Enslaving Anna:

Enslaving Anna Giselle Lorimer, 2004-09-01 How to Preach Samuel Wells, 2023-09-20

In How to Preach Samuel Wells goes beyond the arts and disciplines of preparing crafting and delivering sermons to explore preaching as an act of worship and prayer. Here preachers will discover how being attentive to God to Scripture to the world to their hearers and to themselves can inform and shape their message. They will be renewed in joining the long tradition of witnessing to the revelation of God in every area of human experience. Preaching takes many forms and responds to many different needs and occasions. This broad ranging volume considers the times in which we live politics society freedom disability and war the seasons of the church year Advent Christmas Lent Easter Ascension and Pentecost the variety of biblical texts Old Testament narratives and poetry Gospel miracles and parables the writings of Paul life's key moments baptisms weddings and funerals. For each topic there is reflection on the demands and opportunities presented ways of approach sermon examples and memorably wise and uncompromising practical guidelines that will nourish and inspire all who long to embrace the call to preach more faithfully.

In Certain Circles Elizabeth Harrower, 2014-04-23 Winner Voss Literary Prize 2015

In Certain Circles is the long lost final novel by the internationally acclaimed author of The Watch Tower. Zoe Howard is seventeen when her brother Russell introduces her to Stephen Quayle. Aloof and harsh Stephen is unlike anyone she has ever met a weird irascible character out of some dense Russian novel. His sister Anna is shy and thoughtful a little orphan. Zoe and Russell Stephen and Anna they may come from different social worlds but all four will spend their lives moving in and out of each other's shadow. Set amid the lush gardens and grand stone houses that line the north side of Sydney Harbour In Certain Circles is an intense psychological drama about family and love tyranny and freedom. Elizabeth Harrower was born in Sydney in 1928 and moved to London in 1951. She travelled extensively and began to write fiction. Her first novel Down in the City was published in 1957 and was followed by The Long Prospect a year later. In 1959 she returned to Sydney where she began working for the ABC and as a book reviewer for the Sydney Morning Herald. In 1960 she published The Catherine Wheel the story of an Australian law student in London her only novel not set in Sydney. The Watch Tower appeared in 1966. No further novels were published until May 2014 when Harrower's lost novel In Certain Circles was released. Her work is austere intelligent ruthless in its perceptions about men and women. She was admired by many of her contemporaries including Patrick White and Christina Stead and is without doubt among the most important writers of the postwar period in Australia. Elizabeth Harrower died in Sydney on 7 July 2020 at the age of ninety-two. In Certain Circles is a pin sharp psychological drama about two pairs of siblings set on the shores of Sydney Harbour. Harrower's searing spare prose is breathtaking as is her depiction of dashed promise and the gulf between the sexes. Di Speirs BBC Radio Books Editor Harrower was right about In Certain Circles being well written but surely wrong to take its superb style for granted as if mere literary muscle memory. Like the rest of her work the novel is severely achieved the coolly exact prose cannot be distinguished from the ashen.

exhaustion of its tragic fires The book belongs with her best work with The Watch Tower and The Long Prospect It is more explicit than Harrower's earlier work about ideological tensions between men and women It is also broader in scope and not as angry wiser and less hopeless James Wood New Yorker Harrower can pierce your heart Michael Dirda Washington Post A scandalously overlooked writer Michelle de Kretser She is brilliant on power isolation and class Ramona Koval Australian In Certain Circles is subtle yet wounding and very much alive Guardian Australia Reading In Certain Circles gave me the thrill that only comes from the work of a major novelist The Conversation Her insights into the nature of love the role of women and the torsions of power in even the most ordinary relationship are bitter and sometimes cruel wielded in the way that acute honesty may be like a whip Yet they are always delivered via the honeyed dipper of her prose Geordie Williamson Monthly Her portrait of two north shore Sydney families stands without stoop or shrug in a tradition of genius that includes Jane Austen Henry James and Shirley Hazard I felt like I was looking really looking at life in a way that Iris Murdoch might call moral Sydney Morning Herald
