Living UJA History Irving Bernstein, 1997      Living UJA History Irving Bernstein, Universitah ha-‘Ivrit bi-Yerushalayim. Makhon le-Yahadut zamanenu, 1994      America and Zion Moshe Davis, 2002 Moshe Davis was a preeminent scholar of contemporary Jewish history and the rounding head of the Institute of Contemporary Jewry at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem A recognized leader in the field of bicultural American Jewish studies he was a mentor to educators and academics in both Israel and North America and an active colleague of American Christian scholars involved in interfaith study and dialogue These wide ranging essays many of them presented at a colloquium that Professor Davis had planned but did not live to attend honor him by exploring the theme of Zion as an integral part of American spiritual history and as a site of interfaith discourse Not only do these essays stress the role of individuals in history but they also incorporate views outside those of mainstream religions American attitudes toward the land of the Bible reflect both Jewish values that arose from their abiding attachment to Zion and the uniquely American Christian vision of a utopian pre industrial pre urban pre secularized world Whereas American Christians expected to be lifted out of their ordinary lives when they visited the Holy Land Jews saw in their affinity for Zion a strong link to their American environment Jews viewed America s biblical heritage as a source of practical values such as fair play and equality social vision and political covenant In inviting such comparisons these essays illuminate the relationship of Judaism to America and the richness of American religious experience overall      Israel Monty Noam Penkower, 2021-10-05 The chapters in this volume examine a few facets in the drama of how the beleaguered Jewish people as a phoenix ascending of ancient legend achieved national self determination in the reborn State of Israel within three years of the end of World War II and of the Holocaust They include the pivotal 1946 World Zionist Congress the contributions of Jacob Robinson and Clark M Eichelberger to Israel s sovereign renewal American Jewry s crusade to save a Jewish state the effort to create a truce and trusteeship for Palestine and Judah Magnes s final attempt to create a federated state there Joining extensive archival research and a lucid prose Professor Monty Noam Penkower again displays a definitive mastery of his craft      American Jewish Year Book 1998 David Singer, 1998 The Library owns the volumes of the American Jewish Yearbook from 1899 current      O Powerful Western Star! Peter Golden, 2012 American Jews Russian Jews and the Final Battle of the Cold War      Checkbook Zionism Eric Fleisch, 2024-01-12 Through their approximately 2 5 billion in donations each year to Israel American Jews have profoundly impacted the direction of Israeli society Checkbook Zionism uncovers how tensions over potential influence have been mediated and offers a new paradigm for evaluating philanthropic power sharing today      Living UJA History , 1995      The Cumulative Book Index , 1999      Black Lives Under Nazism Sarah Phillips Casteel, 2024-02-06 In a little known chapter of World War II Black people living in Nazi Germany and occupied Europe were subjected to ostracization forced sterilization and incarceration in internment and concentration camps In the absence of public commemoration African diaspora writers and artists have preserved the stories of these forgotten victims of the Third Reich Their works illuminate the relationship between creative expression and wartime survival and the role of art in the formation of collective memory This groundbreaking book explores a range of largely overlooked literary and artistic works that challenge the invisibility of Black wartime history Emphasizing Black agency Sarah Phillips Casteel examines both testimonial art by victims of the Nazi regime and creative works that imaginatively reconstruct the wartime period Among these are the internment art of Caribbean painter Josef Nassy the survivor memoir of Black German journalist Hans J Massaquoi the jazz fiction of African American novelist John A Williams and Black Canadian novelist Esi Edugyan and the photomontages of Scottish Ghanaian visual artist Maud Sulter Bridging Black and Jewish studies this book identifies the significance of African diaspora experiences and artistic expression for Holocaust history memory and representation Living UJA History ,1995 The Impostor Javier Cercas,2018-08-28 MAN BOOKER PRIZE NOMINEE From the acclaimed author of Outlaws For decades Enric Marco was revered as a veteran of the Spanish Civil War a crusader for justice and a Holocaust survivor But in May 2005 at the height of his renown he was exposed as a fraud Marco was never in a Nazi concentration camp And perhaps the rest of his past was fabricated too a combination of his delusions of grandeur and his compulsive lying In this hypnotic narrative which combines fiction and nonfiction detective story and war story biography and autobiography Javier Cercas sets out to unravel Marco s enigma With both profound compassion and lacerating honesty Cercas probes one man s gigantic lie to explore the deepest most flawed parts of our humanity The Jewish Audio-visual Review ,1959 Racial and Ethnic Relations in America: Politics and racial Carl Leon Bankston,2000 Volume 2 History of Kilsaran Union of Parishes in the County of Louth, Being a History of the Parishes of Kilsaran, Gernonstown, Stabannon, Manfieldstown, and Dromiskin, with Many Particulars Relating to the Parishes of Richardstown, Dromin, and Darver, Comprising a Large Section of Mid-Louth James Blennerhassett Leslie,1908 Under different ecclesiastical arrangements the ancient parishes of Ireland which were extremely numerous were often grouped together to form incumbencies and the term Union was applied to such combinations The Union of Kilsaran comprises at present 1908 in the Church of Ireland ecclesiastical arrangement the ancient Parishes of Kilsaran Gernonstown and Manfieldstown together with the churches and portions of each of the ancient Parishes of Strabannon and Dromiskin Intro Sinews of the Nation Dan Lainer-Vos,2013-04-03 Fundraising may not seem like an obvious lens through which to examine the process of nation building but in this highly original book Lainer Vos shows that fundraising mechanisms ranging from complex transnational gift giving systems to sophisticated national bonds are organizational tools that can be used to bind dispersed groups to the nation Sinews of the Nation treats nation building as a practical organizational accomplishment and examines how the Irish republicans and the Zionist movement secured financial support in the United States during the first half of the twentieth century Comparing the Irish and Jewish experiences whose trajectories of homeland diaspora relations were very different provides a unique perspective for examining how national movements use economic transactions to attach disparate groups to the national project By focusing on fundraising Lainer Vos challenges the common view of nation building as only a matter of forging communities by imagining away internal differences he shows that nation building also involves organizing relationships so as to allow heterogeneous groups to maintain their difference and yet contribute to the national cause Nation building is about much more than creating unifying symbols it is also about creating mechanisms that bind heterogeneous groups to the nation despite and through their differences

While America Watches Jeffrey Shandler,2000-09-21 The Holocaust holds a unique place in American public culture and as Jeffrey Shandler argues in While America Watches it is television more than any other medium that has brought the Holocaust into our homes our hearts and our minds Much has been written about Holocaust film and literature and yet the medium that brings the subject to most people television has been largely neglected Now Shandler provides the first account of how television has familiarized the American people with the Holocaust He starts with wartime newsreels of liberated concentration camps showing how they set the moral tone for viewing scenes of genocide and then moves to television to explain how the Holocaust and the Holocaust survivor have gained stature as moral symbols in American culture From early teleplays to coverage of the Eichmann trial and the Holocaust miniseries as well as documentaries popular series such as All in the Family and Star Trek and news reports of recent interethnic violence in Bosnia Shandler offers an enlightening tour of television history Shandler also examines the many controversies that televised presentations of the Holocaust have sparked demonstrating how their impact extends well beyond the broadcasts themselves While America Watches is sure to continue this discussion and possibly the controversies among many readers
