Longoria, 2022-09-02 Using a case study approach Celebrities in American Elections contends that celebrities have the talent fame and resources to succeed in electoral politics These factors account for the electoral victories of Ronald Reagan Clint Eastwood Fred Grandy Sonny Bono Jesse Ventura Arnold Schwarzenegger Al Franken and Donald Trump However the author argues that these items are insufficient without a favorable political environment as many celebrities have lost elections as have won them They lose because their persona does not match the politics of their time or they represent the minority party in a one party dominated district or state or they advocate for unpopular policies Among those that won nearly half were elected by a plurality not a majority of voters This does not suggest overwhelming public support for celebrity candidates despite their many advantages With a few exceptions celebrities that won tended to also win the fundraising battle while celebrities that lost tended to raise less than their opponent the normal laws of politics still apply The celebrity factor while helpful does not fully explain why celebrities win or lose elections      Science Fiction Film Directors, 1895-1998 Dennis Fischer, 2011-07-01 This enormous and exhaustive reference book has entries on every major and minor director of science fiction films from the inception of cinema circa 1895 through 1998 For each director there is a complete filmography including television work a career summary a critical assessment and behind the scenes production information Seventy nine directors are covered in especially lengthy entries and a short history of the science fiction film genre is also included      British Film Posters Sim Branaghan, 2019-07-25 The first complete history of illustrated film posters in the UK covers every aspect of design printing and display from the Victorian era to the arrival of Desktop Publishing in the 1980s British Film Posters examines the contribution vintage film posters have made to British popular art of the 20th century      Film Histories Paul Grainge, 2007-01-11 An introduction to film history this anthology covers the history of film from 1895 It is arranged
