Filming With Attenborough:

Filming with Attenborough Donald Woods,1987      Journeys in the Wild Gavin Thurston,2019-08-22 Modest down to earth and full of humour this is one of the best books about filming I ve ever read MICHAEL PALIN Extraordinary Gavin s easy prose and gasp making encounters make for a gripping and very funny read It s a rollercoaster ride with a complete professional I loved it JOANNA LUMLEY Gavin is a great cameraman with infinite patience but also a writer with great powers of observation and expression Brilliant ALAN TITCHMARSH _____ From Gavin Thurston the award winning Blue Planet II and Planet Earth II cameraman with a foreword by Sir David Attenborough comes extraordinary and adventurous true stories of what it takes to track down and film our planet s most captivating creatures Gavin has been a wildlife photographer for over thirty years Against a backdrop of modern world history he s lurked in the shadows of some of the world s remotest places in order to capture footage of the animal kingdom s finest prides of lions silverback gorillas capuchin monkeys brown bears grey whales penguins mosquitoes you name it he s filmed it Come behind the camera and discover the hours spent patiently waiting for the protagonists to appear the inevitable dangers in the wings and the challenges faced and overcome and the heart warming life affirming moments the cameras miss as well as capture What other readers are saying about Journeys in the Wild It s touching it s thought provoking and its emotional Go pick it up It s an absolute inspiration of a book Goodreads Full of unbelievable anecdotes from decades of work some absolutely hilarious this book left me in complete wonder Goodreads An amazing read and I would heartily recommend it to everyone I know Goodreads      Once Upon A Prime Time Ananth Mahadevan,2020-07-20 In Once Upon A Prime Time Ananth Mahadevan pens the memoirs of his journey on Indian television From first hand experiences with film makers who were the founding fathers of television serials to today s consumerism driven shows he has tasted them all The book reads like an autobiography yet covers virtually every major player who was responsible for the nostalgia that Indian television now evokes It incorporates exclusive moments with many celebrities and award winning directors Join the actors on their sets as they perform for television and learn about the stories that made the shows come to life Covering artistes and makers who impacted our world such as Amitabh Bachchan Hrishikesh Mukherjee Sai Paranjpye Basu Chatterjee Kundan Shah Ravi Chopra Ramesh Sippy Farooque Shaikh Aziz Mirza Gulzar and Govind Nihalani The book is in all probability the first ever story of Indian television Besides taking one down memory lane this could be a throwback for all those connected with the medium past and present It gives you a feeling of travelling through time and watching history being made behind the scenes The book reads like an autobiography but covers every major player who was responsible for the nostalgia that Indian television now evokes Hema Malini      Summary of David Attenborough's A Life on Our Planet Milkyway Media,2021-11-23 Buy now to get the main key ideas from David Attenborough s A Life on Our Planet Humans have long ruled the natural world bending it to our will and desires But all actions have consequences and we ve only just begun to see the destruction our actions have caused on our planet In A Life on Our Planet David Attenborough discusses how we as a species arrived at this crucial juncture in our planet's history and what we must do in order to return it to balance The most important step is increasing our planet's biodiversity With more species of plants and animals that means more food sources for both animals and humans better carbon intake and an overall better functioning ecosystem With climate change species going extinct and an ever increasing population we are seeing the signs that Earth is at its tipping point We must act now and begin to return Earth to its natural state or potentially lose it forever

The Boys from The Bridge: The Story of Attenborough's Private Army Sebastian Abineri, 2024-07-29 A story of the making of A Bridge Too Far following the adventures of the APA Attenborough's Private Army

Projecting Empire James Chapman, Nicholas J. Cull, 2009-06-17 Popular cinema is saturated with images and narratives of empire With Projecting Empire Chapman and Cull have written the first major study of imperialism and cinema for over thirty years This welcome text maps the history of empire cinema in both Hollywood and Britain through a series of case studies of popular films including biopics adventures literary adaptations melodramas comedies and documentaries from the 1930s and The Four Feathers to the present with Indiana Jones and Three Kings The authors consider industry wide trends and place the films in their wider cultural and historical contexts Using primary sources that include private papers they look at the presence of particular auteurs in the cinema of Imperialism including Korda Lean Huston and Attenborough as well as the actors who brought the stories to life such as Elizabeth Taylor and George Clooney At a time when imperialism has a new significance in the world this book will fulfil the needs of students and interested filmgoers alike

