Images of Berkeley Raymond W. Houghton, David Berman, 1986 The Intimacy of Images Myriam

Lamrani, 2025-05-13 La Santa Muerte becomes a lens for understanding how Oaxacans relate to saints loved ones and other special dead In Oaxaca images of saints and loved ones as well as of victims of political or criminal violence are seemingly everywhere While Oaxacans relate to all sorts of special dead they are particularly devoted to La Santa Muerte Saint Death a female reaper like figure whose popularity has risen in tandem with violence throughout Mexico The Intimacy of Images recontextualizes Oaxacans relationships with their special dead through the lens of La Santa Muerte examining how devotees closely interact with what Lamrani terms intimate images not only devotional effigies but also photographs films tattoos and murals and even dreams and visions Though Mexicans have a well known cultural familiarity with death Lamrani argues that devotion to La Santa Muerte builds upon this intimacy even as it also participates in the production of terror and reflects political and criminal violence Ultimately Lamrani finds that these human image interactions represent more than Catholic devotion they reveal the secrets of Oaxacan political religious and social life embody changing relationships to mortality and violence and even offer insight into the practice of anthropology itself University of California, Berkeley Harvey

Helfand, 2002 This book offers an insider's view of the first school in the University of California system The Beaux Arts master plan by John Galen Howard created a classic setting for early buildings by Bernard Maybeck Julia Morgan and Greene Greene and later buildings by John Carl Warnecke Edward Larrabee Barnes Charles Moore Donlyn Lyndon William Turnbull and landscape architecture by Lawrence Halprin The campus is unique for its breadth of architectural works by California designers This book featuring over 100 buildings is fascinating to read and an easy to use companion for a walking tour With a foreword by Berkeley's Chancellor Robert M Berdahl and striking photographs by author Harvey Helfand this is the definitive guide to the history and architecture of the first public institution of higher learning in California Inside front cover

The Lure of Images David Morgan, 2020-08-26 This is the history of the relationship between mass produced visual media and religion in the United States It is a journey from the 1780s to the present from early evangelical tracts to teenage witches and televangelists and from illustrated books to contemporary cinema David Morgan explores the cultural marketplace of public representation showing how American religionists have made special use of visual media to instruct the public to practice devotion and ritual and to form children and converts Examples include studying Jesus as an American idol Jewish kitchens and Christian Parlors Billy Sunday and Buffy the Vampire Slayer Uncle Tom's Cabin and the anti slavery movement This unique perspective reveals the importance of visual media to the construction and practice of sectarian and national community in a nation of immigrants old and new and the tensions between the assimilation and the preservation of ethnic and racial identities As well as the contribution of visual media to the religious life of Christians and Jews Morgan shows how images have informed the perceptions and practices of other religions in America including New Age Buddhist and Hindu spirituality and Mormonism Native American Religions and the Occult Images of Berkeley County Berkeley County Historical Society (Berkeley County, W. Va.), 2009 The Evolution of Imagination Stephen T. Asma, 2017-06-21 An ambitious and exciting book about creativity charts new territory Science Consider Miles Davis horn held high sculpting a powerful musical statement full of tonal patterns inside jokes and thrilling climactic phrases all on the fly Or a comedy troupe riffing on cues from the audience until the whole room erupts with laughter a team of software engineers brainstorming their way to the next Google or the Einsteins of the world code cracking the mysteries of nature Maybe it's simply a child playing with her toys What do all of these activities share With wisdom humor and joy philosopher Stephen T Asma answers that question imagination And from there he takes us on an extraordinary tour of the human creative spirit Guided by neuroscience animal behavior evolution philosophy and psychology Asma burrows deep into the human psyche to look at the enigmatic powerful engine that is our improvisational creativity the source he argues of our remarkable imaginal capacity How he asks can a story evoke a whole world inside us How are we able to rehearse a skill a speech or even an entire scenario simply by thinking about it How does creativity go beyond experience and help us make something completely new And how does our moral imagination help us sculpt a better society As he shows we live in a world that is only partly happening in reality Huge swaths of our cognitive experiences are made up by what ifs almosts and maybes an imagined terrain that churns out one of the most overlooked but necessary resources for our flourishing possibilities Considering everything from how imagination works in our physical bodies to the ways we make images from the mechanics of language and our ability to tell stories to the creative composition of self consciousness Asma expands our personal and day to day forms of imagination into a grand scale as one of the decisive evolutionary forces that has guided human development from the Paleolithic era to today The result is an inspiring look at the rich relationships among improvisation imagination and culture and a privileged glimpse into the unique nature of our evolved minds Getting the Picture Jason E. Hill, Vanessa R. Schwartz, 2020-09-08 Powerful and often controversial news pictures promise to make the world at once immediate and knowable Yet while many great writers and thinkers have evaluated photographs of atrocity and crisis few have sought to set these images in a broader context by defining the rich and diverse history of news pictures in their many forms For the first time this