Meyer, 1994

From the late eighteenth through the early twentieth centuries a sweeping movement in architectural and decorative taste dominated Western cultures Known collectively by the descriptive term Revival Styles this phenomenon which left a rich visual legacy upon the cultural landscapes of many nations exhibited three primary manifestations Classical chiefly Greek and Roman Gothic or Medieval and Egyptian or Near Eastern In America for a variety of reasons a significantly large amount of the creative energy inherent in the Revival movement was directed towards the conception and erection of spectacular monuments and memorials to prominent Americans Frequently designed and executed by the leading architects and sculptors of the day the great majority of these strikingly beautiful artifacts and structures were placed in the large rural cemeteries of American cities developed in the middle decades of the nineteenth century where they remain for future generations to analyze and admire In this richly illustrated volume art historian Peggy McDowell and folklorist Richard E Meyer blend their respective disciplinary perspectives along with their shared long standing fascination with cemeteries and funerary material culture to provide a thoroughgoing descriptive analysis of this dramatic chapter in the history of American memorial art BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Corpse Christine Quigley, 2015-09-17 Throughout the centuries different cultures have established a variety of procedures for handling and disposing of corpses Often the methods are directly associated with the deceased's position in life such as a pharaoh's mummification in Egypt or the cremation of a Buddhist Treatment by the living of the dead over time and across cultures is the focus of this study Burial arrangements and preparations are detailed including embalming the funeral service storage and transport of the body and forms of burial Autopsies and the investigative process of causes of deliberate death are fully covered Preservation techniques such as cryonic suspension and mummification are discussed as well as a look at the recycling of the corpse through organ donation donation to medicine animal scavengers cannibalism and of course natural decay and decomposition Mistreatments of a corpse are also covered Carried to the Wall Kristin Ann Hass, 2023-04-28 On May 9 1990 a bottle of Jack Daniels a ring with letter A Purple Heart and Bronze Star a baseball a photo album an ace of spades and a pie were some of the objects left at the Vietnam Veterans War Memorial For Kristin Hass this eclectic sampling represents an attempt by ordinary Americans to come to terms with a multitude of unnamed losses as well as to take part in the ongoing debate of how this war should be remembered Hass explores the restless memory of the Vietnam War and an American public still grappling with its commemoration In doing so it considers the ways Americans have struggled to renegotiate the meanings of national identity patriotism community and the place of the soldier in the aftermath of a war that ruptured the ways in which all of these things have been traditionally defined Hass contextualizes her study of this phenomenon within the history of American funerary traditions in particular non Anglo traditions in which material offerings are common the history of war memorials and the changing symbolic meaning of war Her evocative analysis of the site itself illustrates and enriches her larger theses regarding the creation of public memory and the problem of remembering war and the resulting casualties in this case not only 58 000 soldiers but also conceptions of masculinity patriotism and working class pride and idealism On May 9 1990 a bottle of Jack Daniels a ring with letter a Purple Heart and Bronze Star a baseball a photo album an ace of spades and a pie were some of the objects left at the Vietnam Veterans War Memorial For Kristin Hass this eclectic sampli Old Burial Grounds of New Jersey Janice Kohl Sarapin,1994 This illustrated guidebook to New Jersey s old burial grounds is unique not just for New Jersey but for anywhere in America Janice Kohl Sarapin introduces you to the history and lore of old graveyards She shows you how to read epitaphs how to date gravestones by style how to restore an abandoned graveyard and how to find out the stories of the people buried there She describes more than 120 fascinating old burial grounds throughout the state including the cemeteries of African Americans Jewish communities and other ethnic and religious groups She provides full directions and details about what makes each one special as well as suggestions for planning your visit and for educational activities to use with children and adults

The Family in America Joseph M. Hawes,Elizabeth F. Shores,2002-05-22 An incisive multidisciplinary look at the American family over the past 200 years written by respected scholars and researchers Family in America offers two powerful antidotes to popular misconceptions about American family life historical perspective and scientific objectivity When we look back at our early history we discover that the idealized 1950s family characterized by a rising birthrate a stable divorce rate and a declining age of marriage was a historical aberration out of line with long term historical trends Working mothers we learn are not a 20th century invention most families throughout American history have needed more than one breadwinner In the exciting new scholarship described here readers will learn precisely what is new in American family life and what is not and acquire the perspective they need to appreciate both the genuine improvements and the losses that come with change Panati's Extraordinary Endings of Practically Everything and Everybody Charles
