Introducing Literary Theories : A Guide And Glossary Julian Wolfreys, 2005-01-01 Introducing Literary Theories Julian Wolfreys, 2001

Introducing Literary Theories is an ideal introduction for those coming to literary theory for the first time. It provides an accessible introduction to the major theoretical approaches in chapters covering Bakhtinian Criticism, Structuralism, Feminist Theory, Marxist Literary Theories, Reader Response Theories, Psychoanalytic Criticism, Deconstruction, Poststructuralism, New Historicism, Cultural Materialism, Postcolonial Theory, Gay Studies, Queer Theories, Cultural Studies, and Postmodernism. A table of contents arranged by theoretical method and a second arranged by key texts offer the reader alternative pathways through the volume and a general introduction which traces the history and importance of literary theory complete the introductory material. In each of the following chapters the authors provide a clear presentation of the theory in question and notes towards a reading of a key text to help the student understand both the methodology and the practice of literary theory. The texts used for illustration include In Memoriam, A. H. H. Middlemarch, Mrs Dalloway, Paradise Lost, A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man, Prospero's Books, The Swimming Pool Library, and The Tempest. Every chapter ends with a set of questions for further consideration, an annotated bibliography, and a supplementary bibliography, while a glossary of critical terms completes the book. Derived and adapted from the successful foundation textbook Literary Theories: A Reader and Guide, Introducing Literary Theories is a highly readable, self-contained, and comprehensive guide that succeeds in making contemporary theory easily understandable. Each chapter provides an overview of the theory, notes towards readings of canonical literary texts, questions for further consideration, an annotated bibliography, and a supplementary bibliography.

Beginning theory Peter Barry, 2017-08-08

Beginning theory has been helping students navigate through the thickets of literary and cultural theory for over two decades. This new and expanded fourth edition continues to offer readers the best single volume introduction to the field. The bewildering variety of approaches, theorists, and technical language is lucidly and expertly unravelled. Unlike many books which assume certain positions about the critics and the theories they represent, Beginning theory allows readers to develop their own ideas once first principles and concepts have been grasped. The book has been updated for this edition and includes a new introduction, expanded chapters, and an overview of the subject. Theory after Theory which maps the arrival of new isms since the second edition appeared in 2002 and the third edition in 2009.

This book offers a detailed engagement between the French philosopher Jacques Derrida and the contemporary Irish author Paul Howard aka Ross O Carroll Kelly The book offers insightful analyses of Derrida's deconstructive theory with all its concepts non concepts and neologisms thus showing how they can be used in order to provide a critique of the socio linguistic realm of Howard's fictional series Through his work Howard set in ink a depiction of Ireland and specifically Dublin throughout the Celtic Tiger era and its aftermath The book promotes a dialogue between Derrida and Howard in order to cultivate a succinct and accessible overview of critical theory Writing London J. Wolfreys, 2004-08-11

Following on from Julian Wolfreys's successful Writing London 1998 this second volume extends Wolfreys's original argument that a new urban sensibility in the nineteenth century had been developed which established new ways of writing about and responding to the city Writing London Volume 2 explores through a range of readings of twentieth century films and texts the complex relationship between the experience of the city the pleasures of the urban text and the solitary nature of these pleasures The book has a broad focus in part dictated not only by the transformation of literary production in the twentieth century but also by the need to respond to the changes in both urban representation and London itself. Writers discussed include Virginia Woolf, Elizabeth Bowen, Maureen Duffy, Peter Ackroyd, Iain Sinclair, and Michael Moorcock. The volume covers texts from the late nineteenth century to the end of the twentieth in a critical reading that incorporates the theoretical insights of Walter Benjamin, Guy Debord, and Jacques Derrida.

Glossalalia Julian Wolfreys, 2003. Glossalalia is not a conventional glossary or dictionary. Although arranged alphabetically, it is a cutting edge introduction to the state of theory today. Here 26 newly commissioned definitions of theoretical keywords are presented in a playful A-Z format ranging from Animality to Zero. Leading theorists and critics including J. Hillis Miller, Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, Simon Critchley, Ernesto Laclau, and many others provide unusual and insightful interpretations of a range of unexpected terms such as Zero, X, and Yarn. They also reflect with renewed vigor upon such familiar concerns as Difference, Jouissance, Nation, and Otherness. Like a standard glossary, the volume invites the reader to start almost anywhere. But Glossalalia takes far beyond the parameters of a standard reference work that is simply about theory, by encouraging readers to actively engage with and enjoy theory and to consider the future possibilities of theory in the twenty-first century.

