In the wake of the recognition of the Whanganui River in New Zealand the Ganges and Yamuna Rivers in India the Yarra River in Australia and the Atrato River in Colombia as subjects of rights the International Observatory on Nature's Rights has initiated a reflection on the possibility of recognizing the St. Lawrence River the path that walks as it is called by the First Nations as a legal person. The texts in this collective work deal with the implications of attributing a legal personhood and rights to the St. Lawrence River delving into the epistemological foundations of the paradigm of the recognition of the rights of Nature and present concrete cases of recognition of rivers as subjects of law. Written by experts from several countries where the recognition of the legal personhood of rivers has occurred to date they take an in-depth look at the challenges and contributions of this paradigm shift in river protection. This book answers questions about the implications of such recognition and contributes to the process of building a new law that has just begun in Quebec and Canada with the adoption in February 2021 of resolutions conferring the status of legal person on the Magpie Muteshekau Shipu River located on the North Shore of Quebec and on the Nitassinan ancestral territory of two Innu communities Ekuanitshit and Uashat mak Mani utemam Contributions In's Bennada David Cordero Heredia Teresa Vicente Gimenez Stratgies Saint Laurent Isabelle Delainey Uapukun Mestokosho Sylvain Gaudreault Andrew Galliano Nathalia Parra Bianca De Marchi Moyano Hugo Muñoz Dana Espinoza Erin O'Donnell Brett Dawson Shrishtee Bajpai Rebecca P.
