

Context + CLUES

clues that readers use to find out the meaning of unknown words within a passage, story, or text

1. Read the sentence and find the underlined or unknown word. If it is not underlined already, underline it.
2. Think about what is happening in the sentence.
3. Find other words that may explain the meaning of the unknown word (could possibly be from the sentence before or after)
4. Try different words in the place of the unknown word to see if the sentence still makes sense.
