Enigma Of Anger Essays On A Sometimes Deadly Sin:

The Enigma of Anger Garret Keizer, 2002-11-22 Rage resentment envy jealousy and hatred these emotions seem to dominate our times They rule our highways our workplaces our homes and our hearts In this provocative book of essays writer Garret Keizer considers anger in all its baffling forms Poignantly aware of his own temper and of his ties to a religion that glorifies meekness the author looks at anger as a paradox in our struggle to remain human in the midst of an infuriating world Interweaving personal anecdotes mythological stories sacred texts and Keizer s insightful observations The Enigma of Anger will prove a welcome companion for anyone who has ever wrestled with wrath or wished to make better use of it

Glittering Vices Rebecca Konyndyk DeYoung, 2020-06-02 Drawing on centuries of wisdom from the Christian ethical tradition this book takes readers on a journey of self examination exploring why our hearts are captivated by glittery but false substitutes for true human goodness and happiness The first edition sold 35 000 copies and was a C S Lewis Book Prize award winner Now updated and revised throughout the second edition includes a new chapter on grace and growth through the spiritual disciplines Questions for discussion and study are included at the end of each chapter

Facing Feelings in Faith Communities William M. Kondrath, 2013-08-05 Facing Feelings in Faith Communities is based on a simple premise We have emotions because we need them God created us as affectively competent beings William Kondrath argues to help us understand our world and to give appropriate signals to people around us about what we are experiencing When we express our feelings clearly other people can more easily respond in ways that are helpful to us thus enhancing our relationships and the work we might do together Kondrath also recognizes that unfortunately for many of us our emotional software was infected early on with viruses early familial and social conditioning that distorted the way we responded to natural stimuli Because we are underusing or misusing our emotional capacities we are missing out on the opportunity to express our full humanity Fortunately we can re program our emotional software Facing Feelings in Faith Communities helps us restore our emotional systems to their original state or at least invites us to imagine how we would live differently if our emotional expressions were more nearly congruent with the situations and events we encounter Kondrath invites us to explore six feelings fear anger sadness peace power and joy through poetry meditation on an evocative drawing as well as through his own analysis of each feeling Congregational Resources for Facing Feelings is a companion collection to this book For more information click here

Living Through Pain Kristin M. Swenson, 2005 In Living Through Pain Kristin Swenson charts the multifaceted personal and social problems caused by chronic pain This book also surveys professional efforts to mitigate and manage pain Because the experience of pain involves all aspects of a person body mind spirit and community Swenson consults an ancient resource for wisdom perspective and insight Her close reading of selected psalms from the Hebrew Bible demonstrates that the challenge of living through pain is timeless Living Through Pain chronicles how these ancient texts offer a vocabulary and grammar for understanding and expressing the contemporary experience of pain Pain is a universal experience and this book invites readers to consider more fully what is involved in the process of healing BOOK JACKET

God's Tapestry William M. Kondrath, 2008-04-14 Our differences are our greatest blessings and our greatest challenges maintains William Kondrath Episcopal priest and seminary professor Theologically and ecologically differences foster life and growth but discord within denominations and congregations frequently have to do with the inability of individuals and groups to deeply understand and value differences In God's Tapestry Kondrath shows us how to embrace our multiculturalism our differences of race culture gender age theology language sexual identity and so forth He does this by exploring differences on four levels personal interpersonal institutional and cultural He also demonstrates a threefold process for becoming multicultural recognizing our differences understanding those differences and their significance and consequences and valuing or celebrating those differences While ministry is the work of the faith community not only ordained or professional staff it is critical that leaders learn the art and skill of recognizing understanding and valuing differences Then the congregations and agencies they serve having learned and practiced the art and skill of celebrating differences can be the yeast that brings this awareness of God's diverse blessings to the wider world

Faith and Virtue Formation Adam C. Pels, W. Scott Cleveland, 2021 The Christian tradition offers a compelling vision of what it is for human life to be lived well This collection articulates various aspects of that vision in ways that will deepen understanding of virtue formation The contributors demonstrate that moral philosophy not only illuminates but can also inspire the formation of virtue