volume defines what counts as a news picture how pictures are selected and distributed where they are seen and how we critique and value them Presenting the best new thinking on this fascinating topic this book considers the news picture over time from the dawn of the illustrated press in the nineteenth century through photojournalism's heyday and the rise of broadcast news and newsreels in the twentieth century and into today's digital platforms It examines the many kinds of images sport fashion society celebrity war catastrophe and exoticism and many mediums including photography painting wood engraving film and video Packed with the best research and full colour illustrations throughout this book will appeal to students and readers interested in how news and history are key sources of our rich visual culture "The Netherlandish Image after Iconoclasm, 1566?672 " MiaM. Mochizuki,2017-07-05 Debunking the myth of the stark white Protestant church interior this study explores the very objects and architectural additions that were in fact added to Netherlandish church interiors in the first century after iconoclasm In charting these additions Mia Mochizuki helps explain the impact of iconoclasm on the cultural topography of the Dutch Golden Age and by extension permits careful scrutiny of a decisive moment in the history of the image Focusing on the Great or St Bavo Church in Haarlem this interdisciplinary book draws on art history history and theology to look at the impact of iconoclasm and reformation on the process of image making in the early modern Netherlands The new objects that began to appear in the early Dutch Reformed Church signaled a dramatic change in the form function and patronage of church art and testified to new roles for church government guild and resident Each chapter in the book introduces a major theme of the nascent Protestant church interior the Word made material the Word made memorial and the Word made manifest which is then explored through the painting sculpture and architecture of the early Dutch Reformed Church The text is heavily illustrated with images of the objects under discussion many of them never before published A large number of these images are from the camera of prize winning photographer Tjeerd Frederikse with additional photography courtesy of E A van Voorden This book unveils defines and reproduces a host of images previously unaddressed by scholarship and links them to more familiar and long studied Dutch paintings It provides a religious art companion to general studies of Dutch Golden Age art and lends greater depth to our understanding of iconoclasm as well as the way in which cultural artifacts and religious material culture reflect and help to shape the values of a community Taking up the challenge of an unusual category of objects for visual analysis this The Development of Berkeley's Philosophy George Alexander Johnston,1923 Mind ,1916 A journal of philosophy covering epistemology metaphysics philosophy of language philosophy of logic and philosophy of mind The Idolatrous Eye Michael O'Connell,2000 Michael O Connell shows that Reformation culture was preoccupied with idolatry and that the theatre was attacked as idolatrous This anti theatricalism targeted the traditional mystery plays The text aims to explain what this meant for the secular theatre that followed The Freedom Riders Across Borders Barbara Lüthi,2022-08-30 The Freedom Riders Across Borders Contentious Mobilities provides the first comprehensive transnational historical analysis of the Freedom Rides It explores the transnational history of these social movements and the struggles for the right to mobility and other civil rights in the United States of America Australia and Palestine between 1961 and 2011 This book makes a significant contribution to the transnational studies of social movements and the burgeoning field of mobility studies by investigating the specific constellations of mobility as historically and geographically specific formations of movement as well as investigating how the images ideas and strategies of Freedom Riders were adapted translated and moved across time and space Foremost this book speaks to the pressing questions of the past and present concerning the politics and inequalities of mobilities impacting different social groups in different ways From a historical perspective it gives answers to the intensified interest and questions concerning the dynamics techniques and contentious politics of social movements in a globalized environment The book details how the question of mobility has come to constitute political conflict and protest over norms restrictions and representations It shows not only that mobility is a differentially accessed resource which shapes and is shaped by political processes but also that contestation is an equal part of forming mobility The book identifies vehicles as a mobile site of contestation and in the context of the Freedom Rides as a site of strategic political action In doing so L thi makes a persuasive case for mobility to be given a central place in the study of progressive social movements As such this book will be of great interest to researchers in a number of disciplines including history geography and sociology The African Photographic Archive Christopher Morton, Darren Newbury, 2020-10-15 African photography has emerged as a significant focus of research and scholarship over the last twenty years the result of a growing interest in postcolonial societies and cultures and a turn towards visual evidence across the humanities and social sciences At the same time many rich and fascinating photographic collections have come to light This volume explores the complex theoretical and practical issues involved in the study of African photographic archives based on case studies drawn from across the continent dating from the 19th century to the present day Chapters consider what constitutes an archive from the familiar mission and state archives to more local vernacular and personal accumulations of photographs the importance of a critical and reflexive engagement with photographic collections and the question of where and what is Africa as constructed in the photographic archive Essential reading for