Burt, 1939 Ethics Louis

Wolcher, 2020-12-29 This book examines ethics at the intersection of law and justice If law and justice are concerned with collectively establishing the general terms on which the plurality called we share the earth as social beings then ethics concerns the individual Self's particular moral relationship with the Other Law the acknowledged offspring of politics represents the kind of might that most people accept as legitimate at least most of the time Justice on the other hand is supposed to vigilantly stand guard over law to protect us against its biases and excesses or at the very least to rise up and reproach the law whenever it permits or encourages injustice But what if the belief that a particular legally authorized state of affairs is just a common enough feeling especially amongst the privileged or even unjust and in need of correction were itself in need of a vigilant guardian This book argues that ethics can and should stand guard over whatever image of justice and or just law one happens to believe in The book thus attempts to steer a perilous course between two looming moral hazards ethics interpreted as the rational production of ethically correct behavior as in Kant and ethics interpreted as the spontaneous eruption of pre rational compassion for the suffering of the Other come what may as in Levinas In the end the book characterizes ethical life in the law as the more or less constant experience of the paradoxical nature of this choice a feeling of inescapable personal responsibility for the fate of the Other Based on the author's well established expertise in the area this book will appeal to students scholars and others with interests in legal theory and moral and political philosophy

Law's Task Louis E. Wolcher, 2016-04-22 What is the ultimate task of law This deceptively simple question guides this volume towards a radically original philosophical interpretation of law and justice Weaving together the philosophical jurisprudential and ethical problems suggested by five general terms thinking human suffering legal meaning time and tragedy the book places the idea of law's ultimate task in the context of what actually happens when people seek to do justice and enforce legal rights in a world that is inflected by the desperation and suffering of the many It traces the rule of law all the way down to its most fundamental level the existence of universal human suffering and how it is that law does inflict or tolerate that suffering

Reason & the Contours of Faith Richard Rice, 2013-05-17 Can reason and religion get together Should believers think Can thinking people believe Does religion have to make sense Does careful thinking help or hinder religious experience People have wrestled with such questions for hundreds of years and they are just as perplexing today as ever Reason the Contours of Faith explores the wide ranging issues these questions raise from biblical interpretation and proofs for God's existence to the nature of religious conversion Its central purpose is to find an alternative to both fideism the idea that reason has nothing to do with faith and rationalism the conviction that reason has everything to do with it Part One Reason and the Contents of Faith argues that reason contributes in important but limited ways to our understanding of religion Part Two Reason and the Experience of Faith shows that reason can support religious commitment but never produces it

God, Morality, and Beauty Randall B. Bush, 2019-07-01 Randall B Bush analyzes the ways unacknowledged axiological assumptions e.g about what is important why human beings are valuing creatures and where the capacity to value comes from prejudice the perspectives and approaches of various academic disciplines especially in the social sciences and the humanities The disciplines of ethics and aesthetics provide the most useful tools for a philosophy of value but academic overspecialization has compartmentalized and segregated these disciplines from others threatening to unravel the unity of conceptions of the moral and the beautiful in human existence Bush argues that a dialectical approach to conflicts between ethics and aesthetics can point to a broader axiological vision informed by a Trinitarian conception of reality in which the whole a coherent theory of value is more than the sum of its parts

Religious Epiphanies Across Traditions and Cultures James Kellenberger, 2017-08-08 This book explores religious epiphanies in which there is the appearance of God a god or a goddess or a manifestation of the divine or religious reality as received in human experience Drawing upon the scriptures of various traditions ancillary religious writings psychological and anthropological studies as well as reports of epiphanic experiences the book presents and examines epiphanies as they have occurred across global religious traditions and cultures historically and up to the present day Primarily providing a study of the great range of epiphanies in their phenomenal presentation Kellenberger also explores issues that arise for epiphanies such as the matter of their veridicality whether they are truly of or from the divine and the question of whether all epiphanies are of the same religious reality

Understanding Morality Wayne Gustave Johnson, 2022-02-04 This book explains why moral systems necessarily develop and why they take the various forms that they do Johnson argues that moral systems are best understood as attempts both to seek out ways of living a fulfilling human life and also to find ways of relating to others who also seek a fulfilling life Philosophers generally agree that the moral pathway is also the fulfilling pathway However the moral pathways advocated and the kind of fulfillments envisioned depend upon beliefs about human nature as well as beliefs about the ultimate nature of things a worldview Aristotle Epicurus Saint Augustine and Friedrich Nietzsche for instance had radically varying views about what constitutes a fulfilling life Johnson argues that the moral quest involves properly arbitrating among the often competing wants needs and desires pursued by human beings Not all such wants needs and desires can be fulfilled some must necessarily go unfulfilled This implies that a vast number of human choices are moral choices For instance who eats and who does not Johnson gives no moral advice His aim is to show the reader the nature of the moral choices they necessarily make

