Grants Program

Environmental Grantmaking Foundations 2003:

Environmental Grantmaking Foundations ,1997 Directory of Research Grants 2005 Greenwood-Heinemann Publishing,2004 A treasure chest of information on more than 5 100 current programs from 1 880 sponsors Find grants for basic research equipment acquisition building construction renovation fellowships and 23 other program types

Foundations for Social Change Daniel Faber,Deborah McCarthy Auriffeille,2005-09-01 This multi disciplinary collection blends broad overviews and case studies as well as different theoretical perspectives in a critique of the relationship between United States philanthropic foundations and movements for social change Scholars and practitioners examine how these foundations support and or thwart popular social movements and address how philanthropic institutions can be more accountable and democratic in a sophisticated provocative and accessible manner Foundations for Social Change brings together the leading voices on philanthropy and social movements into a single collection and its interdisciplinary approach will appeal to scholars students foundation officials non profit advocates and social movement activists

Operating Grants for Nonprofit Organizations 2005 Grants Program,2005-04-30 Few needs are more important to a nonprofit organization than funding for operating costs In this new directory nonprofits and other organizations seeking grants and funding opportunities to support general operating expenses will find over 1 300 current operating grants organized by state with contact and requirement information for each Three user friendly indexes subject sponsor and geographic restriction help grantseekers quickly find the ideal funding opportunity Directory of Grants in the Humanities 2003/2004 ,2003 Grants Jean M. Fromm,2007 Grants are available from thousands of sources both private and public To the grantseeker however this wealth of sources appears like an impenetrable jungle Where are the grants I need and what do I need to do to submit my ideas and proposals This book is designed to answer these questions by aiming the grantseeker to both the grant givers and by providing a bibliography of book for further research

Classified Karen Pittelman,Resource Generation,2005-12-23 Use your advantage to fight for social change with this resource guide for people with class privilege who are tired of cover ups and ready to figure out how to use privilege for the good of the world The fight for economic justice can draw stark battle lines with the fight portrayed simplistically as Us versus Them with the rich in the role of Them So where does that leave young people with wealth who believe in social change Afraid of being branded the enemy yet deeply committed to social justice they re left in a confusing no man s land This conflict can lead most young people with wealth to keep their privilege hidden making it impossible for them to bring their resources access and connections to the struggle for social change Coauthored by Karen Pittelman who dissolved her 3 million trust fund to cofound a foundation for low income women activists Classified is a resource guide for people with class privilege who are tired of cover ups and ready to figure out how their privilege really works Complete with comics exercises and personal stories this book gives readers the tools they need to put their privilege to work for social change Directory of Grants in the Humanities

,2004 Foundation Fundamentals Kief Schladweiler,2004 Learn how to identify and cultivate the most receptive foundation funders This edition provides beginners with a thorough overview of the funding research process including online CD ROM and print tools A popular textbook for nonprofit management courses this volume also includes a concise overview of foundations and their role in the funding community Directory of Biomedical and Health Care Grants 2004 Oryx Press,Grants Program,Program] [Grants,2005 This latest edition covers over 2 300 funding sources from all levels of government corporations and foundations American Foundations Helmut K. Anheier,David C. Hammack,2010-09-01 Foundations play an essential part in the philanthropic activity that defines so much of American life No other nation provides its foundations with so much autonomy and freedom of action as does the United States Liberated both from the daily discipline of the market and from direct control by government American foundations understandably attract great attention As David Hammack and Helmut Anheier note in this volume Americans have criticized foundations for their alleged conservatism liberalism elitism radicalism devotion to religious tradition hostility to religion in short for commitments to causes whose significance can be measured in part by the controversies they provoke Americans have also criticized foundations for ineffectiveness and even foolishness Their size alone conveys some sense of the significance of American foundations whose assets amounted to over 530 billion in 2008 despite a dramatic decline of almost 22 percent in the previous year And in 2008 foundation grants totaled over 45 billion But what roles have foundations actually played over time and what distinctive roles do they fill today How have they shaped American society how much difference do they make What roles are foundations likely to play in the future This comprehensive volume the product of a three year project supported by the Aspen Institute s program on the Nonprofit Sector and Philanthropy provides the most thorough effort ever to assess the impact and significance of the nation s large foundations In it leading researchers explore how foundations have shaped or failed to shape each of the key fields of foundation work American Foundations takes the reader on a wide ranging tour evaluating foundation efforts in education scientific and medical research health care social welfare international relations arts and culture religion and social change Nonprofits and Their Networks Daniel M. Sabet,2022-08-09 On the border of the United States and Mexico few policy issues face such acute challenges as those related to water Border cities face an uncertain future water supply low income neighborhoods often lack water and sewer services and water contamination poses a risk to the health of residents and the environment Responses by government agencies on both sides of the border have been insufficient Increasing economic development has mainly resulted in increasing problems These limitations of government and market forces suggest that nonprofit organizations the so called third sector might play an important role in meeting the growing challenges in the region Finding that these organizations do have a positive impact Daniel Sabet seeks to understand how autonomous nonprofit organizations have emerged and developed along the border He employs data from more than 250 interviews with members of civil society organizations and public officials surveys of neighborhood association leaders observations at public meetings and many secondary sources His research compares the experiences of third sector organizations in four prominent Mexican border cities Tijuana Nogales Ciudad Ju rez and Nuevo Laredo Sabet finds that political change is a necessary precondition for the establishment of an independent third sector The demise of one party rule in Mexico has given nonprofit organizations greater opportunities to flourish he finds but persistent informal rules still obstruct their emergence and development Sabet concludes that the success of the third sector will depend on the organizations networks He examines organizational ties to three key groups U S nonprofits the business community and government created methods for public participation and evaluates the importance of these connections for the future

Operating Grants for Nonprofit Organizations 2004 GrantSelect,Grants Program,Program] [Grants,2004 Few needs are more important to a nonprofit organization than funding for operating costs This essential new directory provides complete information for over 1 300 current operating grants for nonprofits and other organizations The Price of Climate Action Edouard Morena,2016-09-11 This book explores how a handful of liberal foundations contributed to establish and orientate the international climate regime Looking back at the origins of international climate philanthropy and its evolution over the past three decades the author examines the role of philanthropic foundations in the international climate debate The research presented in this book shows that foundations through their grant making and convening activities are at the heart of the climate debate In fact many credit them with having through their activities prior to and at the COP significantly contributed to laying the basis for the Paris Agreement in December 2015 EE News ,1999 The Europa International Foundation Directory 2023 Europa Publications,2023-07-27 This fully revised directory of international foundations trusts charitable and grantmaking NGOs and other similar non profit institutions provides a comprehensive picture of foundation activity on a worldwide scale Now in its 32nd edition The Europa International Foundation Directory includes Information on some 2 700 organizations organized by country or territory including details of funding priorities and projects geographical area of activity principal staff and contact details Details of co ordinating bodies and centres that assist foundations grantmaking organizations and other NGOs Bibliography Comprehensive index section This new edition has been revised and expanded to include the most comprehensive and up to date information on this growing sector Environmental Change and Security Project Report ,2003 Foundation Yearbook ,2005 The Business of Giving P. Grant,2011-12-06 The Business of Giving reviews current thinking and surveys the key techniques any philanthropist or grantmaker should adopt It also outlines a generic social investment process that can be utilized for all philanthropic or grantmaking programmes Essential reading for all engaged in or with an interest in philanthropy or civil society in general The Complete Idiot's Guide to Grant Writing Waddy Thompson,2003 Offers advice to grant writers on how to obtain the funds most suitable to given needs covering such areas as writing a statement of need developing a budget and building partnerships
