Monstrous Imaginaries Maaheen Ahmed, 2019-11-29 Monsters seem inevitably linked to humans and not always as mere opposites Maaheen Ahmed examines good monsters in comics to show how Romantic themes from the eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries persist in today's popular culture Comics monsters questioning the distinction between human and monster self and other are valuable conduits of Romantic inclinations Engaging with Romanticism and the many monsters created by Romantic writers and artists such as Mary Shelley Victor Hugo and Goya Ahmed maps the heritage functions and effects of monsters in contemporary comics and graphic novels She highlights the persistence of recurrent Romantic features through monstrous protagonists in English and French language comics and draws out their implications Aspects covered include the dark Romantic predilection for ruins and the sordid the solitary protagonist and his quest nostalgia the prominence of the spectacle as well as excessive emotions and above all the monster's ambiguity and rebelliousness Ahmed highlights each Romantic theme through close readings of well known but often overlooked comics including Enki Bilal's Monstre tetralogy Jim O Barr's The Crow and Emil Ferris's My Favorite Thing Is Monsters as well as the iconic comics series Alan Moore's Swamp Thing and Mike Mignola's Hellboy In blurring the otherness of the monster these protagonists retain the exaggeration and uncontrollability of all monsters while incorporating Romantic characteristics

Masters of the Ninth Art Matthew Screech, 2005-01-01 In English speaking countries Francophone comic strips like Herg's Les Aventures de Tin Tin and Goscinny and Uderzo's Les Aventures d'Asterix are viewed and marketed as children's literature But in Belgium and France their respective countries of origin such strips known as bandes dessinées are considered a genuine art form or more specifically the ninth art But what accounts for the drastic difference in the way such comics are received In Masters of the Ninth Art Matthew Screech explores that difference in the reception and reputation of bandes dessinées Along with in depth looks at Tin Tin and

Asterix Screech considers other major comics artists such as Jacques Tardi, Jean Giraud and Moebius assessing in the process their role in Francophone literary and artistic culture. Illustrated with images from the artists discussed, Masters of the Ninth Art will appeal to students of European popular culture literature and graphic art. Century's End Pierre Christin, 2016-11-22 Century's End collects two of the most accomplished comics narratives to come out of the creative collaboration between visionary artist Enki Bilal and celebrated writer Pierre Christin. In The Black Order, a group of aging revolutionaries band together for one last stand against fascism. As they spread around Europe chasing down leads and picking off old adversaries, they realize they are heading for an explosive showdown. A group of Communist leaders gather for some sport in a quiet forest. In The Hunting Party, soon the snowy ground is stained with the blood of more than just animals as the machinations of the political world weave through the trees toward an unsuspecting victim. An engaging original story that should resonate with audiences interested in the evolving process of history and how it is shaped. Audiovisual

Posthumanism Evi D. Sampanikou, 2017-05-11 This volume deals with the challenges posthumanism meets as a successor to postmodernism in the field of artistic literary and aesthetic expression. It also explores the ways social sciences and humanities are affected by posthumanism and it asks how posthumanism can be an expansion of humanism in the contemporary world rather than a transcendence of humanism. The chapters' authors come from different countries, cultural backgrounds and study areas to present a varied perspective on posthumanism. Cutting Edge Francesco Dimitri, 2021-07-07 Acclaimed author Francesco Dimitri and award-winning artist Mario Alberti tell a story of extraordinary people who are brought together to uncover a deadly conspiracy that threatens the world. The mysterious Leviathan Corporation offers an exclusive group of experts and pioneers an incredible challenge. The Dodecathlon Mark Stella Hiroshi Jirakee and Delroy join forces for tasks that will not only push them to their limits but risk their very lives. Only by completing it will they find answers and a prize of apocalyptic proportions. Scientists, artists, entrepreneurs, they are the best of humanity. They are the Cutting Edge. This slow burn supernatural mystery churns with razor sharp storytelling. Syfy Wire This is what I want to see every single time I open up a comic book. Reading With a Flight Ring Comics and the City Jörn Ahrens, Arno Meteling, 2010-03-11 Comics emerged parallel to and in several ways intertwined with the development of modern urban mass societies at the turn of the 20th century. On the one hand, urban topoi, self-portrayals, forms of urban cultural memories and variant readings of the city, strolling, advertising, architecture, detective stories, mass phenomena, street life, etc. are all incorporated into comics. On the other hand, comics have unique abilities to capture urban space and city life because of their hybrid nature consisting of words, pictures and sequences. These formal aspects of comics are also to be found within the cityscape itself; one can see the influence of comic book aesthetics all around us today. With chapters on the very earliest comic strips and on artists as diverse as Alan Moore, Carl Barks, Will Eisner and Jacques Tardi, Comics and the City is an important new collection of international scholarship that will help to define the field for many years to come. Complex

