Entangled Histories And Negotiated Universals:

Entangled Histories and Negotiated Universals Wolf Lepenies, 2003 Entangled Histories and Negotiated Universals explores the changing field of local histories Young researchers from around the world including scholars from Canada Mozambique China and Germany representing fields as diverse as history linguistics political science anthropology medicine and materials science present their findings all of which coincide in their understanding that local histories are inseparably intertwined and that fundamentally all history is the history of relationships The Making of Early Kashmir Muhammad Ashraf Wani, Aman Ashraf Wani, 2023-02-22 This is the first full length history of early Kashmir locating it beyond its regional context from pre history to the thirteenth century Drawing on a variety of sources including conventional archaeological and literary sources as well as non conventional sources like philology toponym and surnames it presents a connected history of early Kashmir over the longue duree It challenges tendencies towards nationalist historiographies of the region by situating it in the context of the shared histories of humanity The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of history archaeology anthropology and South Asian studies Work in a Modern Society Jürgen Kocka, 2010 Whereas the history of workers and labor movements has been widely researched the history of work has been rather neglected by comparison This volume offers original contributions that deal with cultural social and theoretical aspects of the history of work in modern Europe including the relations between gender and work working and soldiering work and trust constructions and practices The volume focuses on Germany but also places the case studies in a broader European context It thus offers an insight into social and cultural history as practiced by German speaking scholars today but also introduces the reader to ongoing research in this field Engineering Education for Social Justice Juan Lucena, 2013-05-24 Hoping to help transform engineering into a more socially just field of practice this book offers various perspectives and strategies while highlighting key concepts and themes that help readers understand the complex relationship between engineering education and social justice This volume tackles topics and scopes ranging from the role of Buddhism in socially just engineering to the blinding effects of ideologies in engineering to case studies on the implications of engineered systems for social justice This book aims to serve as a framework for interventions or strategies to make social justice more visible in engineering education and enhance scholarship in the emerging field of Engineering and Social Justice ESJ This creates a toolbox for engineering educators and students to make social justice a central theme in engineering education Cross-border Interactions and Encounters between Germany and Korea Yonson Ahn, Jihye Kim, 2023-10-15 Cross Border Interactions and Encounters between Germany and Korea undertakes an interdisciplinary comprehensive exploration of the multifaceted dimensions of Korea and Germany's relationships Offering fresh perspectives and insights into the development and transformations of these cross border interactions this book comes as a welcome examination of a relatively underrepresented research area Practicing Piety in Medieval Ashkenaz Elisheva Baumgarten, 2014-10-01 In the urban communities of medieval Germany and northern France the beliefs observances and practices of Jews allowed them to create and define their communities on their own terms as well as in relation to the surrounding Christian society Although medieval Jewish texts were written by a learned elite the laity also observed many religious rituals as part of their everyday life In Practicing Piety in Medieval Ashkenaz Elisheva Baumgarten asks how Jews especially those who were not learned expressed their belonging to a minority community and how their convictions and deeds were made apparent to both their Jewish peers and the Christian majority Practicing Piety in Medieval Ashkenaz provides a social history of religious practice in context particularly with regard to the ways Jews and Christians separately and jointly treated their male and female members Medieval Jews often shared practices and beliefs with their Christian neighbors and numerous notions and norms were appropriated by one community from the other By depicting a dynamic interfaith landscape and a diverse representation of believers Baumgarten offers a fresh assessment of Jewish practice and the shared elements that composed the piety of Jews in relation to their Christian neighbors

African Thoughts on Colonial and Neo-Colonial Worlds Anaïs Angelo, Paulina Aroch-Fugellie, Lena Dallywater, Lutz Diegner, Myra Ann Houser, Janine Kläge, Sara Marzagora, Felix Müller, Arno Sonderegger, Ninja Steinbach-Hüther, Joanna Tegnerowicz, 2015-10-16 This book shows the many facets of African engagements with the world It starts from the premise that current global asymmetries ascribing Africa to a marginalized position are the effects of colonial and imperial pasts still lingering on The decolonization process of the post war structure which privileges the West in both political and economic terms While new dependencies emerged several old bonds were maintained and continue to influence African affairs quite strikingly It is appropriate then to call these continued unequal relations between Africa and the West frankly neo colonial This designation applies all the more as the post colonial states of Africa inherited a complex legacy of foreign rule colonial frontiers colonial languages colonial infrastructure and authoritarian institutions as well as the social intricacies and imbalances so characteristic of the colonial situation The contributions to this volume look at various aspects of these complex processes from intellectual history perspectives The

topics dealt with are manifold Contributions deliberately attack key themes ideas and discourses of an intellectual history of Africa state modernity development dependency art etc and introduce important engaged public intellectuals from Africa and the African diaspora What is Africa and how is she related to the rest of the world How can she overcome her internal problems and her external dependencies These are perennial questions critically tackled by Africans throughout the 20th century Dealing with various cases looked at from a variety of perspectives the contributions to this book offer original insights into the intellectual history of Africa

