Environmental Wars Reports From The Front Lines:

Environmental Politics and Policy Walter A. Rosenbaum, 2019-07-17 Walter A Rosenbaum's classic Environmental Politics and Policy provides definitive coverage of environmental politics and policy, lively case material and a balanced assessment of current environmental issues. The first half of the book sets needed context and describes the policy process while the second half covers specific environmental issues such as air and water, toxic and hazardous substances, energy, and a global policymaking chapter focused on climate change and transboundary politics. The eleventh edition includes updates on the Trump administration's initiatives and controversies with regard to environmental policy, offering the currency and relevancy needed for any environmental politics course.

SLAPPs George William Pring, Penelope Canan, 1996 In a democracy that for over 200 years has prided itself on public participation and citizen involvement in government, thousands have been and will be the targets of multi-million dollar lawsuits. They will be sued for such all-American activities as circulating a petition, writing a letter to the editor, testifying at a public hearing, reporting violations of the law, filing an official complaint, lobbying for legislation, or otherwise communicating their views. Such cases, named Strategic Lawsuits Against Public Participation, with their apropos acronym SLAPPs, are a shocking abuse of one of our most basic political rights, the Right to Petition. So extensive and grievous is the phenomenon that Justice Nicholas Colabella remarked, "Short of a gun to the head, a greater threat to First Amendment expression can scarcely be imagined." George W. Pring and Penelope Canan explore the full range of SLAPP stories in this first study of SLAPPs: retaliatory lawsuits by real estate developers, teachers, police, politicians, opponents of civil rights, consumers' rights, women's rights, and many others. This comprehensive book examines what happens to the targets of SLAPPs and what is happening to public participation in American politics. Addressing the ultimate dilemma, what can be done to turn the tables and fight back, Pring and Canan offer concrete, well-supported, balanced solutions for preventing, managing, and curing SLAPPs at all levels of government. Author note: George W. Pring is Professor of Law at the University of Denver. Penelope Canan is Associate Professor of Sociology at the University of Denver. They are the co-directors of the Political Litigation Project at the University of Denver.

Violence Through Environmental Discrimination Günther Baechler, 2013-03-09 Since all-out interstate wars for the time being seem to belong to the past, conflict studies focus more and more on domestic conflicts. This is a broad field not only because the arbitrary line between war and sub-war violence disappears and the analyst is confronted with phenomena reaching from criminal violence and clashes between communities to violent conflicts of long duration and civil wars with massacres and genocides as their characteristics. It is also because there are so many different types of conflicts to be analyzed, so many different types of behavior to be studied, whereas there is often little information available on what is really going on. Against the background of internal conflicts, which tend to be as protracted as diffuse in terms of time, intensity, actors, and their goals, this study aims to follow a specific pathway through the current thicket of violent circumstances. It focuses on causation patterns by exploring the causal role of the environmental factor in the genesis of violent conflicts occurring today and probably even more so tomorrow This approach which for once does not focus on a specific level of the conflict system on one area in the conflict geography or on a specific category of actors analyzes causation dynamics

Green Justice Thomas M Hoban, Richard O Brooks, 2018-02-20 In the nine years since Green Justice first appeared the field we have come to identify as environmental law has taken a number of twists and turns few of which were foreseen by the authors or so far as they know by anyone else Although this edition attempts to account for many of these changes it continues to emphasize what we believed then and continue to believe to be paramount not only for the study of environmental law but for common law based jurisprudence in general Despite the immediacy and crush of daily events closely reasoned analyses of the difficulties and conflicts arising from environmental conflicts as embodied in major cases or key decisions such as we present here provide a stabilizing core around which the swirl of daily events takes place and against which those events must be evaluated We believed then and believe even more strongly now that this is true not only for legal specialists and scholars but for an educated populace as well Thus this casebook Nothing is Without Poison Michael B. Roberts,2002 This book aims to provide the reader with a simple explanation of some of the fundamental principles of the sciences of pharmacology therapeutics and toxicology It sketches the history of drug treatment from traditional therapy with mainly herbal preparations to today s explosion of synthetic drugs and outlines the roles of the academic research laboratories and the pharmaceutical industry in the development synthesis testing and marketing of new drugs War and the Environment Charles Edwin Closmann,2009 Eleven scholars explore among other topics the environmental ravages of trench warfare in World War I the exploitation of Philippine forests for military purposes from the Spanish colonial period through 1945 William Tecumseh Sherman s scorched earth tactics during his 1864 65 March to the Sea and the effects of wartime policy upon U S and German conservation practices during World War II Annual Report of the General Accounting Office United States. General Accounting Office,1980 Environmental Politics & Policy 7e Walter A Rosenbaum,2008 Coming to grips with today s environmental policy challenges is no small feat What are the practical problems involved with sustainable development policies What impact do environmental values have on public opinion and policymaking What roles have the states taken in environmental policy innovation Rosenbaums classic comprehensive text offers definitive coverage of environmental politics and policy lively case material and a balanced assessment of current environmental issues This updated seventh edition presents an extensive revision and update with sharp evaluation of the Bush administrations most significant environmental decisions with particular attention to the conflict between conservative and environmentalist approaches to ecological issues increased emphasis on the interaction of global and domestic environmental issues such as climate change and growing importance of other transboundary issues in the domestic economy balanced discussion of petroleum consumption and its environmental impact greater attention to the politics of energy conservation including regulatory and technological approaches and increased coverage of environmental justice issues New and revised tables and figures capture key environmental data while additional Web based references and research materials point students toward further study Publisher Killer Images Joram ten Brink,Joshua Oppenheimer,2013-01-08 Cinema has long shaped not only how mass violence is perceived but also how it is performed Today when media coverage is central to the execution of terror campaigns and news anchormen serve as embedded journalists a critical understanding of how the moving image is implicated in the imaginations and actions of perpetrators and survivors of violence is all the more urgent If the cinematic image and mass violence are among the defining features of modernity the former is significantly implicated in the latter and the nature of this implication is the book s central focus This book brings together a range of newly commissioned essays and interviews from the world s leading academics and documentary filmmakers including Ben Anderson Errol Morris Harun Farocki Rithy Phan Avi Mograbi Brian Winston and Michael Chanan Contributors explore such topics as the tension between remembrance and performance the function of moving images in the execution of political violence and nonfiction filmmaking methods that facilitate communities of survivors to respond to recover and redeem a history that sought to physically and symbolically annihilate them
