John Mansfield Thomson Notes Towards A Biography:

John Mansfield Thomson Margaret Clark, 2003 When John Mansfield Thomson died in 1991 it was decided that something should be done to capture the essence of this eminent musicologist and aesthete while memories were still fresh In time a biography may be written but in the meantime we have this collection of memories and tributes They deal with Thomson s early life his student years the London period and his return to New Zealand Back cover Bearing Witness Doug Munro, Jack Corbett, 2017-07-13 Brij V Lal is a singular scholar His work has spanned disciplines from history to politics and genres from conventional monograph history to participant history political commentary encyclopaedia biography and faction Brij is without doubt the most eminent scholar Fiji has ever produced He also remains the most significant public intellectual of his country despite having been banned from entering it in 2009 He is also one of the leading Pacific historians of his generation and an internationally recognised authority on the Indian diaspora This Festschrift volume celebrates reflects upon and extends the life and work of this colourful scholar The essays whose contributors are drawn from across the globe do more than review Brij s work they also probe his contribution to both scholarly and political life This book will therefore serve as an invaluable guide for readers from all walks of life seeking to better situate and understand the impact of Brij s scholarly activism on Fiji and beyond Clive Moore University of Queensland It is a pleasure to commend this collection of very different essays that celebrate reflect upon and extend the life and work of a remarkable scholar Although I have had at times a close association with Brij Lal s life and work I have learned much from reading this book It provokes further thought about the course of democracy in Fiji and the very sorry state and future of Pacific history and the humanities in academia Here is a timely assertion of the significance and major contribution that courageous scholars such as Brij have made to the study and public awareness of these areas of concern Jacqueline Leckie University of Otago

Intersections Brij V. Lal, 2012-11-01 A wonderfully rich insightful and personally touching collection of essays by the Pacific region s most prolific and engaging historian Brij Lal writes eloquently and poetically about his professional and political journeys and the many different people and worlds he has encountered on the way Readers will be inspired by this collective account of a courageous life committed to the achievement of democratic freedom and social justice What shines through these pages is Lal s love of and commitment to Fiji from which he has been painfully exiled David Hanlon Professor of History Former Director of the Center for Pacific Islands Studies University of Hawaii at Manoa Maoriland Jane Stafford, Mark Williams, 2006 This critical examination of Maoriland literature argues against the former glib dismissals of the period and focuses instead on the era s importance in the birth of a distinct New Zealand style of writing By connecting the literature and other cultural forms of Maoriland to the larger realms of empire and contemporary criticism this study explores the roots of the country s modern feminism progressive social legislation and bicultural relations Douglas Lilburn Philip Norman, 2006 This salute to the father of New Zealand composition offers fascinating insights into the world of New Zealand music literature and fine art through the eyes and ears of one of our most creative sons Douglas Lilburn Affectionately written by composer and musicologist Philip Norman the book is a happy blend of meticulous research and human interest revelations from Lilburn's personal papers Lilburn was at the vortex of arts activity in New Zealand from the 1940s forging friendships with cultural luminaries such as Allen Curnow Denis Glover Rita Angus and Alistair Campbell and associations with leading arts organisations from the National Film Unit and the literary journal Landfall to the New Zealand Players and the New Zealand Symphony Orchestra At Victoria University of Wellington where he taught for thirty years Lilburn helped found what has become the most influential music school in the country A number of his former students are now leading composers and teachers His work was recognised with many honours including a personal chair in composition and the rare Order of New Zealand New Zealand's highest award The musician with the farmer's hands as Lilburn once described himself touched and enriched many lives This biography is a lively and long overdue account of an extraordinary man Dust Jacket Many Voices Henry Johnson, 2010-04-16 This collection of fourteen essays provides a starting point to re think music and national identity in Aotearoa New Zealand The papers offer various perspectives on the interconnections between music and identity while providing case studies on diverse topics including performance composition and musical styles Based on a conference held at the University of Otago the book covers three broad themes Cultural Diversity Popular Culture and Education and High Art Within any nation individuals might have a cultural identity that is related to notions of being or becoming or they may live transcultural lives One consequence of the nation state is that notions of national identity are often challenged and continually changing often brought about by social and cultural flows such as those connected with music The intention of this book is to open up critical discourse on the many musics of Aotearoa New Zealand The papers represent a few sounds of a diverse nation and sounds that do much to represent place very often Aotearoa New Zealand and beyond The papers cannot cover everything but what they can offer will hopefully open up further research on the many voices of those who call Aotearoa New Zealand home The Cambridge Companion to Choral Music André De Quadros, 2012-08-16 Bringing together perspectives on history global activity and professional development this Companion provides a unique overview of choral music Virginia Woolf Writing the World Pamela L. Caughie, Diana L. Swanson, 2015 Woolf Writing the World addresses such themes as the creation of worlds through literary writing Woolf's reception as a world writer world wars and the centenary of the First World War and natural worlds in Woolf's writings The selected papers represent the major themes of the conference as well as a diverse range of contributors from around the world and from different positions in and outside the university The contents include familiar voices from past conferences e g Judith Allen Eleanor McNeese Elisa Kay Sparks and well known scholars who have contributed less frequently if at all to past Selected Papers e g Susan Stanford Friedman Steven Putzel Michael Tratner as well as new voices of younger scholars students and independent scholars The volume is divided into four themed sections The first and longest section War and

