Entry Into the Inconceivable Thomas F. Cleary, 1983-06 Entry Into the Inconceivable is an introduction to the philosophy of the Hua yen school of Buddhism one of the cornerstones of East Asian Buddhist thought Cleary presents a survey of the unique Buddhist scripture on which the Hua yen teaching is based and a brief history of its introduction into China He also presents a succinct analysis of the essential metaphysics of Hua yen Buddhism as it developed during China s golden age and full translations of four basic texts by seminal thinkers of the school Entry Into the Inconceivable Thomas F. Cleary, 1994

The Huayan University Network Erik J. Hammerstrom, 2020-09-29 In the early twentieth century Chinese Buddhists sought to strengthen their tradition through publications institution building and initiatives aimed at raising the educational level of the monastic community In The Huayan University Network Erik J Hammerstrom examines how Huayan Buddhism was imagined taught and practiced during this time of profound political and social change and in so doing recasts the history of twentieth century Chinese Buddhism Hammerstrom traces the influence of Huayan University the first Buddhist monastic school founded after the fall of the imperial system in China Although the university lasted only a few years its graduates went on to establish a number of Huayan centered educational programs throughout China While they did not create a new sectarian Huayan movement they did form a network unified by a common educational heritage that persists to the present day Drawing on an extensive range of Buddhist texts and periodicals Hammerstrom shows that Huayan had a significant impact on Chinese Buddhist thought and practice and that the history of Huayan complicates narratives of twentieth century Buddhist modernization and revival Offering a wide range of insights into the teaching and practice of Huayan in Republican China this book sheds new light on an essential but often overlooked element of the East Asian Buddhist tradition

Thomé H. Fang, Tang Junyi and Huayan Thought King Pong Chiu, 2016-06-27 In Thom H Fang Tang Junyi and Huayan Thought King Pong Chiu discusses Thom H Fang and Tang Junyi two of the most important Confucian thinkers in twentieth century China who appropriated aspects of the medieval Chinese Buddhist school of Huayan to develop a response to the challenges of scientism the belief that quantitative natural science is the only valuable part of human learning and the only source of truth As Chiu argues Fang s and Tang s selective appropriations of Huayan thought paid heed to the hermeneutical importance of studying ancient texts in order to be more responsive to modern issues and helped confirm the values of Confucianism under the challenge of scientism a topic widely ignored in academia Zhipan's Account of the History of Buddhism in China Thomas Jülch, 2021-02-22 The Fozu tongji by Zhipan ca 1220 1275 is a key text of Chinese Buddhist historiography The core of the work is formed by the Fayun tongsai zhi an annalistic history of Buddhism in China which extends through Fozu tongji juan 34 48 Thomas J lch now presents a translation of the Fayun tongsai zhi in three volumes This second volume covers the annalistic display from the Sui dynasty to the end of the Wudai period Offering elaborate annotations J lch succeeds in clarifying the backgrounds to the historiographic contents which Zhipan presents in highly essentialized style J lch identifies the sources for the historical traditions Zhipan refers to and when accounts presented by Zhipan are inaccurate or imprecise he points out how the relevant matter is depicted in the sources Zhipan relies on Consistently employing these means in reliable style J lch defines a new standard for translations of medieval Chinese historiographic texts Buddhism and Postmodernity Jin Y. Park,2010-10-28 Buddhism and Postmodernity is a response to some of the questions that have emerged in the process of Buddhism s encounters with modernity and the West Jin Y Park broadly outlines these questions as follows first why are the interpretations and evaluations of Buddhism so different in Europe in the nineteenth century in the United States in the twentieth century and in traditional Asia second why does Zen Buddhism which offers a radically egalitarian vision maintain a strongly authoritarian leadership and third what ethical paradigm can be drawn from the Buddhist postmodern form of philosophy Park argues that as unrelated as these questions may seem the issues that have generated them are related to perennial philosophical themes of identity institutional power and ethics respectively Each of these themes constitutes one section of Buddhism and Postmodernity Park discusses the three issues in the book through the exploration of the Buddhist concepts of self and others language and thinking and universality and particularities Most of this discussion is drawn from the East Asian Buddhist traditions of Zen and Huayan Buddhism in connection with the Continental philosophies of postmodernism hermeneutics and deconstruction Self critical from both the Buddhist and Western philosophical perspectives Buddhism and Postmodernity points the reader toward a new understanding of Buddhist philosophy and offers a Buddhist postmodern ethical paradigm that challenges normative ethics of metaphysical traditions John Cage and Buddhist Ecopoetics Peter Jaeger,2013-09-26 John Cage was among the first wave of post war American artists and intellectuals to be influenced by Zen Buddhism and it was an influence that led him to become profoundly engaged with our current ecological crisis In John Cage and Buddhist Ecopoetics Peter Jaeger asks what did Buddhism mean to Cage And how did his understanding of Buddhist philosophy impact on his representation of nature Following Cage s own creative innovations in the poem essay form and his use of the ancient Chinese text the I Ching to shape his music and writing this book outlines a new critical language that reconfigures writing and silence Interrogating Cage s green Zen in the light of contemporary psychoanalysis and cultural critique as well as his own later turn towards anarchist politics John Cage and Buddhist Ecopoetics provides readers with a critically performative site for the Zen inspired nothing which resides at the heart of Cage s poetics and which so clearly intersects with his ecological writing Postmodern Ethics, Emptiness, and Literature Jae-seong Lee,2015-12-24 This study advances contemporary postmodern poststructural critical theory literary criticism in particular with the help of Mahayana especially Ch an Seon Chinese and Korean Zen Buddhist thought The quest for theinfinity of the Other West and Emptiness or the true I East contributes to the exploration of the contemporary critical issues of ethics and infinity Such an approach will awaken our sense of unrepresented genuine transcendence and immanence The Buddhist Emptiness shows us the absolute Other illuminated on a vaster scale The theory section explores and links Eastern and Western philosophies switching between the two While discussing in depth Hegel Nietzsche Heidegger Derrida Levinas Lacan Deleuze and Nancy this study gradually guides the reader from the contemporary Western thought on the Other and infinity to the Buddhist vision of Emptiness the ultimate reality To overcome the dualistic mode of thought inherent in tradition of Western metaphysics this exploration follows the line that observes Nagarjuna and the imprint of Ch'an teachings that are most prevalent in South Korean Buddhism The last three chapters demonstrate a Levinasian and Seon Buddhist approach to the book of Job part of the Judeo-Christian Bible as being a more literary than religious text and the excess of the Gothic mood in the two most distinguished and widely celebrated novels Bram Stoker's Dracula and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein The three texts compel readers to confront the infinity of the absolute Other or Emptiness The Grand Prize Winner of the 7th Wonhyo Academic Awards from the Korean Buddhism Promotion Foundation

