, 2017-05-15 Shelley Saguaro's unique book illustrates the persistent presence of gardens in literature. Gardens in fiction do not simply represent a familiar theme Saguaro contends but are bound up with wider aesthetic and ideological issues. As with literary forms so too are gardens subject to transformations. Encompassing a wide array of twentieth and twenty-first century authors including Virginia Woolf, Eudora Welty, Carol Shields, J M Coetzee, Toni Morrison, Leslie Marmon Silko, Jamaica Kincaid, Don DeLillo, and Philip K Dick, this book's preoccupations are signalled in the evocatively titled chapters: Botanical Modernisms, Natural History, and Postmodern Grafting, Postcolonial Landscapes, How Does Your Cyber Garden Grow, and Coevolutionary Histories. The Poetics of a Paradox, Informed by postcolonial, feminist, and psychoanalytic theories, Garden Plots is a must-read for all those alive to the space gardens inhabit in the literary landscape. Literature of the 1980s: After the Watershed Joseph Brooker, 2012-05-08 From the new generation of London novelists such as Martin Amis and Ian McEwan to feminism in the writing of Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson, Joseph Brooker relates developments in fiction, poetry, and drama to social change. He shows how working-class writers such as James Kelman and Tony Harrison protested against Thatcherism and explores the voices of Black British writers including Fred D Aguiar and Hanif Kureishi. As for the theory of the decade, Brooker relates the rise of postmodernism to the popularity of self-conscious modes of writing and other developments in literary theory. Thucydides' Meditations on Fear Raymond Taras, 2023-09-12 Understanding contemporary global politics by connecting them to the meditations of a classical Greek philosopher may seem far-fetched and counterintuitive. But for political theorists, policymakers, the new influencers, journalists, and engaged students, Thucydides' ancient wisdom provides insights into diagnosing and even undermining an endemic of political fear spreading across the world's borders. With his help, this book probes six case studies of aspiring great powers and the brittle identities that they may have unwittingly constructed. Raymond Taras questions the motives of the manipulators of fear, whether found in authoritarian states or increasingly in backsliding liberal democratic ones. The urgency of returning to and respecting tolerance in states establishing relations with arriving refugees and migrants takes on critical importance. Conceiving the City Nicholas Freeman, 2007-09-20 Conceiving the City looks at how major writers and artists represented London in fiction, poetry, essays, and art. It shows that late Victorian fin de siècle London emerged as a focus for dynamic, explicitly modern art as writers and artists broke with earlier tradition and bent realism into exciting new shapes. Living with Strangers Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2020-06-03 Living with Strangers examines the history and cultural representation of bed-sitting rooms and boarding houses in England from the early twentieth century to the present. Providing a historical overview, the authors explore how these alternative domestic spaces came to provide shelter for a diverse demographic of working women and men retired army officers gay people students bohemians writers artists performers migrants and asylum seekers as well as shady figures and criminals Drawing on historical records case studies and examples from literature art and film the book examines how the prevalence and significance of bedsits and boarding houses in novels plays detective stories Ealing comedies and contemporary fiction and film produced its own genre of narrative The nine chapters are written by an international range of established and emerging scholars in the fields of literary studies art and film history political theory queer studies and cultural studies A lively highly original study Living with Strangers makes a significant contribution to the cross disciplinary field of home studies and provides insight into a crucial aspect of British cultural history It is essential reading for students and researchers in anthropology history literary studies sociology gender and sexuality studies film studies and cultural studies

Anglo Nostalgia Edoardo Campanella,Marta Dassù,2019-08-01 Nostalgia has become a major force in global politics While Donald Trump hopes to make America great again Xi Jinping calls for a great rejuvenation of the Chinese people and a majority of Russians still mourn the Soviet Union But it is Brexit with its idealization of a bygone era of full sovereignty that epitomizes nostalgic nationalism in its purest form Despite its romantic flavor nostalgia is a malaise a combination of paranoia and melancholy that idealizes the past while denigrating the present This epidemic of mythicizing national history is shaping politics in risky ways fueled by ageing populations shifts in the global order and technological disruption When deployed in the political debate collective nostalgia is used as an emotional weapon capable of mobilizing a nation towards illusory goals Drawing on psychology political science history and popular culture Anglo Nostalgia analyses the rapid spread of this global phenomenon before focusing on Brexit as a case study With the detachment of informed outsiders Campanella and Dass expose nostalgia s great danger the oversimplification of reality leading to unprecedented political miscalculations and rising geopolitical tensions
