Australia-Japan Research Centre, 1996 Economic Development and Cooperation in the Pacific Basin Hiro Lee, David W. Roland-Holst, 1998-09-28 First published in 1998 this volume brings together contributions from leading economic analysts around the Pacific Basin reporting on their research into three of the most important issues facing the region trade investment flows and the environmental effects of economic growth Each of these issues has important domestic and multilateral ramifications and the Pacific Basin's status as the world's most dynamic economic region makes this analysis relevant to policy makers and researchers in all countries The collection is unusual in offering appraisals from economists representing the principal economies of the region Among other contributions in the book are insights into the forces animating regional trade and investment detailed assessment of leading East Asian economies such as those of China Indonesia Japan Korea and Singapore and innovative research on economy environment linkages East Asia Imperilled Alan Dupont, 2001-10-15 Security issues have traditionally been defined in military terms yet the post Cold War security landscape contains numerous non military challenges to security In this 2001 analysis Alan Dupont argues that an emerging new class of non military threats has the potential to destabilize East Asia and reverse decades of hard won economic and social development He shows that these transnational shifts must be grasped and dealt with by governments and non government organizations both regionally and internationally if conflict is to be avoided Transnational threats stem from overpopulation deforestation and pollution global warming unregulated population movements transnational crime virulent new strains of infectious diseases and other issues not previously associated with international security Collectively they represent a new agenda and pose novel challenges for foreign and defence policy This highly informative compelling and authoritative book is essential reading for East Asia specialists and makes a significant contribution to international security debates Northeast Asia Program Newsletter ,1996
