International Labour Documentation International Labour Organization. Central Library and Documentation Bureau,1996 Entrepreneurship and E-business Development for Women Amita Seth,2009 Agri-hire in sub-Saharan Africa Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations ,2021-06-23 There has been a surge in the attention to sustainable agricultural mechanization for Africa The need to support agricultural mechanization in the value chain in order to achieve agricultural and rural development is well recognized Therefore it is vital to address the major challenge of ensuring that business models for mechanization hire services driven by the private sector including farmers cooperatives and small and medium enterprises are not only profitable sustainable and inclusive for smallholder farmers and vulnerable community members including women and youth but also resilient to the effects of climate change For a better understanding of how agricultural mechanization hire service provision can contribute to agricultural and rural development this publication aims to i showcase a variety of business models of private sector businesses providing agricultural mechanization hire services in Africa ii identify success factors and iii provide entry points for investment Innovative SMEs by Gender and Age around the Mare Balticum Baltic Sea Academy,Max HogeForster,Philipp Jarke,2014-03-12 At the 9th Hanseatic Conference 2014 in Hamburg representatives from business organisations academic institutions and policy makers from all countries around the Baltic Sea exchanged their experiences This book contains the presented papers and a summary of the discussion of the participants The elimination of discrimination by gender and age in working life is an important social concern regardless of economic needs But increased labour force participations of women and older people are also essential for economic reasons in the light of demopgraphic developments and changed conditions Currently high and ever growing shortage of entrepreneurs managers and professionals are the factors that increasingly limit economic development There is an urgent need to make better use of local labour potential particularly via higher labour force participation of women and older people in general Global competition requires high innovation and strong increases in productivity of the entire Baltic Sea region and especially in the countries to the south of the Sea The innovations and productivity of companies benefit from increased proportion of women The greatest innovation and productivity reserves lie in the staff and organisational development including education improvements in this respect stipulate equal opportunities and strengthen competitiveness This publication was developed as part of the flagship project of the EU Strategy for the Baltic Sea Region Innovative SMEs by Gender and Age QUICK IGA Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents, 1985
