John Arden Writers Their Work S:

Arden (Routledge Revivals) Albert Hunt, 2014-06-17 John Arden was one of the major playwrights to have emerged during the 1950s yet his work has arguably been misunderstood In this book first published in 1974 Albert Hunt's primary concern is to relate the plays written by John Arden alone as well as those written in collaboration with Margaretta D Arcy both to Arden's whole concept of theatre and to his social and political attitudes The book begins with a biographical introduction followed by a play by play study of Arden's work and a survey of the impact of his plays in performance alongside fascinating images Celebrating the work and life of the playwright this timely reissue will be of particular value to students of theatre studies as well as professional actors with an interest in John Arden's plays and theatrical ideologies Irish Women's

Prison Writing Red Washburn, 2022-11-16 This book explores 50 years of Irish women's prison writing 1960s 2010s connecting the work of women leaders and writers in Northern Ireland during the Troubles This volume analyzes political communiqués petitions news coverage prison files personal letters poetry and short prose and memoirs highlighting the personal correspondence auto biographical narratives and poetry of the following key women Bernadette McAliskey Eileen Hickey Mairead Farrell Seán Darragh Ella O'Dwyer Martina Anderson Dolours Price Marian McGlinchey formerly Marian Price and Eibhlín Ní Giolla Easpaig Ann and Eileen Gillespie Roseleen Walsh and Margaretta D Arcy This text builds on different fields and discourses to reimagine gender and genre as central to an interdisciplinary and intersectional prison archive Centering Irish women's prison writings in order to challenge canonization in history and literature this volume argues that women's lives and words offer a different view of gender and nation as well as offer a fuller and more inclusive archive of Irish history and literature Additionally this book will point to the ways in which their politics of everyday life and their cultural work is a form of anti colonial civil rights feminism for it speaks truth to power in a world in which compliance and silence are valued Overall this text focuses on rethinking and recasting women's voices and words in order to document and promote the ongoing Irish freedom struggle from an abolitionist feminist perspective Encyclopedia of British Writers

Christine L. Krueger, 2014-07 This concise encyclopedic reference profiles more than 800 British poets The Empire DC Moore, 2010-08-10 Patch you up all nice like splint bandage your leg All very civilized actually But then Then We hand you over Helmand in the height of summer Gary a British soldier and Hafizullah his Afghan colleague guard an injured young prisoner Zia found in the heat of battle Gary wants answers Hafizullah just wants to make it through the day and Zia thinks there has been a big mistake Surrounded by intense heat and violence the characters' moral codes are tested to the limit DC Moore's second play dissects the politics of occupation home and abroad With both painful and witty insight he explores some of the lengths humanity is stretched to under the circumstances of war The strong characterisation enjoys a healthy dose of humanity and the politically charged subject is handled with subtlety and atypical nuances The Empire is an amusing and sometime shocking insight into life in the Afghanistan war A Miracle Molly Davies, 2014-03-10 A programme text edition published to coincide with the world premiere at the Royal Court Theatre London on 27 February 2009 Take one baby and a mother who s not sure if she s ready Add a soldier returned from war and a grandmother holding the fort Mix in a landscape of flatness and a pinch of violence in the countryside and maybe just maybe you ll get a miracle A play about wanting a better life Stages in the Revolution Catherine Itzin,2021-09-05 This book first published in 1980 is a comprehensive study of the radical theatre movement in Britain from 1968 to 1978 The essays are based on first hand interviews with each section being introduced with a summary of key events before detailing the artists under examination

Modern British Women Writers Vicki K. Janik,Del Ivan Janik,2002-11-30 The 20th century witnessed several major cultural movements including modernism anti modernism and postmodernism These and other means of understanding and perceiving the world shaped the literature of that era and with the rise of feminism resulted in a particularly rich body of literature by women writers This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 British women writers of the 20th century Some of these writers were born in England while others such as Katherine Mansfield and Doris Lessing came from countries of the former Empire or Commonwealth The volume also includes entries for women of color such as Kamala Markandaya and Buchi Emecheta Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes an overview of the writer s background an analysis of her works an assessment of her achievements and lists of primary and secondary sources The volume closes with a selected general bibliography , About Friel Tony Coult,2011-11-17 This series contains what no other study guides can offer extensive first hand interviews with the playwrights and their closest collaborators on all of their major work put together by top academics especially for the modern student market As well as invaluable synopses biographical essays and chronologies these guides allow the student much closer to the playwright than ever before In About Friel teacher and playwright Tony Coult has selected an extensive and stimulating range of documents and interview material that explores Friel s life work and the experiences of his collaborators and fellow artists who put that work on stage including Patrick Mason Connall Morrison Joe Dowling and actors Catherine Byrne and Mark Lambert If you want to read just one book on Brian Friel and the titanic power of his work this is it Grammars, Grammarians and Grammar-Writing in Eighteenth-Century England Ingrid Tieken-Boon van Ostade,2008-08-27 The book offers insight into the publication history of eighteenth century English grammars in unprecedented detail It is based on a close analysis of various types of relevant information Alston s bibliography of 1965 showing that this source needs to be revised urgently the recently published online database Eighteenth Century Collections Online ECCO with respect to sources of information never previously explored or analysed such as book catalogues and library catalogues Carol Percy s database on the reception of eighteenth century grammars in contemporary periodical reviews and so called precept corpora containing data on the treatment in a large variety of grammars and other works of individual grammatical constructions By focussing on individual grammars and their history a number of long standing questions are solved with respect to the authorship of particular grammars and related work the Brightland Gildon grammar and the Bellum Grammaticale Ann Fisher's grammar while new questions are identified such as the significant change of approach between the publication of one grammar and its second edition of seven years later Priestley and the dependence of later practical grammars for mothers and their children on earlier publications. The contributions present a view of the grammarians as individuals with or without specific qualifications for undertaking what they did with their own ideas on teaching methodology and as writers ultimately engaged in the common aim presenting practical grammars of English to the general public. Interestingly and importantly this collection of articles demonstrates the potential of ECCO as a resource for further research in the field.

