Prebish,2010-02-16 A thought provoking collection of essays on Buddhist ethics by some of the leading thinkers in the field The reader is provided with engaging explorations of central issues in Buddhist ethics insightful analyses of the ways Buddhist ethical principles are being applied today in both Asian and Western countries and groundbreaking proposals about how Buddhist perspectives might inform debates on some of the core ethical issues of the modern world including consumerism globalization environmental problems war ethnic conflict and inter religious tensions The leading figure in identifying the field of Buddhist ethics and articulating some of its core issues is Professor Damien Keown of the University of London This book brings together a group of eminent scholars who have all been influenced by Keown's work and who are also friends and close colleagues The result is a wonderful volume for those who are struggling with practical issues of ethical concern This will be a valuable resource in the study of ethics for years to come Tantric Grounds and Paths Geshe Kelsang Gyatso, 2016-01-01 A definitive manual for completing the spiritual path through the practice of Highest Yoga Tantra Actual Tantra also known as Secret Mantra or Vajrayana is a special method taught by Buddha to purify our world our self our enjoyments and our activities Although there is great interest in Tantra very few people understand its real meaning This book represents a significant milestone in revealing the profound mysteries of Tantra to the modern world Drawing from his own experience and the works of Je Tsongkhapa and other great Yogis Geshe Kelsang presents an authoritative and comprehensive guide to the four classes of Tantra in general and to the generation and completion stages of Highest Yoga Tantra in particular The Vajrayana path is like a vehicle that takes us directly to our final destination and the common paths are like the road on which the vehicle travels Therefore to extract the greatest essence from this precious human life by attaining full enlightenment we need first to train in the common paths of Lamrim and then in the uncommon Vajrayana paths Geshe Kelsang Gyatso Entering the Way of the Great Vehicle Rongzom Chokyi Zangpo, 2021-06-15 The first English translation of a classic treatise on how the Tibetan practice of Dzogchen or Great Perfection is in fact the culmination of the path of Mahayana Buddhism Rongzom Chokyi Zangpo wrote this treatise in the eleventh century during the renaissance of Buddhism in Tibet that was spurred by the influx of new translations of Indian Buddhist texts tantras and esoteric transmissions from India For political and religious reasons adherents of the new schools of Tibetan Buddhism fostered by these new translations cast the older tradition of lineages and transmissions as impure and decadent Rongzompa composed the work translated here in order to clearly and definitively articulate how Dzogchen was very much in line with the wide variety of sutric and tantric teachings espoused by all the Tibetan schools Using the kinds of philosophic and linguistic analyses favored by the new schools he demonstrates that the Great Perfection is indeed the culmination and maturation of the Mahayana the Great Vehicle The central topic of the work is the notion of illusory appearance for when one realizes deeply that all appearances are illusory one realizes also that all appearances are in that respect equal The realization of the equality of all phenomena is said to be the Great Perfection approach to the path which frees one from both grasping at and rejecting appearances However for those unable to remain effortlessly within the natural state in the final chapter Rongzompa also describes how paths with effort are included in the Great Perfection approach Transforming Problems into Happiness Thubten Zopa, 2013-02-08 Happiness and suffering are dependent upon your mind upon your interpretation They do not come from outside from others All of your happiness and all of your suffering are created by you by your own mind says Lama Zopa Rinpoche Commenting on an early twentieth century Tibetan text of instructions and practical advice for everyday spiritual living Lama Zopa Rinpoche teaches us how to be happy during hard times by adopting skillful attitudes ways of interpreting reality that can permit us to live a joyful and relaxed life regardless of circumstance In Transforming Problems Into Happiness Lama Zopa Rinpoche brings his own special flavor and contemporary relevance to a timeless teaching on Buddhist psychology This volume will be valuable to all no matter the spiritual background of the reader or the kind of problems that have led them to ask that ageless question How can I achieve happiness This new edition includes a translation of the root text Dodrupchen Rinpoche s 1865 1926 Instructions on Turning Happiness and Suffering into the Path of Enlightenment translated by Tulku Thundop

Our New Human Consciousness Terry Sands,2011-05 Every few thousand years our human culture experiences a massive evolutionary transformation In the next few years our consciousness will change very rapidly and move us beyond anything we can presently imagine This change of consciousness is happening naturally to each of us now and it will affect every aspect of how we think how we live and how we love We are a culture in search of its spirit and this change of consciousness is evolutionarily next for humankind on this planet When the awareness opens one may search many avenues and attractions for truth and enlightenment and find the search lacking in result The next step may be the path of Self discovery But the direction on this path will not be given to us by a great teacher who comes down from the mountaintop with answers cast in stone but rather by lots of little great teachers who could be called pathfinders And to move into this new consciousness we will transform the mind and the way it works with new mental skills and mental technology Our success is inevitable The ease or difficulty with which we achieve this success is still in formation We will survive the transition physically The question is whether we will survive psychologically Psychological survival in this transition depends on only one thing Developing the ability and inner discipline to completely instantaneously unquestioningly and continuously adapt to change