Reading for Preaching Cornelius Plantinga, 2013-11-30 In Reading for Preaching Cornelius Plantinga makes a striking claim preachers who read widely will most likely become better preachers Plantinga himself a master preacher shows how a wide reading program can benefit preachers First he says good reading generates delight and the preacher who enters the world of delight goes with God Good reading can also help tune the preacher's ear for language his or her primary tool General reading can enlarge the preacher's sympathies for people and situations that she or he had previously known nothing about And above all the preacher who reads widely has the chance to become wise This beautifully written book will benefit not just preachers but anyone interested in the wisdom to be derived from reading Works that Plantinga interacts with in the book include The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini Enrique's Journey by Sonia Nazario Silence by Shusaku Endo How Much Land Does a Man Need by Leo Tolstoy Narcissus Leaves the Pool by Joseph Epstein Les Misérables by Victor Hugo and many more

Once Loved Always Loved Andrew Hronich, 2023-02-23 In this book Andrew Hronich endeavors to synthesize the many strands of orthodox doctrine into a single telos ultimate reconciliation While a great deal of ink has already been spilled on this subject this book addresses ponderances previously overlooked due to a lack of ecumenical dialogue between the differing streams of Christian tradition Ancient lights such as Origen Gregory of Nyssa and Clement of Alexandria are given a voice to speak again to the masses whilst contemporary thinkers such as Thomas Talbot David Bentley Hart and Eric Reitan are unleashed upon the unwitting world of Christian philosophy Stagnant tradition has hindered the church from abiding by its historic motto semper reformanda but with its ecumenical voice this book calls on Protestants Catholics and Orthodox adherents alike to acknowledge apokatastasis panton the salvation of all beings as the orthodoxy it always has been No Place But Here Garret Keizer,1996-10 Succinct passionate and wise here is one teacher's answer to the crisis in education and to the particular demands of his vocation Why Guys Need God Mike Erre,2008-01-01 Is the Christian community doing a good job of presenting the message of Jesus in a compelling way to men Women greatly outnumber men in attendance and active participation in American churches Pastor Mike Erre offers a solution for this imbalance a thoroughly biblical and engaging theology of manhood that is missing in many churches today This call to move past cultural definitions of masculinity goes straight to the heart of the issue Creation men and women bear the image of God in unique and surprising ways The fall men cannot experience significance on their own so their lives often feel meaningless and empty Redemption God redeems a man's work his sexuality and his relationships Unmasking unhelpful stereotypes of masculinity this presentation of godly manhood inspires men to more effectively grow in Christ's image and empowers women to understand and encourage the men in their lives Hear Her Voice Christine Redwood,2024-08-01 How does our gender impact our preaching Can women express anger in a sermon Why use a first person narrative sermon structure After preaching for several years Christine Redwood realized both her preaching role models and her theology had come predominantly from men so she spent the next six years researching feminist scholars and their readings of stories from the book of Judges In this accessible book she shares what she has learnt including sample sermons and exercises for preachers wanting to grow in their craft This is essential reading for preachers wanting to amplify marginal voices 1 Samuel as Christian Scripture Stephen B. Chapman,2016-04-26 This work by Stephen Chapman offers a robustly theological and explicitly Christian reading of 1 Samuel Chapman's commentary reveals the theological drama at the heart of that biblical book as it probes the tension between civil religion and vital religious faith through the characters of Saul and David Is God a Vindictive Bully? Paul Copan,2022-10-18 Critics outside the church often accuse the Old Testament God of genocide racism ethnic cleansing and violence But a rising tide of critics within the church claim that Moses and other primitive violence prone prophets were mistaken about God's commands and character Both sets of critics dismiss this allegedly harsh flawed textual Old Testament God in favor of the kind compassionate actual God revealed by Jesus Are they right to do so Following his popular book Is God a Moral Monster noted apologist Paul Copan confronts false imbalanced teaching that is confusing and misleading many Christians Copan takes on some of the most difficult Old Testament challenges and places them in their larger historical and theological contexts He explores the kindness patience and compassion of God in the Old Testament and shows how Jesus in the New Testament reveals not only divine kindness but also divine severity The book includes a detailed Scripture index of difficult and controversial passages and is helpful for anyone interested in understanding the flaws in these emerging claims that are creating a destructive gap between the Testaments King of the