The Limits of Transnationalism Nancy L. Green, 2019-05-21 Transnationalism means many things to many people from crossing physical borders to crossing intellectual ones The Limits of Transnationalism reassesses the overly optimistic narratives often associated with this malleable term revealing both the metaphorical and very real obstacles for transnational mobility Nancy L Green begins her wide ranging examination with the story of Frank Gueydan an early twentieth century American convicted of manufacturing fake wine in France who complained bitterly that he was neither able to get a fair trial there nor to enlist the help of US officials Gueydan's predicament opens the door for a series of inquiries into the past twenty five years of transnational scholarship raising questions about the weaknesses of global networks and the slippery nature of citizenship ties for those who try to live transnational lives The Limits of Transnationalism serves as a cogent reminder of this topic's complexity calling for greater attention to be paid to the many bumps in the road

The Taming of Fate Macamo, Elisio S., 2017-07-05 This book is about how extreme situations appearing to have a destructive potential can actually be used to produce meaningful individual and social lives It is about the taming of fate This notion means and accounts for the ability of individuals and communities to rebuild their lives against all odds The book is based on case studies that draw from theoretical insights derived from the sociology of disasters It addresses some limitations of the sociology of risk chief among which is the rejection of the relevance of the notion of risk to the study of technologically non advanced societies The book argues that this rejection has deprived the study of the human condition of an important analytical asset The book claims that risk is a property of social action which can best be understood through the analytical scrutiny of its role in the historical constitution of social relations

history of fascism that despite their fascination with ultra nationalism its adherents understood themselves as members of a transnational political movement While a true Fascist International has never been established European fascists shared common goals and sentiments as well as similar worldviews They also drew on each other for support and motivation even though relations among them were not free from misunderstandings and conflicts Through a series of fascinating case studies this expansive collection examines fascism's transnational dimension from the movements inspired by the early example of Fascist Italy to the international antifascist organizations that emerged in subsequent years

The Old Faith and the Russian Land Douglas Rogers, 2016-02-04 The Old Faith and the Russian Land is a historical ethnography that charts the ebbs and flows of ethical practice in a small Russian town over three centuries The town of Sepych was settled in the late seventeenth century by religious dissenters who fled to the forests of the Urals to escape a world they believed to be in the clutches of the Antichrist Factions of Old Believers as these dissenters later came to be known have maintained a presence in the town ever since The townspeople of Sepych have also been serfs free peasants collective farmers and now shareholders in a post Soviet cooperative Douglas Rogers traces connections between the town and some of the major transformations of Russian history showing how townspeople have responded to a long series of attempts to change them and their communities tsarist era efforts to regulate family life and stamp out Old Belief on the Stroganov estates Soviet collectivization drives and antireligious campaigns and the marketization religious revival and ongoing political transformations of post Soviet times Drawing on long term ethnographic fieldwork and extensive archival and manuscript sources Rogers argues that religious political and economic practice are overlapping arenas in which the people of Sepych have striven to be ethical in relation to labor and money food and drink prayers and rituals religious books and manuscripts and the surrounding material landscape He tracks the ways in which ethical sensibilities about work and prayer hierarchy and inequality gender and generation have shifted and recombined over time Rogers concludes that certain expectations about how to be an ethical person have continued to orient townspeople in Sepych over the course of nearly three centuries for specific identifiable and often unexpected reasons Throughout he demonstrates what a historical and ethnographic study of ethics might look like and uses this approach to ask new questions of Russian Soviet and post Soviet history

