and the Making of Constable Country Stephens Daniels,     John Constable Anthony Bailey, 2012-03-31 Born in 1776 in East Anglia near the river Stour John Constable was destined for his father's business of milling and grain shipping But he was obdurately opposed to this and persuaded his family he should become an artist instead In the same determined spirit he wooed Maria Bicknell in the teeth of opposition from her formidable grandfather and persisted in painting landscapes at a time when history paintings and portraits were the fashion Sometimes sharp and sarcastic and often depressed Constable in fact possessed a warm gift for intimate friendship This is revealed in his letters to John Dunthorne village handyman and housepainter and to his best friend and patron archdeacon John Fisher to whom he wrote I have a kingdom of my own both fertile and populous my landscape and my children In recent times after a period of relative ignominy Constable's influence on British landscape painting has been re acknowledged he has been more widely exhibited and his reputation has been reestablished as one of the masters of his genre This important and absorbing biography explores his life and work and highlights the dramatic tension between the two     John Constable, R.A. Robert George Windsor-Clive earl of
