John Calvins Rhetorical Doctrine Of Sin:

John Calvin's Rhetorical Doctrine of Sin Don H. Compier, 2001 Sin: A Guide for the Perplexed Derek R. Nelson, 2011-07-28 An upper level introduction to the doctrine and understanding of sin in modern theology What Is Rhetorical Theology? Don H. Compier, 1999-10-01 What Is Rhetorical Theology covers the tradition of classical rhetoric especially as practiced by the Roman orators It considers the appropriation of this heritage in Augustine's On Christian Doctrine and the influence that important work had on Christian theology in the West After describing how modern scholarship has tended to view rhetoric with deep suspicion the book summarizes the retrieval of persuasive discourse in many academic disciplines and the influence of this movement on contemporary theologians such as David Tracy David Cunningham and Rebecca Chopp In addition What Is Rhetorical Theology offers its own constructive proposal that is it argues that the theological task today may be described as rhetorical hermeneutics With the help of literary critics such as Steven Mailloux and Jane Tompkins the author develops a practical and interested approach to the interpretation of classical Christian texts thereby allowing them to speak to our contemporary concerns The book also presents an epistemological defense of the rhetorical approach to reading as a middle way between objectivism and relativism a section that serves as a helpful introduction to current debates about postmodern thought Finally the book illustrates the rhetorical method by applying it to a doctrine of sin in the form of a constructive dialogue between critical theory and the Christian theological past Don H Compier is Associate Professor of Theology at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific and a member of the core doctoral faculty of the Graduate Theological Union Sexism and Sin-Talk Rachel Sophia Baard, 2020-01-01 Early feminist theologians criticized the Christian doctrine of sin for its focus on female sexual purity and its enabling of the marginalization and oppression of women Others have questioned whether the entire theological category of sin should be abandoned in favor of other ways of talking about the human predicament In this new book Rachel Baard argues for a feminist critique of traditional sin talk alongside a constructive reinterpretation of the doctrine of sin one that can be life affirming for all persons She claims that the Christian idea of sin that tragic flaw at the core of human experience provides one of the best tools for understanding the evils of sexism patriarchy and traditional sin talk itself She likewise provides a new rhetoric of sin talk one that accounts for the diverse experiences of the human family not simply those of powerful men Reformation Letters Michael Parsons, 2018-05-29 Reformation Letters is a detailed look at John Calvin's letters which were mostly of a pastoral nature These were letters that define the Reformation and demonstrate Calvin's concerns his strengths and his weaknesses against the background of his own time and contemporaries Here we find Calvin on his own calling and exile from Geneva Calvin on marriage his own and others Calvin's prefatory letter to Francis I of France Calvin's letter to Sadoleto on the nature of the Reformation Calvin on Servetus and the reasons for his trial and execution for heresy and Calvin's letters to those facing death and persecution The Identity and the Life of the Church Yosep Kim, 2014-07-09 This study of John Calvin's ecclesiology argues that Calvin's idea of the twofold identity of the Church its spiritual identity as the body of Christ and its functional identity as the mother of all believers is closely related to his understanding of Christian identity and life which are initiated and maintained by the grace of the triune God. The anthropological basis of Calvin's idea of the Church has not been examined fully even though Calvin presents the important concepts of his ecclesiology in light of his anthropological ideas. This study offers an overall evaluation for Calvin's ecclesiology arguing that it is ultimately his pastoral concern for the Christian and the Church under affliction that both governs his theological understanding of the Church and shapes his proposals for establishing and sustaining the life of the Church in the world.

After Calvin Richard Alfred Muller, 2003. In this sequel to Muller's The Unaccommodated Calvin OUP 2000 the author carries his approach forward with the goal of overcoming a series of 19th and 20th century theological frameworks characteristic of much of the scholarship on Reformed orthodoxy or Calvinism after Calvin.

Theology of the Reformers Timothy George, 2013-09-01. A comprehensive historical and theological overview of five principal figures from the Reformation: Martin Luther, Huldrych Zwingli, John Calvin, Menno Simons, and in this revised and expanded edition William Tyndale.

John Calvin and the Grounding of Interpretation R. Ward Holder, 2006. This book presents a new model for analyzing Calvin's biblical interpretation, rescuing him from the quagmire of anachronistic interpretations. Concentrating upon Calvin's description of biblical interpretation, the book suggests new insights for hermeneutics, exegesis in the Reformations, and Calvin's ecclesiology.

Essays in Public Theology Dirkie Smit, 2007-04-01. What is the role of the church in society? What role did the church play in South Africa during apartheid, in the struggle against apartheid, and during the period of transformation? The essays collected and published in this volume deal with questions such as these. They are all occasional pieces. They were written over two decades and reflect the times in which they originated, always intended for specific audiences, always addressing issues of the particular moment.