Pinkoes and Traitors Jean Seaton, 2015-02-26 This compelling account of a turbulent period in the history of the BBC opens at a time of national decline under the Labour governments of Harold Wilson and James Callaghan and ends during Margaret Thatcher's iconoclastic Conservative premiership The intervening years saw mass unemployment trade union strikes and war in Northern Ireland and the Falklands as well as legendary BBC programmes such as Live Aid Fawlty Towers and Dad's Army The Singing Detective and Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy and David Attenborough's Life on Earth Comprehensively revised and expanded for this new edition Jean Seaton's perceptive study presents an absorbing analysis of an institution that both reflects Britain and has helped to define it

The Great Horizon Jo Woolf, 2017-11-16 Fifty stories of adventure and exploration over more than two hundred years of human history The Great Horizon features those who set out to conquer new territories and claim world records alongside those who contributed to our understanding of the world all but accidentally Published in association with the Royal Scottish Geographical Society and with full access to their extensive records the book includes unique images and insights from the RSGS archives along with never before seen material

Biko's Ghost Shannen L. Hill, 2015-05-21 When you say Black is Beautiful what in fact you are saying is Man you are okay as you are begin to look upon yourself as a human being With such statements Stephen Biko became the voice of Black Consciousness And with Biko's brutal death in the custody of the South African police he became a martyr an enduring symbol of the horrors of apartheid Through the lens of visual culture Biko's Ghost reveals how the man and the ideology he promoted have profoundly influenced liberation politics and race discourse in South Africa and around the globe ever since Tracing the linked histories of Black Consciousness and its most famous proponent Biko's Ghost explores the concepts of unity ancestry and action that lie at the heart of the ideology and the man It challenges the dominant historical view of Black Consciousness as ineffectual or racially exclusive suppressed on the one side by the apartheid regime and on the other by the African National Congress Engaging theories of trauma and representation and icon and ideology Shannen L Hill considers the martyred Biko as an embattled icon his image portrayals assuming different shapes and political meanings in different hands So too does she illuminate how Black Consciousness worked behind the scenes throughout the 1980s a decade of heightened popular unrest and state censorship She shows how in streams of imagery that continue to multiply nearly forty years on Biko's visage and the ongoing life of Black Consciousness served as instruments through which artists could combat the abuses of apartheid and unsettle the rainbow nation that followed

Films and Filming ,1989 Documentary Film and Radical Psychiatry Des O'Rawe, 2024-12-19 This book examines how documentary film responded to the methods and controversies associated with radical psychiatry especially during the long 1960s Broad in scope and comparative in approach it discusses a range of films in terms of how their production histories and visual styles were influenced by wider cultural technological and autobiographical factors The book argues that documentary filmmaking offers both an important critical perspective on psychiatric treatments institutions and attitudes as well as contributing to a critique of how normative modes of being are constructed across mainstream media and popular culture In their negotiations with the politics of psychiatry such films will often question the ethnographic and observational integrity of the documentary or non fiction form itself especially when it adopts diaristic interactive socially engaged and advocacy strategies to represent mental illness and healthcare provision The relationship between documentary film and the constellation of insights arguments communities and individuals associated with the moment of radical psychiatry remains a complex but indispensable legacy of the post war era Shooting in the Wild Chris Palmer,2010-05-11 Wildlife and nature films are a hugely popular entertainment genre networks such as Animal Planet and Discovery are stars in the cable television universe viewers flock to IMAX theaters to see jaw dropping footage from the wild and the venerable BBC still scores triumphs with series such as Planet Earth As cinematic technology brings ever more breathtaking images to the screen and as our direct contact with nature diminishes an ever expanding audience craves the indirect experience of wild nature that these films provide But this success has a dark side as Chris Palmer reveals in his authoritative and engrossing report on the wildlife film business A veteran producer and film educator Palmer looks past the headlines about TV host Steve Irwin s death by stingray and filmmaker Timothy Treadwell falling prey to his beloved grizzlies to uncover a more pervasive and troubling trend toward sensationalism extreme risk taking and even abuse in wildlife films He tracks the roots of this trend to the early days of the genre and he profiles a new breed of skilled ethical filmmakers whose work enlightens as well as entertains and who represent the future that Palmer envisions for the industry he loves