On Freud's "The Question of Lay Analysis" Paulo Cesar Sandler, Gley Pacheco Costa, 2019-02-18 The questions of what psychoanalysis is and does and who can and should practice it remains key within the modern profession Has the invaluable material packed into Freud's The Question of Lay Analysis 1926 been underestimated by contemporary psychoanalysis This book explores how the issues raised in this paper can continue to impact contemporary Freudian theory and practice The chapters examine why the arguably litigious nature of the paper might be contributing to its neglect and underestimation The editors of this book put forth a hypothesis is there an underlying still unrecognized but heartrending factor underlying the century old quarrel between lay analysts and what might be described as medically or psychiatrically trained analysts They then brought together a selection of major contemporary psychoanalytic thinkers from around the world to attempt to bridge the seemingly unbridgeable gap between medical and non medical analysis using The Question of Lay Analysis as a central pivot The work of the key figure in social and historic terms on this issue Theodor Reik is also duly honoured On Freud's The Question of Lay Analysis will be of great interest to all psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists

The Nexus of Governmental Integrity and the Survivability of American Constitutional Democracy George J. Gatgounis, 2022-03-08 The American government is in a state of crisis a crisis of integrity Law is not what holds nations together rather cultural values and prevailing social conditions sustain an undergirding belief in the legitimacy of law Moral and religious consensus must come before a legal order This book discusses several cases of the erosion of credibility as examples Gorbachev's failed attempt to modernize Russia the deceptions of the Vietnam War and the Iran Contra arms scandal Next comes a study of how civil religion and governmental integrity interplay The final chapter is a well documented historic overview and examination of the Supreme Court's challenging task of constitutionally defining religion especially in cases of conscientious objections and religious exemptions to state mandates The issues are timely and Gatgounis is uniquely qualified to examine them as both a constitutional lawyer and religious scholar

Finding Answers History! Religion! Science! Pauline Schiappa, 2018-04-28. A mysterious and tremendous thing comes to reveal itself in the course of the lifetime of an earthly human. So mysteriously confronted by it, the earthly human becomes awed by this compelling human attribute. The earthly human becomes so enraptured by it that he begins to consider it as a quality that defines and explains his human nature. The earthly human desires to know the earthly human desires to understand that which his physical body sense experiences of earthly reality. The earthly human holds so much psychological and intellectual desire toward knowing it that he gives it a name: truth. How does the earthly human discover truth? Secular Humanism What Does That Mean Pauline Schiappa, 2019-10-22. In the meantime, in between time, the Industrial Revolution began to occur in Europe in 1760 and in the United States between 1820-1840. The Industrial Revolution paid no attention to Human Nature, cognitive, metaphysical development, human intelligence. Nor to any ethical or moral humanness, innate, metaphysical proclivity. The Industrial Revolution fostered Herbert Spencer's 1820-1910 evolutionary human development: survival of the fittest, as well as Karl Marx 1818-1883 economic human development neglecting human intellectual development. Earthly reality, notion of Secular Humanism began with Auguste Comte 1789-1857 and Emile Durkheim 1858-1917 as the result of the French Revolution 1798-1857 when Napoleon Bonaparte crowned himself in Notre Dame Cathedral as Emperor of The French Empire. The French Revolution was not able to acquire democracy for France nor humanity, equality, fraternité. Disruption David Appelbaum, 1996-02-15. This book is about the disruption of the intellect that awakens consciousness to its wholeness and purpose. When consciousness is fractured, its world-making powers are momentarily disrupted. In the gap during which spatio-temporal categories of thought cease to apply, consciousness realigns with that which it is meant to serve. The moment of self-remembering, shocking, unique and truthful, leaves a call to obedience in its wake. To refuse to respond is to cease to be human. The Evolution of the Social Sciences Donald K. Sharpes, 2009-01-01. This book charts the development of the main social sciences: religion, history, philosophy, law, sociology, anthropology and economics, through an examination of the lives and works of each discipline's key historical figures. Joyce's Book of the Dark John Bishop, 1986-12-01. Joyce's Book of the Dark gives us such a blend of exciting intelligence and impressive erudition that it will surely become established as one of the most fascinating and readable Finnegans Wake studies now available. Margot Norris, James Joyce Literary Supplement.
