Financial Post Directory Of Directors 1991:

Women on Corporate Boards of Directors Ronald J. Burke,M.C. Mattis,2013-03-09 Both the practitioner and academic communities have voiced strong opinions regarding the progress of women in reaching the executive suite and the corporate boardroom Proponents on each side of the current debate offer evidence suggesting the accuracy of their respective positions One view holds The fight is over The battle is won Women are now accepted as outside directors in the preponderance of corporate boardrooms Lear 1994 10 An alternative perspective however suggests there is much progress left An illustration of the type of remaining barriers is provided by T J Rodgers chief executive officer CEO of Cypress Semiconductor Corp who has commented that a woman s view on how to run our semiconductor company does not help us Rodgers 1996 14 Regardless of where one falls along the spectrum anchored at one end by the view that women have made substantial progress in reaching the upper echelons of corporations and anchored at the other end by the view that women have barely begun to penetrate the inner sanctum of corporations the central issue is the extent to which women have succeeded in cracking the proverbial glass ceiling The glass ceiling is a metaphorical barrier which prevents women from attaining the upper most organizational positions e g Karr 1991 Morrison White Van Velsor and the Center for Creative Leadership 1992 Powell U S Department of Labor 1991      Directory of Online Services ,1999      Women in Corporate Management Ronald J. Burke,2012-12-06 Although women now represent over forty percent of the workforce in most countries organizations have been slow to capitalize on the potential of their women employees This volume focuses on the business case for change sources of resistance including male backlash denial inaction and repression and both organizational and legislative initiatives to support women Limitations of affirmative action programs and policies are identified New approaches towards creating a more level playing field in organizations are proposed This volume should be of interest to women and men in managerial and professional positions women and men studying in professional fields such as business law and government organizations interested in managerial best practice and academic researchers whose work examines women in management issues      Books and Periodicals Online ,1999      Women in Management Marilyn J Davidson,Ronald J Burke,2000-01-28 Following on from the successful Women in Management Current Research Issues this volume provides an up to date and comprehensive overview of current international research findings pertaining to women in management reflecting recent global changes and issues Like its predecessor this volume brings together an international group of eminent academics who review the major contemporary issues facing women in management as well as the individual organizational and governmental consequences of these changes Women in Management Current Issues in Research II will be a vital resource for scholars and students in management business occupational psychology industrial sociology and gender studies In addition related work groups such as Personnel Occupational Management Management Consultants and Trainers as well as Trade Unionists should find this book essential to read      The Arthur Andersen North