Korea's Great Buddhist-Confucian Debate A. Charles Muller, 2015-05-31 This volume makes available in English the seminal treatises in Korea's greatest interreligious debate of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries On Mind Material Force and Principle and An Array of Critiques of Buddhism by Confucian statesman Ch'ng Toj'n 1342-1398 and Exposition of Orthodoxy by S'n monk Kihwa 1376-1433 are presented here with extensive annotation A substantial introduction provides a summary and analysis of the philosophical positions of both Neo-Confucianism and Buddhism as well as a germane history of the interactions between these two traditions in East Asia offering insight into religious tensions that persist to this day Translator A. Charles Muller shows how from the time Confucianism and Buddhism met in China these thought systems existed along with Daoism in a competing relationship that featured significant mutual influence A confrontative situation eventually developed in China wherein Confucian leaders began to criticize Buddhism During the late Koryŏ and early Chosŏn periods in Korea the Neo-Confucian polemic became the driving force in the movement to oust Buddhism from its position as Korea's state religion In his essays Ch'ng drew together the gamut of arguments that had been made against Buddhism throughout its long history in Korea Kihwa's essay met Neo-Confucian contentions with an articulate Buddhist response Thus in a rare moment in the history of religions a true philosophical debate ensued This debate was made possible based upon the two religions shared philosophical paradigm essence-function ch'e-yong This traditional East Asian way of interpreting society events phenomena human beings and the world understands all things to have both essence and function two contrasting yet wholly contiguous and mutually containing components All three East Asian traditions took this as their underlying philosophical paradigm and it is through this paradigm that they evaluated and criticized each other's doctrines and practices Specialists in philosophy religion and Korean studies will appreciate Muller's exploration of this pivotal moment in Korean intellectual history Because it includes a broad overview of the interactive history of East Asian religions this book can also serve as a general introduction to East Asian philosophical thought

