Concise History of Southeast Asian Writing in English Rajeev S. Patke, Philip Holden, 2009-09-10 The Routledge Concise History of Southeast Asian Writing in English traces the development of literature in the region within its historical and cultural contexts establishing connections from the colonial activity of the early modern period through to contemporary writing across nations such as Thailand China Malaya Singapore and Hong Kong Conversations with Filipino Writers Roger J. Bresnahan, 1990 Philippine English MA. Lourdes S. Bautista, Kingsley Bolton, 2008-11-01 An overview and analysis of the role of English in the Philippines the factors that led to its spread and retention and the characteristics of Philippine English today The Filipino Writer and National Growth , 1959 Asian Voices in English Mimi Chan, Ray Harris, 1991-08-01 A selection of papers presented at the Symposium on English Literature by Asian authors entitled Asian Voices in English held at The University of Hong Kong 27 30 April 1990 Two kinds of writing experience are focused upon one is the experience of post colonial writers who are re appropriating the English language for their own cultural purposes The other is the experience of immigrant writers who bring an Asian view to bear on the culture of the English speaking countries in which they live Encyclopedia of Postcolonial Studies John Charles Hawley, 2001-09-30 The collapse of empires has resulted in a remarkable flourishing of indigenous cultures in former colonies The end of the colonial era has also witnessed a renaissance of creativity in the postcolonial world as modern writers embrace their heritage The experience of postcoloniality has also drawn the attention of academics from various disciplines and has given rise to a growing body of scholarship This reference work overviews the present state of postcolonial studies and offers a refreshingly polyphonic treatment of the effects of globalization on literary studies in the 21st century The volume includes more than 150 alphabetically arranged entries on postcolonial studies around the world Entries on individual authors provide brief biographical details but primarily examine the author s handling of postcolonial themes So too entries on theoreticians offer background information and summarize the person s contributions to critical thought Entries on national literatures explore the history of postcoloniality and the ways in which writers have broadly engaged their legacy while those on important topics discuss the theoretical origin and current ramifications of key concepts in postcolonial studies Cross references and cited works for further reading are included while a comprehensive bibliography concludes the volume The Philippine Temptation Epifanio San Juan, 1996 In this incisive and polemical book E San Juan Jr the leading authority on Philippines U S literary studies goes beyond fashionable postcolonial theory to bring to our attention the complex history of Philippines U S literary interactions In sharp contrast to other works on the subject the author presents Filipino literary production within the context of a long and sustained tradition of anti imperialist insurgency and foregrounds the strong presence of oppositional writing in the Philippines After establishing the historical context of U S intervention and Filipino resistance San Juan examines the work of two very significant writers The first Carlos Bulosan a journalist and union activist became in the author s words a tribune of the people Bulosan s writings which combine critique and prophecy do not allow us to forget the atrocities inflicted on the Filipino people The other Jos Garcia Villa lapsed into premature obscurity on account of the complexity of his writings about the Filipino predicament Read through San Juan s eyes these writers are revealed as multifaceted thinkers and activists not stereotypical ethnic artists San Juan goes beyond literary studies and contemporary debates about nationalism and politics to point the way to a new direction in radical transformative writing He uncovers hidden agendas in many previous accounts of U S Philippine relations and this book exemplifies how best to combine activist scholarship with historically grounded cultural commentary Author note E San Juan Jr is Fellow of the Center for the Humanities and Visiting Professor of English Wesleyan University and Director of the Philippines Cultural Studies Center He was recently chair of the Department of Comparative American Cultures Washington University and Professor of Ethnic Studies at Bowling Green State University Ohio He received the 1999 Centennial Award for Literature from the Philippines Cultural Center His most recent books are Beyond Postcolonial Theory From Exile to Diaspora After Postcolonialism and Racism and Cultural Studies After Postcolonialism Epifanio San Juan, 2000 This innovative analysis of the Philippine historical crisis is accompanied by a critique of a U S racial formation in which Filipinos constitute the largest Asian group Literary and artistic expressions by Filipinos manifest a new emerging identity defined by the multicultural debates crossing the Pacific transforming the Philippines into a borderland of East and West Caught betwixt the Asian continent and the hegemonic power of the United States the Philippines occupies a contested space between past and present Between the memory of colonial experience and an emergent nation making dream can a meaningful future be envisioned This provocative book explores this problematic zone of difference through a critique of the Western production of knowledge in the context of local resistance While Americanization of the Filipino continues the encounter of globalizing and nationalizing forces has precipitated a profound political and social crisis whose outcome may be a paradigmatic lesson for many so called third world countries What happens in this Southeast Asian nation may foretell the fate of the ideals of democracy and social justice now beleaguered by the market and the unrelenting commodification of everyday life The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes Andrew J. Moody, 2024 This volume describes both the history and the contemporary forms functions and status of English in Southeast Asia The chapters provide a comprehensive overview of current research on a wide range of topics addressing the impact of English as a language of globalization and exploring new approaches to the spread of English in the region Finding Our Feet Mary Isabelle Bresnahan, 1991 For Westerners and Americans in particular Philippine culture is deceptively familiar Vestiges of Spanish and American colonial culture as well as contemporary American media have created resonances for identifying American culture in Philippine culture This book guides the reader in re examining these assumptions of sameness By taking an unfamiliar text of a noted writer of Tagalog fiction this study restores the sense of wonder in experiencing Tagalog culture on its own terms rather than by tastes dictated from the outside The book also examines the broader Tagalog traditions in which the writer Amado Hernandez wrote A Political History of Spanish José Del Valle, 2013-08-29 A comprehensive work which offers a new and provocative approach to Spanish from political and historical perspectives Pluriversal Literacies Romeo Garcia, Ellen Cushman, Damián Baca, 2024-01-02 Decolonial projects can end up reinforcing dominant modes of thinking by shoehorning understandings of Indigenous and non Western traditions within Eurocentric frameworks The pluralization of literacies and the creation of so called alternative rhetorics accepts that there is a totalizing reality of rhetoric and literacy This volume seeks to decenter these theories and to engage Indigenous contexts on their own terms starting with the very tools of representation Language itself can disrupt normative structures and create pluriversal possibilities The volume editors and contributors argue for epistemic change at the level of the language and media that people use to represent meaning The range of topics covered includes American Indian and Indigenous representations literacies and rhetorics critical revisionist historiography and comparative rhetorics delinking colonial literacies of cartographic power and modernity northern and southern hemispheric relations and theorizations of from oceanic border spaces