all researchers working with photographic archives this book consolidates current thinking on the topic and sets the agenda for future research in this field The Relation of Berkeley's Later to His Earlier Idealism Carl Vernon Tower, 1899 Berkeley's 'Three Dialogues' Aaron Garrett, 2010-07-15 Berkeley's Three Dialogues is a key text in the history of philosophy the dialogues are with the exception of Hume's arguably the most important philosophical dialogues written in English In Berkeley's Three Dialogues A Reader's Guide Aaron Garrett offers a clear and thorough account of this key philosophical work The guide explores the complex and important ideas inherent in the text and provides a cogent survey of the reception and influence of Berkeley's work Sensational Movies Birgit Meyer, 2015-10-16 Tracing the rise and development of the Ghanaian video film industry between 1985 and 2010 Sensational Movies examines video movies as seismographic devices recording a culture and society in turmoil This book captures the dynamic process of popular filmmaking in Ghana as a new medium for the imagination and tracks the interlacing of the medium's technological economic social cultural and religious aspects Stepping into the void left by the defunct state film industry video movies negotiate the imaginaries deployed by state cinema on the one hand and Christianity on the other Birgit Meyer analyzes Ghanaian video as a powerful sensational form Colliding with the state film industry's representations of culture these movies are indebted to religious notions of divination and revelation Exploring the format of film as revelation Meyer unpacks the affinity between cinematic and popular Christian modes of looking and showcases the transgressive potential haunting figurations of the occult In this brilliant study Meyer offers a deep conceptually innovative analysis of the role of visual culture within the politics and aesthetics of religious world making The Political Lives of Saints Angie Heo, 2018-11-20 Since the Arab Spring in 2011 and ISIS's rise in 2014 Egypt's Copts have attracted attention worldwide as the collateral damage of revolution and as victims of sectarian strife Countering the din of persecution rhetoric and Islamophobia The Political Lives of Saints journeys into the quieter corners of divine intercession to consider what martyrs' miracles and mysteries have to do with the routine challenges faced by Christians and Muslims living together under the modern nation state Drawing on years of extensive fieldwork Angie Heo argues for understanding popular saints as material media that organize social relations between Christians and Muslims in Egypt toward varying political ends With an ethnographer's eye for traces of antiquity she deciphers how long cherished imaginaries of holiness broker bonds of revolutionary sacrifice reconfigure national sites of sacred territory and pose sectarian threats to security and order A study of tradition and nationhood at their limits The Political Lives of Saints shows that Coptic Orthodoxy is a core domain of minoritarian regulation and authoritarian rule powerfully reversing the recurrent thesis of its impending extinction in the Arab Muslim world Placemaking Page Tara Page, 2020-06-18 Where are you from This question often refers to someone's birthplace childhood home or a place that holds significance The location that is offered in response to this question is more than a means of orientation it is a lived place that has complex meanings that identify are learned and made Yet the significance of place to our lives is often overlooked It is key to understanding who we are and how we are both individually and collectively Through embodied and material practice research underpinned with theories of new materialism Tara Page enables us to learn and understand how our ways of knowing making and learning place are entangled with embodied and material pedagogies She shows how our bodily engagements in and with the material world are intra actions of the who with the where The creative and multi dimensional approach of this book with links to photographs creative practices to be read with the text brings together the global with the local practice with theory and demonstrates the complex pedagogy between bodies places and everyday social relations of power Page reveals that placemaking is the very experiential fact of our existence but is also a necessary one

Walsingham in Literature and Culture from the Middle Ages to Modernity Dominic Janes, Gary Fredric Waller, 2010 Though well known as a shrine to the Virgin Mary and as a popular pilgrimage site Walsingham has only recently received serious scholarly attention This volume represents the first collection of multi disciplinary essays on Walsingham's broader significance Contributors focus on the hitherto neglected issue of Walsingham's cultural impact the literary historical art historical and sociological significance that Walsingham has had since the later Middle Ages Belief in Media Mary E. Hess, 2020-07-24 Most works on media developments and Christianity approach the subject from the perspective of the implications of new media technologies for traditional Christian practices or how churches can use new media to further their goals The common framework of analysis is a given reality of traditional institutional Christianity and how it interacts with affects and is affected by media Media are treated as a separate cultural reality This book presents in an accessible form the new directions that approach the interaction of media and religion from a cultural perspective and illustrates these new directions by a number of international and intercultural case studies and explorations Looking at how global media are constructing cultural forms structures and processes the authors show how these have become the life out of which individual and social meaning is created and practised Examining how individuals create religious meaning by interacting with media of various kinds crossing boundaries of traditional religious cultures and contemporary media cultures this book reveals how Christian institutions are also defined in the process of living culturally within their broader media context