National Identity and Cultural Representation in the Novels of Arundhati Roy and Kiran Desai Sonali Das, 2018-04-18. This book is the first of its kind to examine the theories of nation and national identity in both the West according to the theories of Benedict Anderson and Salman Rushdie and in the East in the light of the works of Jawaharlal Nehru as they apply to the novels of Arundhati Roy and Kiran Desai. The second part of the twentieth century witnessed a new interface between fiction and history called New History. It brought into its purview the hitherto marginalized sections of society like slaves, peasants, workers, women, and children. Whereas the subalterns in The Inheritance of Loss are disempowered by the brunt of globalisation and neo-colonialism, the subalterns in The God of Small Things face the ire of the deep-seated divisions based on caste and gender bias in a postcolonial society. In addition, this book also deals with contemporary social issues like individual identity in a multicultural world where cultures and nature converge into myriad ways of living. It will be of immense benefit to MA and MPhil students all over India as well as to PhD scholars and teachers of English literature both in India and abroad.

Mesmerists, Monsters, and Machines Martin Willis, 2006. Using key canonical science fiction narratives, Mesmerists, Monsters, and Machines examines the intersection of the literary and scientific cultures of the 19th century.

Victorian Gothic J. Wolfreys, R. Robbins, 2000-09-24. To what extent did the Gothic haunt the nineteenth century? Victorian Gothic seeks to answer this as it introduces the reader to a timely revision of notions of the Gothic in all its manifestations. The Gothic is found to haunt all aspects of Victorian literature and culture. Moreover, Victorian Gothic connects its disparate areas of research in returning repeatedly to the question of the constitution of the subject in a study of the Victorians from the 1830s to the 1890s.

Transoceanic Perspectives in Amitav Ghosh's Ibis Trilogy Juan-José Martín-González, 2021-06-23. Transoceanic Perspectives in Amitav Ghosh's Ibis

Trilogy studies Ghosh's Sea of Poppies 2008 River of Smoke 2011 and Flood of Fire 2015 in relation to maritime criticism. Juan José Martínez González draws upon the intersections between maritime criticism and postcolonial thought to provide via an analysis of the Ibis trilogy alternative insights into nationalism's cosmopolitanism and globalization. He shows that the Victorian age in its transoceanic dimension can be read as an era of proto globalization that facilitates a materialist critique of the inequities of contemporary global neo liberalism. The book argues that in order to maintain its critical sharpness postcolonialism must re-direct its focus towards today's most obvious legacy of nineteenth century imperialism: capitalist globalization. Tracing the migrating characters who engage in transoceanic crossings through Victorian sea lanes in the Ibis trilogy Martínez González explores how these dispossessed collectives made sense of their identities in the Victorian waterworlds and illustrates the political possibilities provided by the sea crossing and its fluid boundaries.

Comparative Criticism: Volume 24, Fantastic Currencies in Comparative Literature: Gothic to Postmodern E. S. Shaffer, 2002

This new volume looks at Fantastic Currencies: money, modes, media. Marshall McLuhan's Mosaic Elena Lamberti, 2012-01-01 One hundred years after Marshall McLuhan's birth Elena Lamberti explores a fundamental yet neglected aspect of his work: the solid humanistic roots of his original mosaic form of writing. In this investigation of how his famous communication theories were influenced by literature and the arts Lamberti proposes a new approach to McLuhan's thought. Lamberti delves into McLuhan's humanism in light of his work on media and culture exploring how he began to perceive literature not just as a subject but a function inseparable from communal existence. Lamberti pays particular attention to the central role played by Modernism in the making of his theories including the writings of Ford Madox Ford, James Joyce, Ezra Pound and Wyndham Lewis. Reconnecting McLuhan with his literary past Marshall McLuhan's Mosaic is a demonstration of one of his greatest ideas: that literature not only matters but can help us understand the hidden patterns that rule our environment. Key Terms in Literary Theory Mary Klages, 2012-03-29 Guide to key terms in literary theory designed to make difficult terms, concepts and theorists accessible and understandable. Studying English \(Pope\) Rob Pope, 2013-04-15 Studying English: Literature and Language is unique in offering both an introduction and a companion for students taking English Literature and Language degrees. Combining the functions of study guide, critical dictionary and text anthology this is a freshly recast version of the highly acclaimed The English Studies Book. This third edition features fresh sections on the essential skills and study strategies needed to complete a degree in English: from close reading, research and referencing to full guidelines and tips on essay writing, participating in seminars, presentations and revision; an authoritative guide to the life skills, further study options and career pathways open to graduates of the subject; updated introductions to the major theoretical positions and approaches taken by scholars in the field from earlier twentieth century practical criticism to the latest global and ecological perspectives; extensive entries on key terms such as author, genre, narrative and translation; widely current in debates across language, literature and culture; coverage of both local and global varieties of the
