readers will now understand why Grasping the World Donald Preziosi, Claire Farago, 2019-07-23 First published in 2004 this volume recognises that there is much more to museums than the documenting monumentalizing or theme parking of identity history and heritage This landmark anthology aims to make strange the very existence of museums and to plot a critical historical and ethical understanding of their origins and history A radical selection of key texts introduces the reader to the intense investigation of the modern European idea of the museum that has taken place over the last fifty years Texts first published in journals and books are brought together in one volume with up to the minute and specially commissioned pieces by leading administrators curators and art historians The selections are organized by key themes that map the evolution of the debate and introduced by Donald Preziosi and Claire Farago two considerable critics who write with the edge and enthusiasm of art historians who have spent their lives working with museums Grasping the World is an invaluable resource for students and teachers of art history and museum studies Never Ending Nightmare Pierre Dardot, Christian Laval, 2019-04-16 Neoliberalism's war against democracy and how to resist it How do we explain the strange survival of the forces responsible for the 2008 economic crisis one of the worst since 1929 How do we explain the fact that neoliberalism has emerged from the crisis strengthened When it broke a number of the most prominent economists hastened to announce the death of neoliberalism They regarded the pursuit of neoliberal policy as the fruit of dogmatism For Pierre Dardot and Christian Laval neoliberalism is no mere dogma Supported by powerful oligarchies it is a veritable politico institutional system that obeys a logic of self reinforcement Far from representing a break crisis has become a formidably effective mode of government In showing how this system crystallized and solidified the book explains that the neoliberal straitjacket has succeeded in preventing any course correction by progressively deactivating democracy Increasing the disarray and demobilization the so called governmental Left has actively helped strengthen this oligarchical logic The latter could lead to a definitive exit from democracy in favour of expertocratic governance free of any control However nothing has been decided yet The revival of democratic activity which we see emerging in the political movements and experiments of recent years is a sign that the political confrontation with the neoliberal system and the oligarchical bloc has already begun

Modern/Postmodern Silvio Gaggi, 2015-08-10 Silvio Gaggi's survey of the vast terrain of twentieth century arts and ideas is unique not only for its scope but also for the clarity and cohesiveness it brings to wide ranging seemingly disparate works By identifying underlying epistemological aesthetic and ethical issues Gaggi draws connections among such modern and postmodern masterpieces as Pirandello's and Brecht's theater Fowles's and Barth's fiction Warhol's paintings Godard's and Bergman's films and Derrida's literary theory Modern Postmodern begins with a discussion of the profound skepticism about traditional beliefs and about our ability to know the self that lies at the heart of both modernism and postmodernism Gaggi identifies the modernist response to this doubt as the rejection of mimesis in favor of a purely formalistic or expressionistic art The postmodern response on the other hand is above all to create art that is self referential concerned with art itself the history of art or its processes Drawing from the work of Piranadello and Brecht paradigms that can be applies to many different art works Gaggi emphasizes how these works from diverse media relate to one another and what their relationships are to the contemporary artistic and philosophical climate He concentrates on the works themselves but examines theory as a parallel manifestation of the same obsessions that inform recent literature and art Gaggi asks finally if self referential art can also be politically and ethically engaged with the reality outside it He concludes that the postmodern obsession with language narrativity and artifice is not necessarily a decadent indulgence but is at its best an honest inquiry into the problems questions and paradoxes of language Modern Postmodern is a lively approach to postmodern art that will interest all students and scholars of contemporary art and literature

In a Dark Time Joseph Dewey, 1990 What was gunpowder Trivial What was electricity Meaningless This atomic bomb is the Second Coming in wrath Winston Churchill July 1945 Commencing earnestly in the 1960s the American novel began its exploration into how mankind could adjust to life in the shadow of the mushroom cloud how we could begin to think about the Unthinkable American writers faced squarely the age birthed by nuclear physics and found in its very darkness difficult avenues to hope by rediscovering that most potent traditional response to a history in crisis the apocalyptic temper Dewey focuses on seven novels that touch the variety of generic experiments and postures of the post World War II American novel These novels by Vonnegut Coover Percy Pynchon Gaddis and DeLillo represent a significant argument concerning the American literary response to living within the oppressive technologies of the Nuclear Age Departing from other studies that veer toward speculative fiction or toward the more narrowly defined religious angles In a Dark Time defines the apocalyptic temper as a most traditional literary genre that articulates the anxieties of a community in crisis a way for that community to respond to the perception of a history gone critical by turning squarely to that history and to find in that gesture the way toward a genuine hope Dewey s new approach consists of applying the theory of apocalyptic literature to a body of essentially secular writings Dewey resists the traditional approach studying works dealing with nuclear devastation to focus on how a generation of literary responses have dealt with the larger questions about how to live with the recognition of End times Dewey convincingly demonstrates that this literature reminds its moments in history that only in a dark time will the eye begin to see Chickamauga Charles Wright, 2014-07-29 This volume Wright's eleventh book of poetry is a vivid contemplative far reaching yet wholly plain spoken collection of moments appearing as lenses through which to see the world beyond our moments Chickamauga is also a virtuoso exploration of the power of concision in lyric poetry a testament to the flexible music of the long line Wright has made his own As a reviewer in Library Journal noted Wright is one of those rare and gifted poets who can turn thought into music Following his self prescribed regimen of purgatio illuminatio and contemplatio Wright spins one lovely lyric after another on such elemental subjects as sky trees birds months and seasons But the real subject is the thinking process itself and the mysterious alchemy of language The world is a language we never quite understand Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio political consequences of the migrants insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds Worlds Ending. Ending Worlds Jenny Stümer, Michael Dunn, 2023-12-04 The notion of apocalypse is an age old concept which has gained renewed interest in popular and scholarly discourse The book highlights the versatile explications of apocalypse today demonstrating that apocalyptic transformations the various encounters with anthropogenic climate change nuclear violence polarized politics colonial assault and capitalist extractivism navigate a range of interdisciplinary views on the present moment Moving from old worlds to new worlds from world ending experiences to apocalyptic imaginaries and finally from authoritarianism to activism and advocacy the contributions begin to map the emerging field of Apocalyptic and Post Apocalyptic Studies Foregrounding the myriad ways in which collective imaginations of apocalypse underpin ethical political and sometimes individual experience the authors provide key points of reference for
