Learner-Centered Leadership Arnold B. Danzig, Kathryn M. Borman, Bruce A. Jones, William F. Wright, 2017-09-25 Many new approaches to school improvement are being proposed in the current climate of assessment and school accountability This book explores one of these approaches a new model of leadership training known as Learner Centered Leadership LCL It is built around the fundamental idea that learning and learning communities are natural processes that when properly harnessed can lead to the highest levels of professional engagement and problem solving Key features of this exciting new approach to school leadership include the following Broad based and Generative The book's narratives vividly illustrate the extraordinary ability of LCL to generate new approaches to leadership development For example encouraging and assisting school leaders to reflect on their own leadership attributes relative to the implementation of the school mission to ensure high teacher efficacy and student learning In this respect the volume contributes significantly to the field of school leadership and professional development by extending above and beyond a narrow focus on instructional leadership Practice Oriented By creating communities that encourage conversation and analysis the new data driven models of school improvement are more likely to be successfully implemented Without analytical discourse the process of interpreting school data and transforming it into practice would be largely lost Conceptually Appropriate The realization that everyone within a school students teachers administrators belongs to the same learning community minimizes status differences and encourages teamwork The LCL administrator is much less likely to be authoritarian and power oriented and much more likely to be transformative and student outcome focused This book is appropriate for master's level courses and certification seminars and for inservice workshops dealing with school leadership Centering Educational Administration Robert J. Starratt, 2003-04-02 In this book Starratt enters the national conversation among educational administration scholars and practitioners about what constitutes the core of their knowledge and practice In Part I he develops three main themes cultivating meaning community and moral responsibility which he then positions against national themes about the core of educational administration school improvement democratic community and social justice Rather than focusing on the routine managerial tasks normally associated with school administration budgeting personnel and legal problems time and resource management etc this text asks aspiring school leaders to reflect first on the underlying philosophical and sociological perspectives that constitute the substance of administrative work in education Centering Educational Administration provides A Unique Perspective on Leadership The author views leadership as organically related to teaching and learning as concerned with internal capacity building in response to state imposed accountability pressures and as an existential process of writing one's autobiography through their day to day work

An Interdisciplinary View of Educational Administration Centering Educational Administration asks educational administrators to bring contemporary philosophical ethical and anthropological issues as well as learning theory social theory and political theory into their thinking about the daily operation of the school

A Unique Perspective on School Improvement This text asserts that school improvement narrowly defined as improving results on high stakes tests can likewise place the nation at risk An equally important agenda is teaching the young the basic satisfactions norms and potential of using their knowledge in the service of the community and of a wider humanity

Exercises in Reflective Practice This book challenges the reader to use the ideas of each chapter to analyze the current practices in their school and to propose concrete changes to improve the teaching and learning environment of their school

Lessons Learned From School Shootings Scott Poland, Sara Ferguson, 2021-07-30 This brief investigates school shootings and their impact on individual community and societal levels It includes professional and personal perspectives from individuals directly involved in and impacted by school shootings These novel perspectives will help inform best practices necessary to strengthen school safety measures as well as prevention and response efforts This brief will serve as helpful guide to mental health professionals school administrators psychology students and educators law enforcement and threat management and crisis response teams aiding in better understanding of the many factors surrounding school shootings

A Guide to Practicum and Internship for School Counselors-in-training Jeannine R. Studer, Joel F. Diambra, 2010 School counseling is a rather specialized field yet students entering it do not have a single comprehensive resource to guide them through the process This text covers all aspects of the practicum and internship experience from the initial contact with your supervisor to detailed descriptions of each of the different roles you will have and will help you gain an understanding of the school culture and how to begin thinking about and developing your own philosophy of school counseling Specific topics covered include popular counseling theories used by school counselors working with special populations of students application of the ASCA ethical standards the administration of day to day tasks such as arranging an office space and managing your time and elements of the guidance curriculum including individual student planning responsive services and systemic support Each chapter contains activities case studies hypothetical situations and worksheets designed to facilitate your understanding of and role in the profession All material presented is consistent with both the CACREP accreditation standards and the American School Counseling Association's National Model R

Adolescence, 2004

The Principal Gerald C. Ubben, Larry W. Hughes, Cynthia J. Norris, 2007 This text is organized around the ELCC Standards and provides a bridge from the theory of school administration to the practical problem solving in which school principals and other leaders engage The Principal is organized into four parts centered on the seven Educational Leadership Constituent Council ELCC Standards developed specifically for school leaders Each of the four major parts of the book is framed with one or two of the Standards as its major theme Now in its sixth edition this text continues to be based on research indicating linkages between educational leadership and productive schools especially in terms of outcomes for children It supports the understanding that formal leadership in schools is a complex multi faceted task that requires continual learning and that effective school leaders must be strong educators focused on the central issues of learning teaching and school improvement School leaders must also be moral agents and social advocates for the children and communities they serve while working with community stakeholders to create learning communities that value and care for others as individuals and as members of the educational community
