Entrepreneurship And The New Firm:

The Entrepreneurial Shift Robert R. Locke, Katja E. Schöne, 2004-09-09 This is a provocative and intelligent study of how high technology entrepreneurial developments have affected management education in the wider business context Responding to the growth of new technology businesses American business schools fostered entrepreneurship studies Not wishing to be left behind entrepreneurially in the Information Age France and Germany followed with their own innovative education programmes And The Czech Republic like other emerging economies has been caught up belatedly in this education ferment Original and containing new research data the book will appeal to academics students and practitioners

Handbook of Entrepreneurship Research ZOLTAN ACS, DAVID AUDRETSCH, 2006-04-07 Interest and attention to entrepreneurship has exploded in recent years Yet much of the research and scholarship has remained elusive to academics policymakers and other researchers This reflects two crucial aspects of the entrepreneurship literature First has been the explosion of new findings and insights both theoretically and empirically Second most of this scholarship has been rooted in traditional academic disciplines spanning a broad spectrum of fields such as management finance economics sociology and psychology The purpose of the Handbook of Entrepreneurship is to bring together leading scholars from each of these disciplines to provide an overview of what the issues are for entrepreneurship when viewed through the lens provided by the academic disciplines as well as a synthesis about what has been learned and what questions should be high on the agenda for future research Taken together this Handbook will provide a roadmap to an emerging complex but intriguing field of entrepreneurship

Entrepreneurship in the United States Paul D. Reynolds, 2007-09-30 This important book enhances understanding of entrepreneurial dynamics providing the first analysis of changes in US entrepreneurial activity Based on the unprecedented Panel Study of Entrepreneurial Dynamics it examines adult participation in new firm creation and differences in regional firm creation activity Shedding light on the importance of new firms for job growth productivity enhancements innovation and routes for social mobility the author tracks the success or failure of entrepreneurs including comparisons of different groups such as women and minorities as well as across countries
