The author of this book took up those challenges by on the one hand closely following the conventions that HRM scholars all over the world adhere to with regards to the demarcation of subfields within the HRM discipline. Environment Glenn Adelson, James Engell, Kevin P. Though not specialized, Environment is a book that even specialists can learn from. Ten innovative case studies—climate shock, species endangerment, nuclear power, biotechnology, sustainable development, deforestation, environmental security, globalization, wilderness, and the urban environment—are followed by readings from specific disciplines. These can be integrated with the case studies to shape individual interests and teaching strategies. The volume presents an imaginative array of texts from scientific papers to poetry, legal decisions to historical accounts, personal essays to economic analysis. Taken together, these selections provide a balanced, authoritative, and up-to-date treatment of key issues in environmental studies.