Tropical Nature Guillaume Blanc,Mathieu Guérin,Grégory Quenet,2025-03-01 Across Africa and South East Asia the impulse to protect nature often dovetails with the domination of local people From mass displacement to severe restrictions on land use and daily acts of violence conservation work risks reproducing Eurocentric modes of colonialism and worsening the effects of the climate crisis In this insightful and wide ranging study of the colonial history of conservation Tropical Nature seeks to provide a much needed history of the Global South from its own perspective Comparing case studies ranging from Ali Bongo s Gabon to the postcolonial African itinerary of the agronomist Arthur Bunting this volume advances a small scale global history that deciphers the relations binding human societies to the non human world Bomber Boys on Screen S. P. MacKenzie,2019-08-08 Since the Second World War depictions of Royal Air Force operations in film and television drama have become so numerous that they make up a genre worthy of scholarly attention In this illuminating study S P MacKenzie explores the different ways in which the men of RAF Bomber Command have been represented in dramatic form on the big and small screen from the war years to the present day Bomber Boys on Screen is the first in depth study of how and why the screen drama image of those who flew those who directed them and those who provided support for RAF bomber operations has changed over time sometimes in contested circumstances Until now dramas that focus on Bomber Command have tended to be mentioned only in passing or studied in isolation despite the prevalence of surveys of both the British war film genre and of aviation cinema In Bomber Boys on Screen MacKenzie examines the development presentation and reception of significant dramas on a decade by decade basis Titles from the beginning of the war The Lion Has Wings 1939 to the start of new century Bomber s Moon 2014 are situated in the context of technical possibilities and limitations evolving social and cultural norms in the United Kingdom and elsewhere and the development of moral and utilitarian controversies surrounding the wartime bomber offensive directed against Nazi Germany While the focus is on feature films and television plays reference is also made to documentaries memorials veterans organizations book titles war comics and other representations of the war fought by Bomber Command

Why Docudrama? Alan Rosenthal, 1999 Defining and examining the rationale of docudrama the nine essayists in the first part discuss the history and development of docudrama on TV and in film they also consider the place of truth in docudrama the main critiques of the form and the audience s susceptibilities and expectations In investigating the actual filmmaking process the eight essays in the second part focus on how docudrama as a commodity is created in the United States and England Part essay part case study and part interview this section also explores how Hollywood and the commercial networks as well as producers and writers work and think The final part presents an in depth critique of a number of controversial docudramas that have helped form and shape public opinion including Battleship Potemkin Roots Reds JFK Mississippi Burning Schindler s List and In the Name of the Father

Making A Bridge Too Far Simon Lewis, 2024-05-07 A Bridge Too Far released in 1977 proved to be the last epic WWII movie made in the Hollywood studio system Its ambitious goal to recreate the doomed Allied plan called Operation Market Garden in September 1944 Market Garden s goal was to surprise the Germans with a mammoth parachute drop behind their lines and bring a quick end to the war but the plan became a disaster for the Allies with the battle for the Arnhem bridge vicious as the Red Devils of British First Airborne held out against overwhelming odds Producer Joseph E Levine packed his cast with the top stars of the 1970s including Anthony Hopkins Robert Redford Sean Connery James Caan Michael Caine Elliott Gould Dirk Bogarde and Laurence Olivier and shot the film on location in and around Arnhem Making Dirk Bogarde was a British war veteran who had participated in Market Garden and bore the mental scars to prove it

Nature's Saviours Graham Huggan, 2013-08-22 Today s celebrity conservationists many of whom made their reputations through television and other visual media play a major role in drawing public attention to an increasingly threatened world This book one of the first to address this contribution focuses on five key figures the English naturalist David Attenborough the French marine adventurer Jacques Yves Cousteau the American primatologist Dian Fossey the Canadian scientist broadcaster activist David Suzuki and the Australian crocodile hunter Steve Irwin Some of the issues the author addresses include What is the changing relationship between western conservation and celebrity How has the spread of television helped shape and mediate this relationship To what extent can celebrity conservation be seen as part of a global system in which conservation like celebrity is big business The book critically examines the heroic status accorded to the five figures mentioned above taking in the various discourses around nature science nation gender through which they and their work have been presented to us In doing so it fills in the cultural historical and ideological background behind contemporary celebrity conservationism as a popular expression of a chronically endangered world The Chimpanzees of the Taï Forest Christophe Boesch,Roman Wittig,Catherine Crockford,Linda Vigilant,Tobias Deschner,Fabian Leendertz,2019-11-28 An engaging account of the research and key findings on Ta chimpanzees to celebrate the 40th anniversary of this project
