Interfaith Advocacy Katherine E. Knutson, 2014-02-05 Using the historic Minnesota state government shutdown of 2011 as a backdrop Interfaith Advocacy describes the work of the Joint Religious Legislative Coalition an interfaith advocacy group that brings together leaders from Catholic Protestant Jewish and Muslim traditions to advocate on behalf of a range of policies As the nation's first statewide interfaith lobbying group the story of the JRLC facilitates an examination of the role of political advocacy groups in state level American politics what they are how and why they form how they mobilize citizens to participate in the political process how they work to influence government and what their impact is on American democracy With research based on two years of in depth interviews participant observation and analysis of archival records this volume offers proof that it is possible to build successful long term political coalitions among improbable allies The book investigates both the strengths and weaknesses of this model of advocacy and concludes that the presence of religious advocacy groups in the political process offers substantial benefits of representation concern for underrepresented issues and groups and the development of networks of social capital Interfaith Advocacy is grounded in the theoretical literature of political science but also accessible to all readers who have an interest in political advocacy state politics or religion and politics The Oxford Handbook of Irish Politics David M. Farrell,Niamh Hardiman,2021 This andbook provides the most comprehensive coverage of Irish politics and society to date and is the go to resource for academics students policy makers and journalists Lobbying

Reconsidered Gary Andres,Paul Hernnson,2015-11-17 Lobbying Reconsidered Politics Under the Influence reveals how lobbying is a complex process that involves more than just relationships friends access favors and influence This book offers a broader perspective on this important dimension of American public policymaking As a person who straddles the worlds of Washington insider and interest group scholar author Gary Andres hopes to use his experience and insight in in the lobbying world to help readers navigate beyond the conventional wisdom and guide them to a deeper broader understanding

Political Communication in the Republic of Ireland Mark O'Brien,Donnacha Ó Beacháin,2014 Brings together academics and practitioners to present an overview of the development and current shape of political communication in the Republic of Ireland from a multiplicity of perspectives and sources The Ethical Spirit of EU Values Markus Frischhut,2022-09-14 This open access book summarising the research conducted at this Jean Monnet Chair seeks to identify the ethical spirit of European Union EU values EU integration began at the economic level human rights were only added at a later stage Finally the Lisbon Treaty turned the EU into a Union of values by enshrining certain concepts in Art 2 TEU This provision can be seen as a hub linked to various other provisions of EU primary and secondary law The values contained therein have amongst others been applied to two areas digitalisation and non financial reporting partly in sports and further specified in others health and partly in sports This book analyses the evolution of values ratione temporis and the questions of who is entitled and who is obliged ratione personae Besides the external perspective ratione limitis e g Brexit it focuses on the composition of the EU s common values ratione materiae As Art 2 TEU can be viewed as a hub it is essential to focus on various relations not only between values but also between values and other provisions of EU law as well as other concepts Based on this description of the status quo the book subsequently addresses a possible future direction arguing for an additional narrative trust an additional value environmental protection and a more communitarian Union In closing apart from the classical commitment of the EU and the Member States to uphold the values of the EU the book discusses the level of individuals and values as virtues Various figures and tables complement this overview of the status quo of the Union of values and outline of its future direction

Mediation in the Yugoslav Wars S. Touval, 2001-11-28 Has any good come out of the efforts to mediate the conflicts in the former Yugoslavia The short answer is Yes but Mediation has brought about agreements that halted the fighting in Slovenia Croatia and Bosnia Yet the negotiations took too long and their achievements came too late Between 1991 and 1995 some two hundred thousand people lost their lives and close to two million were uprooted from their homes Saadia Touval examines why the efforts to reach a negotiated solution have not been more effective He calls attention to two lessons that collective mediation faces much greater obstacles than mediation by individual states and that a mediator's priority should be saving lives rather than aiming at other objectives or even pursuing justice
