Annika Gunnarsson

Jockum Nordström:

Mamma Andersson & Jockum Nordström: Who is sleeping on my pillow, 2010-11-30 Originally published on the occasion of the 2010 exhibition at David Zwirner in New York Who is sleeping on my pillow marked the first time Andersson and Nordström presented their work in concurrent solo shows The book showcases their work from the late 1980s to 2010 in over two hundred full color plates as well as numerous reproductions of family snapshots and source material The Swedish artist couple Mamma Andersson and Jockum Nordström have been at the forefront of contemporary figurative art since the late 1980s Updating Vuillard for a post Hitchcock age Andersson paints beguilingly eerie interiors and landscapes Nordström's detailed collages watercolors and drawings occupy a more folkloric realm peopled by historical and contemporary characters enacting sexual and social roles across broad narrative panoramas Included in Who is sleeping on my pillow are texts by Paolo Colombo and Anders Kruger a poem by Stig Claesson and an interview with Nordström by Marcel Dzama As Colombo notes in his accompanying essay The miracle is that Jockum and Mamma spent more than half of their life together and that over the years their complicity has guided them into the artists they are each the complement and the best sounding board for the other The publication was reissued to coincide with Nordström's 2014 exhibition For the insects and the hounds at David Zwirner in London and Andersson's 2015 presentation Behind the Curtain at the gallery in New York A

Stick in the Wood Jockum Nordström, 2005 Pseudo naïve and funny Jockum Nordström's works compress a bundle of simultaneous narratives in a single frozen frame He says A single picture of mine may often be based on a multiple of originals I am constantly looking at my immediate surroundings as well as books Art photographs people plants architecture patterns textiles sex and history all play an important role in his compositions His enigmatic scenes rendered in drawings and mixed media pieces in watercolor gouache and collage seem at once old fashioned and modern Lucas Cranach and James Ensor are longstanding influences as are folk art and Surrealism His art seems to portray suppressed fantasies fighting their way into the consciousnesses of the flattened out figures Fantasy has the power to transform banal alienating tasks into moments that shimmer with humor and poignancy Jockum Nordström , Jockum Nordström Jockum Nordström, 2013

Jockum Nordström Jockum Nordström, Camden Arts Centre (London), 2013 Jockum Nordström Annika Gunnarsson, 2005-01-01 David Zwirner: 25 Years Richard Shiff, Robert Storr, 2018-10-23 Published on the occasion of the twenty five year anniversary of David Zwirner this book paints a picture of the gallery's growth and development through the lens of the artists that have shaped it Since its founding in 1993 David Zwirner has above all else been guided by its artist centric ethos Beginning with the gallery's early days on Greens Street in SoHo to its transition and expansion to Chelsea London the Upper East Side and Hong Kong this book captures David Zwirner's devotion to its inimitable roster of artists and estates The heart of the publication is a wide ranging dynamic selection of the gallery's standout exhibitions in many cases handpicked by David Zwirner himself Many of these exhibitions highlight the countless works that ended up in major museum and private collections around the world Also featured is an extensive gallery history that details all of the exhibitions by every artist and estate presented at David Zwirner accompanied by archival imagery With contributions by Richard Schiff and Robert Storr as well as a foreword by David Zwirner this publication offers rare insights into the growth of a commercial gallery through its long term commitment to artists Jockum Nordström Jockum Nordström, John Hutchinson, 2010 Seeing Out Loud Jerry Saltz, 2003 Literary Nonfiction Art In SEEING OUT LOUD Saltz critically engages with notable works of art by over 100 notable artists ranging from Picasso Matisse and Warhol to Matthew Barney Gerhard Richter and Chris Ofili These reviews appeared in the Village Voice between November 1998 and winter 2003 Jerry Saltz is the best informed and hair trigger liveliest of contemporary art critics tracking pleasure and jump starting intelligence on the fly Jerry s fast takes usually stand up better in retrospect than other people s long views Peter Schjedahl Jerry Saltz looks at art from the perspective of the viewer the ignorant the lover and the enemy His writing is overwhelmingly passionate yet without sentimentality His words pierce the content and beauty of each work of art to test its endurance in time and memory Francesco Bonami Curator 2003 Venice Biennale The Theatre of Les Waters Scott T. Cummings, 2022-04-28 The Theatre of Les Waters More Like the Weather combines original writings from Les Waters with short essays by a wide range of his collaborators creating a personal and multi faceted portrait of an influential director revered mentor and inspirational theatre artist The book begins with a critical introduction of Waters s work followed by essays written by a wide range of Waters s collaborators over the past four decades These essays are framed by shorter pieces of writing by Waters himself reflections inspirations observations and personal anecdotes At the heart of this book lies the notion that the director s central position in theatrical production is defined by collaboration and that a study of directing should take into account how a director works with playwrights designers actors stage managers and dramaturgs to turn artistic vision into concrete reality on stage An insightful resource for early career or student directors in theatre programs The Theatre of Les Waters sheds light on the art of theatre directing by exploring the work of a major theatre artist whose accomplished career sits at the heart of American theatre in the 21st century Drawing on aspects of memoir case study interview miscellany biography and criticism this is also an enlightening read for anyone with an interest in how theatre artists bring their creative vision to life Dwell, 2007-11 At Dwell we re staging a minor revolution We think that it s possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines London's Museums and Galleries Eleanor Ross, 2021-07-06 A curated selection of 95 London museums and galleries from the obscure to the resplendent Depicting Canada's Children Loren Lerner, 2011-04-07 Depicting Canada s Children is a critical analysis of the visual representation of Canadian children from the seventeenth century to the present Recognizing the importance of methodological diversity these essays discuss understandings of children and childhood derived from depictions across a wide range of media and contexts But rather than simply examine images in formal settings the authors take into account the components of the images and the role of image making in everyday life The contributors provide a close study of the evolution of the figure of the child and shed light on the defining role children have played in the history of Canada and our assumptions about them Rather than offer comprehensive historical coverage this collection is a catalyst for further study through case studies that endorse innovative scholarship This book will be of interest to scholars in art history Canadian history visual culture Canadian studies and the history of children

Art on the Block Ann Fensterstock, 2025-06-25 A fascinating tour of the last five decades of contemporary art in New York City showing how artists are catalysts of gentrification and how neighborhoods in turn shape their art with special insights into the work of artists such as Jean Michel Basquiat Cindy Sherman and Jeff Koons Stories of New York City's fabled art scene conjure up artists' lofts in SoHo studios in Brooklyn and block after block of galleries in Chelsea But today no artist can afford a SoHo loft Brooklyn has long gentrified and even the galleries of Chelsea are beginning to move on Art on the Block takes the reader on a journey through the neighborhoods that shape and are shaped by New York's ever evolving art world Based on interviews with over 150 gallery directors as well as the artists themselves art historian and cultural commentator Ann Fensterstock explores the genesis expansion maturation and ultimate restless migration of the New York art world from one initially undiscovered neighborhood to the next Opening with the colonization of the desolate South Houston Industrial District in the late 1960s the book follows the art world's subsequent elopements to the East Village in the 80s Brooklyn in the mid 90s Chelsea at the beginning of the new millennium and most recently to the Lower East Side With a look to the newest neighborhoods that artists are just now beginning to occupy this is a must read for both art enthusiasts as well as anyone with a passion for New York City