Space and Time Taigen Dan Leighton, 2008-12-31 As a religion concerned with universal liberation Zen grew out of a Buddhist worldview very different from the currently prevalent scientific materialism Indeed says Taigen Dan Leighton Zen cannot be fully understood outside of a worldview that sees reality itself as a vital dynamic agent of awareness and healing In this book Leighton explicates that worldview through the writings of the Zen master Eihei D gen 1200 1253 considered the founder of the Japanese S t Zen tradition which currently enjoys increasing popularity in the West The Lotus Sutra arguably the most important Buddhist scripture in East Asia contains a famous story about bodhisattvas enlightening beings who emerge from under the earth to preserve and expound the Lotus teaching in the distant future The story reveals that the Buddha only appears to pass away but actually has been practicing and will continue to do so over an inconceivably long life span Leighton traces commentaries on the Lotus Sutra from a range of key East Asian Buddhist thinkers including Daosheng Zhiyi Zhanran Saigyō Myōe Nichiren Hakuin and Ryōkan But his main focus is Eihei Dōgen the 13th century Japanese Sōtō Zen founder who imported Zen from China and whose profuse provocative and poetic writings are important to the modern expansion of Buddhism to the West Dōgen's use of this sutra expresses the critical role of Mahayana vision and imagination as the context of Zen teaching and his interpretations of this story furthermore reveal his dynamic worldview of the earth space and time themselves as vital agents of spiritual awakening Leighton argues that Dōgen uses the images and metaphors in this story to express his own religious worldview in which earth space and time are lively agents in the bodhisattva project Broader awareness of Dōgen's worldview and its implications says Leighton can illuminate the possibilities for contemporary approaches to primary Mahayana concepts and practices Buddhist Philosophy William Edelglass, Jay

Garfield, 2009-04-21 The Buddhist philosophical tradition is vast internally diverse and comprises texts written in a variety of canonical languages It is hence often difficult for those with training in Western philosophy who wish to approach this tradition for the first time to know where to start and difficult for those who wish to introduce and teach courses in Buddhist philosophy to find suitable textbooks that adequately represent the diversity of the tradition expose students to important primary texts in reliable translations that contextualize those texts and that foreground specifically philosophical issues Buddhist Philosophy fills that lacuna It collects important philosophical texts from each major Buddhist tradition Each text is translated and introduced by a recognized authority in Buddhist studies Each introduction sets the text in context and introduces the philosophical issues it addresses and arguments it presents providing a useful and authoritative guide to reading and to teaching the text The volume is organized into topical sections that reflect the way that Western philosophers think about the structure of the discipline and each section is introduced by an essay explaining Buddhist approaches to that subject matter and the place of the texts collected in that section in the enterprise This volume is an ideal single text for an intermediate or advanced course in Buddhist philosophy and makes this tradition immediately accessible to the philosopher or student versed in Western philosophy coming to Buddhism for the first time It is also ideal for the scholar or student of Buddhist studies who is interested specifically in the philosophical dimensions of the Buddhist tradition Zen Questions

Taigen Dan Leighton, 2011-11-07 Whether speaking of student or master Zen hinges on the question Zen practice does not necessarily focus on the answers but on finding a space in which we may sustain uncertainty and remain present and upright in the middle of investigations Zen Questions begins by exploring The World of Zazen the foundational practice of the Zen school presenting it as an attitude of sustained inquiry that offers us an entryway into true repose and joy From there Leighton draws deeply on his own experience as a Zen scholar and teacher to invite us into the creativity of Zen awareness and practice He explores the poetic mind of Dogen with the poetry of Rumi Mary Oliver Gary Snyder and even the American Dharma Bard Bob Dylan What's more Leighton uncovers surprising resonances between the writings of America's Founding

Osto,2024-09-10 A number of converts to Buddhism report paranormal experiences Their accounts describe psychic abilities like clairvoyance and precognition out of body experiences near death experiences and encounters with other beings such as ghosts and deities and they often interpret these events through a specifically Buddhist lens This book is a groundbreaking exploration of these phenomena and their implications for both humanistic and scientific study of the paranormal D E Osto examines accounts of paranormal phenomena experienced by convert Buddhists from around the world collected through an online survey and interviews placing them in the context of Indian Buddhist sources and recent scientific research They focus in detail on the life stories of two interviewees and the important role the paranormal has played in their lives These contemporary first person narratives demonstrate the continued importance of the psychic and paranormal within the Buddhist tradition and they can be interpreted as a living Buddhist folklore Osto considers the limitations of both traditional religious views and Western scientific studies of the paranormal and proposes instead a new Buddhist phenomenological approach Ultimately Paranormal States contends these deeply mysterious and extraordinary experiences exceed current understandings and they can help bridge the gap between religious and scientific worldviews World Philosophies Ninian Smart,1999 World Philosophies is a comprehensive survey of the world s philosophical and religious traditions by one of our foremost religious thinkers Ninian Smart discusses notable figures such as Plato and Kierkegaard in the West the Buddha and Mao Zedong in Asia Tempels and Knibanga in Africa and Rodo and Royce in America Covering a wide range of topics including Indian ideas of testimony and evidence Chinese notions of moral development Buddhist concepts of cosmology and Latin American critiques of materialism Smart sheds new light on the astonishing diversity of philosophies that have developed throughout history Discovering World Religions Gabriel J.
