File On Helen Morgan:

File on Helen Morgan John Frederic Gibson, 1977 Helen Morgan Christopher S. Connelly, 2024-08-06 An emotive soprano voice heartrending melodies about unrequited love and a draped over the piano persona made Helen Morgan 1902 1941 the original torch singer but she was so much more The versatile actress appeared on Broadway in film and on radio In a number of stage revues she danced sang and excelled in sketch comedy She played Julie in Kern and Hammerstein s Broadway musical Show Boat 1927 and also starred in the duo s Sweet Adeline in 1929 That same year Morgan appeared in Rouben Mamoulian s classic film Applause When the Great Depression made theater roles scarce she headed the CBS radio program Broadway Melodies and worked in the emerging medium of television Yet Morgan s life was one of extremes She earned a million dollars throughout her career but remained in constant debt She was one of the most universally beloved people in her profession but a stable romantic relationship eluded her until the very end of her life She was a protofeminist who aided women facing unplanned pregnancies yet she also sought respite in a man whose financial support would allow her to retire from the stage Through it all she battled alcoholism brandy would eventually extinguish her flame in 1941 Helen Morgan The Original Torch Singer and Ziegfeld s Last Star is the first biography of the gifted performer since 1974 Author Christopher Connelly utilizes interviews newspaper articles and family scrapbooks to present an honest and unflinching look at Morgan s life Connelly s meticulous research addresses Morgan s troubled childhood including her mother s six marriages and the trauma of her stepfather s arrest and conviction for manslaughter in 1913 Also revealed are details regarding her early career in vaudeville and silent film insights into the speakeasy and supper club culture that served as a backdrop to Morgan s career and accounts of her outstanding accomplishments philanthropic actions and enduring popularity This gripping narrative presents the brief but brilliant life of a complex talented and iconic entertainer File on Helen Morgan John Gibson, 1980-06-01 File on Helen Morgan John GIBSON (of British Columbia.), 1968 Body and Soul Peter Stanfield, 2005 Alongside extensive thought provoking and lively analysis of some of the most popular jazz and blues songs of the 20th century this text contains new work on blackface minstrelsy in early sound movies racial representation and censorship torch singers and torch songs the Hollywood Left and hot jazz Hollywood on the Hudson Richard Koszarski, 2008 Thomas Edison invented his motion picture system in New Jersey in the 1890s and within a few years most American filmmakers could be found within a mile or two of the Hudson River They planted themselves here because they needed the artistic and entrepreneurial energy that D W Griffith realized New York had in abundance But as the going rate for land and labor skyrocketed and their business grew more industrialized most of them moved out The way most historians explain it the role of New York in the development of American film ends here In Hollywood on the Hudson Richard Koszarski rewrites an important part of the history of American cinema During the 1920s and 1930s film industry executives had centralized the mass production of feature pictures in a series of gigantic film factories scattered across Southern California while maintaining New York as the economic and administrative center But as Koszarski reveals many writers producers and directors also continued to work here especially if their independent vision was too big for the Hollywood production line East Coast filmmakers Oscar Micheaux Rudolph Valentino Ben Hecht Charles MacArthur Paul Robeson Gloria Swanson Max Fleischer and others quietly created a studio system without back lots long term contracts or seasonal production slates They substituted newsreel photography for Hollywood glamour targeted niche audiences instead of middle American families ignored accepted dramatic conventions and pushed the boundaries of motion picture censorship Rebellious and unconventional they saw the New York studios as laboratories not factories and used them to pioneer the development of new technologies from talkies to television new genres new talent and ultimately an entirely new vision of commercial cinema Annual Report of the Tennessee Valley Authority Tennessee Valley Authority,1942 The Casablanca Man

Dr James C Robertson,James Robertson,2013-09-13 Michael Curtiz 1888 1962 was without doubt one of the most important directors in film history yet he has never been granted his deserved recognition and no full scale work on him has previously been published The Casablanca Man surveys Curtiz unequalled mastery over a variety of genres which included biography comedy horror melodrama musicals swashbucklers and westerns and looks at his relationship with the Hollywood studio moguls on the basis of unprecedented archive research at Warner Brothers Concentrating on Curtiz best known films Casablanca Angels With Dirty Faces Mildred Pearce and Captain Blood among them Robertson explores Curtiz practical creative struggles and his friendships and rivalries with other film celebrities including Errol Flynn Bette Davis and James Cagney and his discovery of future stars Casablanca Man is the first comprehensive critical exploration of Curtiz entire career and linking his European work and his subsequent American work into a coherent whole Robertson firmly re establishes Curtiz true standing in the history of cinema Records and Briefs of the United States Supreme Court ,1832