Peace is framed by Mark Hussey's keynote roundtable War and Violence and Maud Ellmann's keynote address Death in the Air Virginia Woolf and Sylvia Townsend Warner in World War II The second section World Writer's includes papers that read the Woolfs in a global context The papers in Animal and Natural Worlds bring recent developments in ecocriticism and post humanist studies to analysis of Woolf's writing of human and nonhuman worlds Finally Writing and Worldmaking addresses various aspects of genre style and composition Madelyn Detloff's closing essay The Precarity of Civilization in Woolf's Creative Worldmaking brings us back to international and cultural conflicts in our own day reminding us as Detloff says why Woolf still matters today

Fritz Hart Peter Tregear, Anne-Marie Forbes, 2024-12-05 Fritz Bennicke Hart 1874 1949 stands as one of the more astonishing figures of the so called English Musical Renaissance This long overdue biographical study explores and assesses the substantial and lasting contributions he made to the musical life of England Australia and Hawai i As Tregear and Forbes have richly documented Hart was a charismatic and extraordinarily productive composer conductor educator and institutional leader whose life journey in music throws new light on the aesthetic concerns of early twentieth century imperial Britain and how they were received and refracted at that empire's farthest extent The Recorder Richard W. Griscom, David Lasocki, 2013-06-17 A Choice Best Academic book in its first edition The Recorder remains an essential resource for anyone who wants to know about this instrument This new edition is thoroughly redone takes account of the publishing activity of the years since its first publication and still follows the original organization

Good-bye Maoriland Chris Bourke, 2017-10-15 They left their Southern Lands They sailed across the sea They fought the Hun they fought the Turk For truth and liberty Now Anzac Day has come to stay And bring us sacred joy Though wooden crosses be swept away We'll never forget our boys Jane Morison We'll never forget our boys 1917 Be it Tipperary or Pokarekare the morning reveille or the bugle's last post concert parties at the front or patriotic songs at home music was central to New Zealand's experience of the First World War In Good Bye Maoriland the acclaimed author of Blue Smoke The Lost Dawn of New Zealand Popular Music introduces us the songs and sounds of World War I in order to take us deep inside the human experience of war

Virginia Woolf and the Common(wealth) Reader Helen Wussow, Mary Ann Gillies, 2014-06-01 Edited collection from acclaimed contemporary Woolf scholars addressing the theme of Virginia Woolf and the Commonwealth reader A Biographical Dictionary of Eminent Scotsmen, in Four Vols Robert Chambers, 1856

The Turnbull Library Record, 1997

Possessions Nicholas Thomas, 2022-09-01 The arts of Africa Oceania and native America famously inspired twentieth century modernist artists such as Picasso Matisse and Ernst The politics of such stimulus however have long been highly contentious was this a cross cultural discovery to be celebrated or just one more example of Western colonial appropriation This revelatory book explores cross cultural art through the lens of settler societies such as Australia and New Zealand where Europeans made new nations displacing and outnumbering but never eclipsing native peoples In this dynamic of dispossession and resistance visual art has loomed large Settler artists and designers drew upon Indigenous motifs and styles in their search for distinctive identities Yet powerful Indigenous art traditions have asserted the presence of First Nations peoples and their claims to place history and sovereignty Cultural exchange has been a two way process and an unpredictable one contemporary Indigenous art draws on global contemporary practice but moves beyond a bland affirmation of hybrid identities to insist on the enduring values and attachment to place of Indigenous peoples The Ivory Tower and Beyond Susan Cochrane,Doug Munro,Max Quanchi,2009-03-26 There is a tradition of participant history among historians of the Pacific Islands unafraid to show their hands on issues of public importance and risking controversy to make their voices heard This book explores the theme of the participant historian by delving into the lives of J C Beaglehole J W Davidson Richard Gilson Harry Maude and Brij V Lal They lived at the interface of scholarship and practical engagement in such capacities as constitutional advisers defenders of civil liberties or upholders of the principles of academic freedom As well as writing history they made history and their excursions beyond the ivory tower informed their scholarship Doug Munro s sympathetic engagement with these five historians is likewise informed by his own long term involvement with the sub discipline of Pacific History Brio ,1992 The Recorder Magazine ,1999 The German Connection James N. Bade,1993 The German connection with New Zealand during the nineteenth century is an important part of New Zealand s heritage but for various reasons it has remained a neglected part of New Zealand history James Bade and his team of contributors seek to redress the balance with this generously illustrated volume which examines not only early German settlement but also the contribution of German and Austrian scientists artists musicians businessmen and missionaries to the New Zealand way of life Notes Music Library Association,1997