Battlefield Mark Pittman, 2023-11-30 King of the Battlefield is an autobiography written by Mark Pittman shortly before his death from cancer in 2023 He details his midwestern upbringing relationships and education Planning to follow his father into an academic career his life is interrupted by the war in Vietnam When he returns from a tour of duty in the Marine Corps he is a different person He spends the rest of his life grappling with these changes and in a love hate relationship with the system that created them Written by Kathleen DeBoer Mark Pittman's widow Dec 2023

Getting On Message Peter Laarman, 2006-04-12 In the 2004 election 80 percent of those who claimed moral values was the most important issue affecting their vote cast their ballots for Bush as did 63 percent of frequent churchgoers Since then the Religious Right has continued to cement an association between Christian and moral values and conservative policies Getting On Message challenges this association from the very heart of the Christian tradition These readable and incisive essays use biblical framing to discern the personal and social ethics that truly embody Christian values in the contemporary world Marilynne Robinson discusses the link between personal holiness and a generous spirit Garret Keizer looks at the growing wealth class divide from a Christian perspective Rev Heidi Neumark examines hospitality as a core Christian value Rev Chloe Breyer explores a justice criterion for women's decisions on abortion Rev Bill Sinkford asks what really constitutes a God approved marriage and family Getting On Message is a book for clergy for politically active people of faith and for progressive organizers and strategists who want to learn how to talk to religious believers about the values they share

Tools for Effective Prayer Clarence Washington Sr., 2016-02-12 Just like your lifestyle your current prayer life is also perfectly designed to produce the result you are getting If you want a prayer life that will enable you to experience God's presence like you never have before and move Him to bless you like He has never blessed you before then you must start praying like you have never prayed before Tools for Effective Prayer will teach you how to do that There are some mechanics of prayers such as persistency and fervency that are essential for effective prayer However without the proper dynamics of prayer working to produce spiritual power in a person's life the positive effects of the discipline of proper mechanics are nullified Such is also the case with the contents of prayer If one's prayers don't include the essential contents effectiveness or power will be greatly diluted

Magill's Literary Annual 2003 Salem Press, 2003-06 Magill's Literary Annual 2003 is the fiftieth publication in a series that began in 1954 The philosophy behind the annual has been to evaluate critically 200 major examples of serious literature published during the previous year Our focus is to provide coverage for works that are likely to be of particular interest to the general reader that reflect the publishing trends of a given year that add to careers of authors being taught and researched in literature programs and that will stand the test of time By filtering the thousands of books published each year down to two hundred notable titles the editors have provided the busy librarian with an excellent reader's advisory tool and patrons with fodder for book discussion groups and a guide for selection The essay reviews in the Annual also provide a more academic reference review of a work than is typically found in newspapers and other periodical sources

This year's works are drawn from such categories as anthropology autobiography biography current affairs diaries economics environment essays history language literary criticism medicine memoirs nature philosophy poetry psychology religion science short fiction sociology technology travel and women's issues The articles are arranged alphabetically by book title A complete list of included titles can be found at the beginning of volume 1 Each 2 000 word article begins with a block of top matter that indicates the title author publisher and price of the work When possible the year of the author's birth is also provided The top matter also includes the number of pages of the book the type of work and when appropriate the time period and locale represented in the text Next comes a capsule description of the work When pertinent a list of principal characters or personages with brief descriptions introduces the review These original essay reviews analyze intent and relative success of the author and the work under discussion To assist the reader further the articles are supplemented by a list of additional reviews for further study Every essay includes a brief biography of the author or authors and thumbnail photographs of the book covers and authors are included as available At the end of volume 2 are four cumulative indexes listing works covered from the years 1977 to 2003 an index of Biographical Works by Subject a Category Index a Title Index and an Author Index The index of Biographical Works by Subject is arranged by subject rather than by author or title