Networks IV Gourab Ghoshal, Julia Poncela-Casasnovas, Robert Tolksdorf, 2013-02-19 A network is a mathematical object consisting of a set of points called vertices or nodes that are connected to each other in some fashion by lines called edges. Turns out this simple description corresponds to a bewildering array of systems in the real world ranging from technological ones such as the Internet and World Wide Web biological networks such as that of connections of the nervous systems or blood vessels food webs protein interactions infrastructural systems such as networks of roads airports or the power grid to patterns of social acquaintance such as friendship network of Hollywood actors connections between business houses and many more. Recent years have witnessed a substantial amount of interest within the scientific community in the properties of these networks. The emergence of the internet in particular coupled with the widespread availability of inexpensive computing resources has facilitated studies ranging from large scale empirical analysis of networks in the real world to the development of theoretical models and tools to explore the various properties of these systems. The study of networks is broadly interdisciplinary and central developments have occurred in many fields including mathematics physics computer and information sciences biology and the social sciences. This book brings together a collection of cutting edge research in the field from a diverse array of researchers ranging from physicists to social scientists and presents them in a coherent fashion highlighting the strong interconnections between the different areas. Topics included are social networks and social media opinion and innovation diffusion synchronization transportation networks and human mobility as well as theory modeling and metrics of Complex Networks.

Building Sci-fi Moviescapes Matt Hanson, 2005 Building Sci fi Moviescapes provides a rare behind the scenes examination of how the digital city and space scapes in science fiction movies are created through the eyes of directors producers production designers and visualization artists. This is a stunning showcase of some of the most impressive digital city and space scapes to come out of the movies from Hollywood as well as the Japanese and European film industries. Is it French? Popular Postnational Screen Fiction from France Mary Harrod, Raphaëlle Moine, 2024-01-30 This book investigates the recently accelerated phenomenon of mainstream French film and serial television's remarkable popularity not only within but more novelly for European audiovisual narratives outside the domestic context Treating changes that have taken place in France's production landscape during the mass rollout of global streaming platforms as revelatory of broader tendencies in media production and circulation in Europe and beyond the collection explores emergent influential players Omar Sy Camille Cottin Alexandre Aja and Fanny Herrero companies such as Netflix and Gaumont and new genres identities and representations on screen It thus draws together a body of new research by international experts in French and European media production to analyse popular film and television series from France through a postnational lens with regards to both economic and institutional norms and to culture as a whole This book is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

Choreographing Shakespeare Elizabeth Klett, 2019-10-16 Choreographing Shakespeare presents a hitherto unexplored history of the choreographers and performers who have created dance adaptations of Shakespeare This book investigates forty dance works in genres such as ballet modern dance and hip hop produced between 1940 and 2016 by choreographers in Britain America and Europe all of which use Shakespeare's plays and Sonnets as their source material By combining scholarly analysis of these productions with practice based conversations from six contemporary choreographers Klett offers both breadth of coverage and in depth analysis of how Shakespeare's poetic language is translated into the usually wordless medium of dance and shows exactly how these dance adaptations move beyond the Shakespearean texts to engage with musical and choreographic influences Ideal for students of Shakespeare and Dance Studies Choreographing Shakespeare explores how dance adaptations strive to design legible and intelligible stories while ultimately celebrating the beauty of pure movement Michael Mann Jean-Baptiste Thoret, 2024-05-21 A new biography on the revolutionary Michael Mann More than just a comprehensive essay on his career this work from Jean Baptiste Thoret is also a treaty on contemporary times

Enki Bilal: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Enki Bilal : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