 Supporters: 'Forget this country! How many years have you lived here? Your English is better than the Queen's and they still call you When Kayode's election campaign for a seat in parliament fails the Nigerian born MP falls into a pit of depression. Angry and confused he blames his loss on his ethnicity despite being beaten by another black candidate. His subsequent remarks to the press force him into hiding. Disgraced and according to his friend in need of a holiday he returns to his native Nigeria hoping to escape politics. But here he meets his adopted brother who is deeply involved in the corrupt politics of his homeland. Kayode's determination to change things emerges with fierce vehemence as he becomes dangerously involved in a political power struggle. Bola Agbaje's satirical new play questions our notion of home. It examines what it is to be both a British and African citizen and what happens when corruption in the two nations seems impossible to overcome.

Ingredient X Nick Grosso, 2014-03-10
 I've always said I'll stop just as soon as The X Factor stops. The X Factor stops. I stop. That's the deal. It's Saturday night and the judges are gathering for their prime time slot feeding the nation their weekly fix. Except the harshest critics are sitting on your sofa and the mute button doesn't seem to work. Frank, a recovering drug addict, Katie, his long suffering wife and Rosanna, their next door neighbour and X Factor addict gather for tv and dinner on a Saturday night. The evening begins with football and banter but it soon descends into arguments and revelations. While Frank is a newly recovered addict battling with both his recovery and the suspicions of others, Rosanna festers in resentment against her husband who prioritised cocaine over family. Deanne is an alcoholic and Katie is simply addicted to addicts themselves. Written by Nick Grosso, the author of hit plays including Kosher, Harry and Real Classy Affair, this character driven play is full of piercing dark humour and veils uncompromising truths behind quick fire banter. Portraying the devastating effects of addiction on lives and relationships, the characters must try to cope and carry on in the face of addictive lures. Ingredient X is a tough abrasive new comedy exploring the dynamics of different types of addiction in modern life from The X Factor to Class A drugs.

Off the Endz Bola Agbaje, 2014-02-14
 My future is here. My aim is clear and simple. I want out. I wanna be rich. I'm not gonna pretend it's anything more than that and I want it now. David

Kojo and Sharon grew up on a London estate Now in their mid 20s they re eyeing another kind of life But how do you choose the right path when temptation lies around every corner If your emotional or financial debt is sky high how do you buy your way out Bola Agbaje s smart savvy second play for the Royal Court asks whether being out of the system might be just as good as being in it Her characters struggle to ignore the pull of lawless gain and in their newly respectable adult lives find it hard to move away from a background which both haunts them and entices them back Agbaje s characteristically energetic vibrant dialogue captures the dynamic rhythm of spoken language and she portrays an under represented slice of society with skill and compassion

Over There Mark Ravenhill,2010-07-13 A programme text edition published to coincide with the world premiere at the Royal Court Theatre London on 25 February 2009 I found you You re here And I was over there But now I m over here I m here You re my brother I love you When Franz s mother escaped to the West with one of her identical twin boys she left the other behind Now 25 years later Karl crosses the border in search of his other half As history takes an unexpected turn the brothers must struggle to reconnect Mark Ravenhill s visceral new play examines the hungers released when two countries separated by a common language meet again

The Making of Theatrical Reputations Yael Zarhy-Levo,2008-04-21 Today s successful plays and playwrights achieve their prominence not simply because of their intrinsic merit but because of the work of mediators who influence the whole trajectory of a playwright s or a theatre company s career Critics and academic writers are primarily considered the makers of reputations but funding organizations and various media agents as well as artistic directors producers and directors also pursue separate agendas in shaping the reputations of theatrical works In The Making of Theatrical Reputations Yael Zarhy Levo demonstrates the processes through which these mediatory practices by key authority figures situate theatrical companies and playwrights within cultural and historical memory To reveal how these authorizing powers that be promote theatrical events companies and playwrights Zarhy Levo presents four detailed case studies that reflect various angles of the modern London theatre In the case of the English Stage Company s production of John Osborne s Look Back in Anger she centers on a specific event She then focuses on the trajectory of a single company the Theatre Workshop particularly through its first decade at the Theatre Royal Stratford East London Next she explores the career of the dramatist John Arden especially its first ten years in part drawing upon an interview with Arden and his wife actress and playwright Margaretta D Arcy before turning to her fourth study the playwright Harold Pinter s shifting reputation throughout the different phases of his career Zarhy Levo s accounts of these theatrical events companies and playwrights through the prism of mediation bring fresh insights to these landmark productions and their creators
