Xealots Dave Gibbons,2011-10-25 We thirst for purpose clarity fulfillment and direction in our lives How do we go about sorting through all the self-help books talks and seminars The common normal solutions to navigating life are focused on strengths gifts and passion The reality is quite contrarian to what seems to make sense The revelation is found in the divine fingerprints of all that we are our life story what energized and de-energizes us our rhythms and even our pain and weaknesses It's a different way of approaching clarity of life At the heart of this book is the understanding that a life filled with passion is radically different than what many of us have been taught Often it's not in the how do we find life but a commitment to a passionate pursuit Neurologically if we ask the question how our brains can't tap the new domains our brains resorts to typical default solutions that are often inadequate The way to live life to its fullest is found in abnormal rhythms and principles that have the tension of questions more than answers It's a place where strategy is important but an ethos where relationships trump vision The way we are invited to live life to its fullest is found with a contrarian set of beliefs values and questions It's not about quick fixes and simplistic solutions God works through our weaknesses and our failures Real vision is found through relationships with God and with other people Obedience is better than passion These contrarian concepts have been presented and tested in many business and non-profit settings including Willow Creek's Leadership Summit where Dave gave a keynote address The tone of this book was established as Dave thought about what he would want to share with his four third culture children and future leaders It was Dave's heart that they would walk a life where they experienced life to its fullest exploring the new and old domains of world that is constantly changing and Schmid's Art of Living is essential reading for academics and students with an interest in education. Given the importance of such topics as the relationship between education and society, teacher education and how best to structure schools and learning environments, Teschers work will appeal to academics and students in a diverse range of fields including education, philosophy, sociology and psychology.

Little Boy Wild Derek Kurtis, 2006. Little Boy Wild was a small boy who did not have permission to be alive, and this is his epic real-life journey as an abused child in search for himself. It is fearless, hauntingly beautiful, and sometimes disturbing. Whenever he can, he lives wild with the animals, his only true friends, while he seeks to avoid the humans who may cause him to opt out and hide far within himself. It is rare for a work of this magnitude to appear on the literary scene, but in spite of all the hurt involved, Little Boy Wild moves forward in his quest for self-identity and love with hurtful self-searching honesty. Wild Boy's personas are deeply split and fragmented. His adventures may well come across like the reading of a psychiatrist's highly confidential doctor-patient journal of record, all wrapped up in hilarious humor and rollicking fun. His psyche switches between two major personalities: the Preacher and the Movie Director. Frequently, he sees Little Boy Wild outside of himself. He is also psycho-sexually warped and is unsure as to whether he is gay or not. Eventually, he blows his mind apart with LSD, but in the final analysis, out of all the hell of psychosis, something very beautiful occurs. Little Boy Wild and I struggled Phoenix-like throughout our tragic childhood and turbulent teens to an adult life under the guise of normalcy We later discovered that we were gifted the pain of emotional and physical torture in order to become an entity of extraordinary resilience and strength This now enables us to see with eyes that know the unknowable and to understand that which others can only approach as a frontier to be explored Keep track of news and book signings at littleboywild.com Explore the site with audio on One click will return you to our Trafford site
