Conflict and Concord Christopher Isike,Efe Mary Isike,2022-05-10 The book is a response to the dominant discourse of South Africa as unwelcoming to African immigrants Acknowledging the reality of xenophobia against African migrants in South Africa it explores the positive spaces of interactions between South Africans and African migrants that do not necessarily result in tension Hence the book is about conviviality cohabitation interdependency and the production of a multicultural rainbow nation South Africa its constitution and representation as a multicultural society is the perfect context to experiment with the ideas in the book Part of the objectives is therefore to demonstrate as contained in the title the ambivalence of this relationship which the popular discourse of xenophobia has silenced Living on the Margins ,1995

The Constitutionalization of Human Rights Law Stephen Meili,2022-08-25 The Constitutionalization of Human Rights Law analyses how lawyers representing refugees use human rights provisions in national constitutions to close the gap between the Law and it s implementation Focusing on five countries Colombia Mexico South Africa Uganda the United States the book examines how lawyers adapt creatively to social political and legal contexts Many refugee receiving states openly reject or passively ignore their obligation under international law to protect refugees For this reason cause lawyers those who use the law to empower others have turned to constitutionalized human rights law While many countries likely included such provisions in their constitutions without intending to fulfil their commitments cause lawyers have seized on them as a more enforceable means of rights protection This book theorizes a continuum of ever more ambitious methods through which cause lawyers use constitutionalized human rights law to benefit refugees Lawyers use different tools as they move along this continuum including strategic litigation training governmental officials in the applicable law and various forms of informal advocacy It makes important contributions to three strands of socio legal literature As to the effectiveness of human rights treaties it provides qualitative evidence of how such treaties achieve greater significance when incorporated into national constitutions As to refugee law it analyses how international protections for refugees become stronger when domestic lawyers enforce them through national constitutions And as to cause lawyering it shows how refugee lawyers use constitutionalized human rights law to protect their clients Realising Socio-Economic Rights of Refugees and
