Joe Pine Elbert A. Smith, 1916 Vision, 1915 The Making of Bigfoot Greg Long, 2004-03 Bigfoot Huge hairy foul smelling this legendary apelike animal continues to captivate the public's imagination This fascination hinges on a single piece of motion picture film shot in northern California in 1967 For thirty five years Bigfoot believers have been convinced that this sixty second piece of film proves the physical reality of Bigfoot But now comes a book that demolishes that belief that produces final proof that the film footage is a hoax The Making of Bigfoot tells the amazing story of Roger Patterson of Yakima Washington A part time rodeo rider chronically unemployed and dying of cancer Patterson propelled himself into short lived fame and fortune by exploiting his obsession with the Bigfoot subject and leveraging his expertise in manipulating and conning people to pull off one of the world's great hoaxes Living within two hours of Patterson's hometown for three years paranormal investigator and author Greg Long interviewed more than forty witnesses in Yakima who knew Patterson intimately The voices of these witnesses combined with facts unearthed from newspaper archives books and court documents tell the real story of Roger Patterson Both tragic and comical a unique slice of Americana The Making of Bigfoot captures the testimony of a colorful cast of characters who bring to life a man and a time in the 1960s when Bigfoot strode into the American imagination and the world embraced a myth A Place of My Own Michael Pollan, 2008-12-30 A glorious piece of prose Pollan leads readers on his adventure with humor and grace Chicago Tribune A captivating personal inquiry into the art of architecture the craft of building and the meaning of modern work A room of one's own Is there anybody who hasn't at one time or another wished for such a place hasn't turned those soft words over until they'd assumed a habitable shape When Michael Pollan decided to plant a garden the result was the acclaimed bestseller Second Nature In A Place of My Own he turns his sharp insight to the craft of building as he recounts the process of designing and constructing a small one room structure on his rural Connecticut property a place in which he hoped to read write and daydream built with his own two unhandy hands Michael Pollan's unmatched ability to draw lines of connection between our everyday experiences whether eating gardening or building and the natural world has been the basis for the popular success of his many works of nonfiction including the genre defining bestsellers The Omnivore's Dilemma and In Defense of Food With this updated edition of his earlier book A Place of My Own readers can revisit the inspired intelligent and often hilarious story of Pollan's realization of a room of his own a small wooden hut his shelter for daydreams built with his admittedly unhandy hands Inspired by both Thoreau and Mr Blandings A Place of My Own not only works to convey the history and meaning of all human building it also marks the connections between our bodies our minds and the natural world The Mafia Encyclopedia Carl Sifakis, 2006 More than 500 alphabetical entries provide information on the people places and events associated with the Mafia