The Brightest Mirror of God's Works Nico Vorster, 2019-03-28. John Calvin's perspectives on the nature, calling, and destiny of the human being is scattered all over his extensive corpus of writings. This book attempts to provide an accurate account of the main theological motifs that governed Calvin's doctrine on the human being while keeping in mind variable factors such as the historical development of Calvin's thought, the pastoral and often unsystematic orientation of his theology, and the formative impact doctrinal controversies had on his thoughts. The contribution focuses specifically on Calvin's understanding of the created structure of the human being, her sinful nature, the human being's union with Christ, the limits of human reason, the anthropological roots of human society and gender. The primary aim is to make the original Calvin speak. But the contribution also addresses some of the most recent debates on Calvin's theology and identifies those impulses in his theological anthropology that bear potential for modern reflections on human existence. Like most of us, Calvin was a child of his time. However, his intellectual legacy endures, and readers may well find his thoughts on the human being surprisingly refreshing and stimulating for modern anthropological and social discourses Practical Predestinarians in England, c. 1590 Leif Dixon, 2016-04-08 The belief that God eternally and unalterably decrees the election of one part of humankind and the reprobation of the rest has not aged well but in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries the doctrine of predestination was publicised and popularised to an extent unparalleled in the history of Christianity Why was this How successfully was the doctrine able to mix with other ideas and to what effect And did belief in predestination encourage confidence or despair Practical Predestinarians is a study of the ways in which the doctrine of predestination was understood and communicated by churchmen in late Tudor and early Stuart England It connects with debates about the popularity of Protestantism during England's long reformation as well as with the question of whether predestination tended toward inclusive or divisive and conformist or subversive applications Intersecting with recent debates about the popular reception of Protestant preaching this book focusses upon the pastoral message itself it is therefore an investigation into the public face of English Calvinism Constructive Theology Serene Jones, Paul Lakeland, 2005-01-01 Coordinated by Serene Jones of Yale Divinity School and Paul Lakeland of Fairfield University fifty of North America's top teaching theologians members of the Workgroup on Constructive Christian Theology have devised a text that allows students to experience the deeper point of theological questions to delve into the fractures and disagreements that figured in the development of traditional Christian doctrines and to sample the diverse and conflicting theological voices that vie for allegiance today Calvin's Theology and Its Reception J. Todd Billings, I. John Hesselink, 2012-01-01 A unique resource for the study of John Calvin's theology its reception and insights for today To Teach, To Delight, and To Move David S. Cunningham, 2004-10-22 This book initiates a new conversation about how theological education might be re-envisioned for the twenty first century church The prevailing curricular structure in today's seminaries and divinity schools was fashioned in a very different era one that assumed the continued cultural dominance of Christianity and the continued academic dominance of the canons of Enlightenment reason Neither assumption is viable in today's post Christian world hence our new circumstances demand a new vision for theological education The authors of this volume offer an important resource for this project through their creative appropriation of the classical rhetorical tradition particularly as it has been rehabilitated in the contemporary context Like St Augustine they believe that the chief goals of Christian theology are similar to those of classical rhetoric to teach to delight and to move And the authors are united in their conviction that these must also be the goals of theological education in a post Christian era This volume arises out of a passionate commitment to the cause of theological education The authors hail from a wide range of denominational traditions and have taught in numerous seminaries and divinity schools They have also studied the classical and postmodern rhetorical traditions in both theory and practice They met as a group on numerous occasions to read one another's contributions to the volume and to offer guidance for the process of rewriting As a result this book is much more than a mere collection of essays it is a jointly authored work and one which presents an integrated vision for the future of theological education Persons in Relation Najib George

Awad,2014 Tracing out the origins of the Trinitarian revival in the modern era through to the destabilizing effects of postmodernity on Trinitarian discourse the author provides a critical hermeneutic for the evaluation and implementation of Trinitarian theology in the contemporary world Essays on Being Reformed Dirkie Smit,2009-12-01 What does it mean to be Reformed Christians in the world today and in Africa and South Africa What does it mean to commemorate the legacy of John Calvin 1509 1564 after 500 years in a modern world characterised by democracy by popular notions of human dignity and human rights by worldwide struggles for individual freedoms and for social justice by a global economy in crisis when social historians argue about the lasting contribution of Calvin and his followers precisely with respect to all these modern phenomena The 28 essays by Dirkie Smit selected for this volume deal with such questions Received by Christ Celine S. Yeung,2023-07-21 Huldrych Zwingli had an idea To the shock of both Rome and fellow Protestant Martin Luther he argued that Christ is not physically present in the Lord s Supper Rather the Eucharistic elements only represent Christ s body and blood However the unique basis undergirding his theory is often overlooked both by his contemporaries and later commentators He specifically understood the Lord s Supper to be patterned after the Passover meal the meal of the Old Testament His memorialist understanding was in fact based on the memorialist nature of the Passover By bringing in Jewish scriptures to bear on our understanding of the Lord s Supper his approach unlocks new questions that do not necessarily presuppose Greek metaphysics or a break from traditions This work seeks to continue to develop the method Zwingli left behind delineating a Eucharistic theology for the church today one that gives careful consideration to God s actions in relation to Israel and therefore sees the meal not metaphysically but historically and relationally Martin Heidegger's Interpretations of Saint Augustine Frederick Van Fleteren,2005 Augustine and Heidegger the sixth volume in the Collectanea Augustiniana series is an analysis of Heidegger s interpretation of Augustine of Hippo The first part deals with Heidegger s phenomenological analysis of Confessions X from the perspective of both Augustine and Heidegger The second part treats various themes common to both authors This book is timely since there is presently no in depth study of the relationship between Augustine and Heidegger Explaining the Qur'an Masudul Alam Choudhury,2003