Inclusive Humanism Christoph Antweiler, 2012-09-11 The diversity of interconnected cultures on a bounded planet requires more shared orientations The humanities and politics have to face fundamental questions What does a humanism look like that does not move too rapidly to universalize the views and historical experiences of the European or American world How can we conceive of globality as a new entity without playing unity and diversity off against one another Does a world culture that is becoming ever closely related in fact need common values or only rules of human exchange How can we succeed at civilizing an ever present ethnocentrism How do we keep the terms culture and humanity from being misused as weapons in identity wars Any realistic cosmopolitanism must proceed from an understanding of humankind as one entity without requiring us to re design cultures to fit on with some sort of global template Answers can be gained by deploying shared characteristics of humans as well as pan cultural commonalities This book offers an anthropologically informed foundation for addressing pertinent questions of intercultural exchange Decentering America Jessica C. Hudzik, Joanna M. Moszczyńska, Jorge Estrada, Patricia A. Gwozdz, 2024-10-07 From the nineteenth century to the present literary entanglements between Latin America and East Central Europe have been socio politically and culturally diverse but never random The Iron Curtain in particular forced both regions to negotiate transatlantic elective affinities to take a stance in relation to the West and to position themselves within world literature As a result the intellectual fields and creative productions of these regions have critically engaged with notions such as post imperial marginal or peripheral In this edited volume scholars from Germany Brazil Czech Republic Hungary Mexico Poland Slovenia and Spain cross the globe from South to East and back to uncover transcultural and transareal convivialities Their papers explore literary history poetics intellectual networks and aesthetic theory while discussing new key concepts in global literary history Futures of Modernity Michael Heinlein, Cordula Kropp, Judith Neumer, Angelika Pöferl, Regina Römhild, 2014-03-15 Global risks mobilities and interdependencies transnationalize local life and working worlds These processes lead to an inner globalization of societies in which worldwide constellations of reflexive Ulrich Beck multiple Shmuel N Eisenstadt entangled Shalini Randeria and global Arjun Appadurai modernities simultaneously and immediately clash in social action a process of cosmopolitanization in which the global is localized and the local is globalized in radical new ways In this book an international selection of prominent critical thinkers address this premise and provide their interpretations of imminent challenges concomitant social dynamics and political implications With contributions by Arjun Appadurai Zygmunt Bauman Ulrich Beck Elisabeth Beck Gernsheim Edgar Grande Maarten Hajer Ronald Hitzler Wolf Lepenies Anna Tsing Angela McRobbie Bruno Latour Ted Nordhaus Michael Shellenberger Hans Georg Soeffner Natan Sznaider Anja Wei and Yunxiang Yan Heterotopia Caroline Baillie, Jens Kabo, John Reader, 2012-12-31 Many of us are concerned with the structures systems and values that we meet on a day to day basis We seem to be rushing headlong to a destination not of our choosing How did we get here and what can we do about it This book is the result of an exploration into the ideas of transformation What does it mean to transform the way we live to something that we value In this book we take on the challenge of exploring a potential transformation in one professional field that of engineering as an example of how we might break free of common dysfunctional discourses and enter what we call a counter hegemonic Heterotopia a space or place where we might dream alternative futures The text is a unique collaboration spanning the disciplines of engineering education philosophy and social theory The Routledge Research Companion to Modernism in Music Björn

Heile, Charles Wilson, 2018-10-29 Modernism in music still arouses passions and is riven by controversies Taking root in the early decades of the twentieth century it achieved ideological dominance for almost three decades following the Second World War before becoming the object of widespread critique in the last two decades of the century both from critics and composers of a postmodern persuasion and from prominent scholars associated with the new musicology Yet these critiques have failed to dampen its ongoing resilience The picture of modernism has considerably broadened and diversified and has remained a pivotal focus of debate well into the twenty first century This Research Companion does not seek to limit what musical modernism might be At the same time it resists any dilution of the term that would see its indiscriminate application to practically any and all music of a certain period In addition to addressing issues already well established in modernist studies such as aesthetics history institutions place diaspora cosmopolitanism production and performance communication technologies and the interface with postmodernism this volume also explores topics that are less established among them modernism and affect modernism and comedy modernism versus the contemporary and the crucial distinction between modernism in popular culture and a popular modernism a modernism of the people In doing so this text seeks to define modernism in music by probing its margins as much as by restating its supposed essence Exploring the Archived Web during a Highly Transformative Age Sophie Gebeil, Jean-Christophe Peyssard, 2024-10-01 Given recent global crises the imperative to preserve and analyze online content has never been more vital to enhancing our comprehension of contemporary changes This book the outcome of the 5th international RESAW conference that convened experts from fifty disciplines across seventeen countries in Marseille in June 2023 tackles the multifaceted challenges of web archiving It underscores the dual roles of web archiving as cultural heritage and as essential source material for researchers delving into contemporary events and the evolution of digital culture Through twenty chapters it explores the development of web archiving and examines how technical cultural geopolitical societal and environmental shifts impact its conception study and dissemination
