Building a European Public Sphere / Un Espace Public Européen en Construction Robert Frank,2010 The book edited by four known specialists of European history presents for the first time a discussion among European historians on the European public sphere since the 1950s It treats the general perspective and deals also in special articles with the role played by the European Union by the Council of Europe and by national media such as television and film The volume shows that the role of the European public sphere is often underestimated and that it is gradually becoming more influential and forceful not only in politics but also in culture

Sous la direction de quatre spécialistes renommés de l'histoire européenne cet ouvrage présente de façon inédite un débat entre historiens de l'Europe sur l'espace public européen et son évolution depuis les années 1950 La question est abordée dans son ensemble mais certaines contributions traitent aussi plus spécifiquement du rôle joué par l'Union européenne par le Conseil de l'Europe et par les médias nationaux comme la télévision et le cinéma Ce volume montre que l'on a souvent sous-estimé l'espace public européen alors que son influence est de plus en plus importante tant au niveau politique que culturel

Celestial Treasury Marc Lachière-Rey, Jean-Pierre Luminet, 2001-07-16 Throughout history the mysterious dark skies above us have inspired our imaginations in countless ways influencing our endeavours in science and philosophy religion literature and art Heavenly Treasures is a truly beautiful book showing the richness of astronomical theories and illustrations in Western civilization through the ages exploring their evolution and comparing ancient and modern throughout From Greek verse mediaeval manuscripts and Victorian poetry to spacecraft photographs and computer generated star charts the unprecedented wealth of these portrayals is quite breathtaking

Gérard Grisey and Spectral Music Liam Cagney, 2023-11-29 The first in depth historical overview of spectral music which is widely regarded alongside minimalism as one of the two most influential compositional movements of the last fifty years Charting spectral music's development in France from 1972 to 1982 this ground breaking study establishes how spectral music's innovations combined existing techniques from post war music with the use of information technology The first section focuses on Gérard Grisey showing how he creatively developed techniques from Messiaen Xenakis Ligeti Stockhausen and Boulez towards a distinctive style of music based on groups of sounds mutating in time The second section shows how a wider generation of young composers centred on the Parisian collective L'itinéraire developed a common vision of music embracing seismic developments in psychoacoustics and computer sound synthesis Framed against institutional and political developments in France spectral music is shown as at once an inventive artistic response to the information age and a continuation of the French colouristic tradition

The Social Production of Crisis Constance A. Nathanson, Henri Bergeron, 2023 In The Social Production of Crisis Constance A. Nathanson and Henri Bergeron focus on the profoundly troubling story of how blood banks and blood products manufacturers and distributors as well as the authorities charged with regulating them in France and the US knowingly allowed blood contaminated with HIV to be distributed to hemophiliacs and others needing transfusions in the early to mid 1980s Based on detailed lively and exciting comparative analysis the book explains why this drama became a political crisis in France and not in the United States The authors use this comparison to advance more general ideas of how political crises are socially produced and to raise questions about disease policy and politics in the two countries
