Evil Spirits Gary Banham, Charlie Blake, 2000 Incorporating a diversity of approaches from a variety of disciplines this book provides a major reassessment of the question of nihilism in modernity and interrogates this through the growing interest in angels and demons in contemporary philosophy The collection examines the uncanny return of angelic and demonic principles in current cultural production and thinking and aims to show that the repression of thought about spiritual entities at the onset of modernity is linked to the appearance of a new form of evil that manifests itself through nihilism Ghosts of Archive Verne Harris, 2020-12-21 Ghosts of Archive draws on the discourses of deconstruction intersectionality and archetypal psychology to mount an argument that archive is fundamentally and structurally spectral and that the work of archive is justice Drawing on more than 20 years of the author's research on deconstruction and archive the book posits archive as an essential resource for social justice activism and as a source or location of soul for individuals and communities Through explorations of what Jacques Derrida termed hauntology Harris invites a listening to the call for justice in conceptual spaces that are non disciplinary He argues that archive is both constructed in relation to and beset by ghosts ghosts of the living of the dead and of those not yet born and that attention should be paid to them Establishing a unique nexus between a deconstructive intersectionality and traditions of memory for justice in struggles against oppression from South Africa and elsewhere the book makes a case for a deconstructive praxis in today's archive Offering new ideas about spectrality banditry and archival activism Ghosts of Archive should appeal to those working in the disciplines of archival science information studies and psychology It should also be essential reading for those with an interest in social justice issues transitional justice history philosophy memory studies and postcolonial studies Real Cities Steve Pile, 2005-03-18 this is a book with an interesting thesis and a welcome contribution to the literature Pile has opened up a productive theoretical and empirical space for further study and exploration RGS IBG Urban Geography Research Group What is real about city life Real Cities shows why it is necessary to take seriously the more imaginary fantastic and emotional aspects of city life Drawing inspiration from the work of Walter Benjamin Sigmund Freud and Georg Simmel Pile explores the dream like and ghost like experiences of the city Such experiences are he argues best described as phantasmagorias The phantasmagorias of city life though commonplace are far from self evident and little understood This book is a path breaking exploration of urban phantasmagorias grounded empirically in a series of unusual and exciting case studies In this study four substantial phantasmagorias are identified dreams magic vampires and ghosts The investigation of each phantasmagoria is developed using a wide variety of clear examples Thus voodoo in New York and New Orleans shows how ideas about magic are forged within cities Meanwhile vampires reveal how specific fears about sex and death are expressed within and circulate between cities such as London and Singapore Taken together such examples build a unique picture of the diverse roles of the imaginary fantastic and the emotional in modern city life What is real about the city has radical consequences for how we think about improving city life for all too often these are over looked in utopian schemes for the city Real Cities forcefully argues that an appreciation of urban phantasmagorias must be central to what is considered real about city life

Living With Ghosts Kari Sperring, 2009      Elemental and Ancestral Spirits, Or the Gods and the Glorified Gerald Massey, 2008-11-01 The two primary elements were those of darkness and light Sut was the power of darkness Horus the power of light In one representation the two elements were imaged by means of the black bird of Sut and the white bird or golden hawk of Horus Thus we can identify two elemental powers as old as night and day which are primeval in universal mythology and these two powers or animistic souls were divinized as the two gods Sut and Horus with the two birds of darkness and light the black vulture and the gold hawk depicted back to back as their two representative types or personal totems from Elemental and Ancestral Spirits or The Gods and the Glorified It goes unappreciated by modern Egyptologists but it is embraced by those who savor the concept of a hidden history of humanity and those who approach all human knowledge from the perspective of the esoteric Gerard Massey's massive Ancient Egypt The Light of the World first published in 1907 and the crowning achievement of the self-taught scholar redefines the roots of Christianity via Egypt proposing that Egyptian mythology was the basis for Jewish and Christian beliefs Here Cosimo proudly presents Book 3 of Ancient Egypt in which Massey explains how the original elemental spirits of early humans were transformed into deities and how the concept of a soul developed from animalistic representations of natural forces Peculiar and profound this work will intrigue and delight readers of history religion and mythology British author GERALD MASSEY 1828-1907 published works of poetry spiritualism Shakespearean criticism and theology but his best known works are in the realm of Egyptology including A Book of the Beginnings and The Natural Genesis      Senescence, the last half of life Granville Stanley Hall, 1922      Senescence, the Last Half of Life G. Stanley Hall, 2023-11-21 In Senescence the Last Half of Life G Stanley Hall delves into the psychological and social dimensions of aging offering a groundbreaking exploration of human development in the latter stages of life Combining a scholarly approach with a rich narrative style Hall critiques the prevailing perceptions of senescence championing a more nuanced understanding of the emotional and cognitive experiences that accompany aging Rooted in the late 19th and early 20th centuries his work reflects the era's growing interest in psychology and human behavior marking a significant contribution to gerontology and developmental psychology G Stanley Hall was a pioneering psychologist often regarded as the father of educational psychology and the first president of the American Psychological Association His extensive work in child psychology and his role in the establishment of child study movements provided a unique perspective on the continuum of human development Hall's personal and professional interests in the psychological implications of aging stem from his lifelong dedication to understanding life's stages imbuing this book with both scientific rigor and compassionate insight This seminal work is essential for anyone keen on understanding the complexities of aging highlighting its myriad challenges and opportunities Hall's profound insights not only inform academic discourse but also offer practical guidance for caregivers and individuals navigating the later stages of life making it a must-read for scholars and laypersons alike      Politics Out of History Wendy Brown, 2018-06-05 What happens to left and liberal political orientations when faith in progress is broken when both the sovereign individual and sovereign states seem tenuous when desire seems as likely to seek punishment as freedom when all political conviction is revealed as contingent and subjective Politics Out of History is animated by the question of how we navigate the contemporary political landscape when the traditional compass points of modernity have all but disappeared Wendy Brown diagnoses a range of contemporary political tendencies from moralistic high-handedness to low-lying political despair in politics from the difficulty of formulating political alternatives to reproaches against theory in intellectual life as the consequence of this disorientation Politics Out of History also presents a provocative argument for a new approach to thinking about history one that forsakes the idea that history has a purpose and treats it instead as a way of illuminating openings in the present by for example identifying the haunting and constraining effects of past injustices unresolved Brown also argues for a revitalized relationship between intellectual and political life one that cultivates the autonomy of each while promoting their interlocutory potential This book will be essential reading for all who find the trajectories of contemporary liberal democracies bewildering and are willing to engage readings of a range of thinkers Freud Marx Nietzsche Spinoza Benjamin Derrida to rethink democratic possibility in our time
