China-US Great-Power Rivalry Lai-Ha Chan, Pak K. Lee, 2024-04-19 This edited volume examines the competitive dynamics of two order building projects in the Indo Pacific namely China's Belt and Road Initiative BRI and the US led Free and Open Indo Pacific FOIP Foci are on how far the two major powers are able to use institutional projects to re order the region of the Indo Pacific to suit their policy preferences and on how regional powers perceive and navigate between the two ordering projects This book discusses a wide array of actors in the Indo Pacific covering the two major powers of China and the United States middle powers of Australia and New Zealand India Japan South Korea and Taiwan and institutional actors of ASEAN AUKUS the Quad and the Pacific Islands Forum Drawing on the concept of international order the chapters examine the actor specific foreign policies in relation to the rivalry between the

FOIP and the BRI This accessible book will be a go to resource for anyone looking for how the two great powers garner legitimacy and followership for their own version of ordering project and how regional powers respond to the dynamic competition and navigate between China and the United States and between the forces of liberal democracy and autocracy

Thriving on Our Changing Planet National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Space Studies Board, Committee on the Decadal Survey for Earth Science and Applications from Space, 2019-01-20 We live on a dynamic Earth shaped by both natural processes and the impacts of humans on their environment It is in our collective interest to observe and understand our planet and to predict future behavior to the extent possible in order to effectively manage resources successfully respond to threats from natural and human induced environmental change and capitalize on the opportunities social economic security and more that such knowledge can bring By continuously monitoring and exploring Earth developing a deep understanding of its evolving behavior and characterizing the processes that shape and reshape the environment in which we live we not only advance knowledge and basic discovery about our planet but we further develop the foundation upon which benefits to society are built Thriving on Our Changing Planet presents prioritized science applications and observations along with related strategic and programmatic guidance to support the U S civil space Earth observation program over the coming decade Hillary Rising James D. Boys, 2016-01-26 On 12 April 2015 Hillary Clinton formally announced her intention to run for President in 2016 casting herself as the champion of everyday Americans With near universal name recognition and the promise to make history as the first female occupant of the Oval Office all seems set for Hillary to secure the one role that has eluded her to date but what drives this most intriguing and polarising of political figures Will she be able to shake off her past mistakes and finally secure the Democratic Party's nomination What are her chances of winning the White House And perhaps more importantly what kind of President would she make Drawing on original interviews with close associates of both Bill and Hillary as well as a wealth of recently declassified materials from the Clinton archive James D Boys offers a clear sighted non partisan analysis of Hillary's rise to the pinnacle of American power revealing the political ideology and core principles that have remained a constant throughout A Region of Regimes T. J. Pempel, 2021-09-15 A Region of Regimes traces the relationship between politics and economics power and prosperity in the Asia Pacific in the decades since the Second World War This book complicates familiar and incomplete narratives of the Asian economic miracle to show radically different paths leading to high growth for many but abject failure for some T J Pempel analyzes policies and data from ten East Asian countries categorizing them into three distinct regime types each historically contingent and the product of specific configurations of domestic institutions socio economic resources and external support Pempel identifies Japan Korea and Taiwan as developmental regimes showing how each then diverged due to domestic and international forces North Korea Myanmar and the Philippines under Marcos comprise rapacious regimes in this analysis while Malaysia Indonesia and

Thailand form ersatz developmental regimes Uniquely China emerges as an evolving hybrid of all three regime types A Region of Regimes concludes by showing how the shifting interactions of these regimes have profoundly shaped the Asia Pacific region and the globe across the postwar era Army-Navy-Air Force Register and Defense Times ,1920

Congressional Record United States. Congress,1943 Startup Capitalism Robyn Klingler-Vidra,Ramon Pacheco Pardo,2025-04-15 In Startup Capitalism Robyn Klingler Vidra and Ramon Pacheco Pardo explore the place of startups in contemporary East Asian economies The last few decades have seen East Asian governments provide increasing support for startups new high growth technologically oriented firms Yet as the authors observe such initiatives do not necessarily benefit the growth of startups as challengers to large established firms Rather they often enable startups to function as boosters for the competitiveness of these firms Startups in short are both disruptors to and resources for big businesses Klingler Vidra and Pacheco Pardo demonstrate this dual role by examining the evolution of startup centric policies in Japan South Korea Taiwan and China They show that in the region what they call startup capitalism an economic and political system in which startups contribute to employment innovation and growth can take multiple forms Rich with empirical detail Startup Capitalism reveals how and why startups can end up working with or even for large firms to drive a country s technological capabilities The Rise and Fall of Political Orders Richard Ned Lebow,2018-09-13 Presents a new theory of the rise evolution decline and collapse of political orders exploring the impact of late modernity upon the survival of democratic and authoritarian regimes Choice ,2006-09 Department of Energy Fiscal Years 1980-81 Authorization (civilian Applications) United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Energy and Natural Resources. Subcommittee on Energy Research and Development,1980 Who does UK national strategy? Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Public Administration Select Committee,2010-10-18 A lack of strategic thinking at the heart of Government threatens the UK s national interests the Public Administration Committee warns The MPs note Whitehall s tendency to muddle through and point to the UK s military engagements in Iraq and Afghanistan as examples where there has been a lack of overarching strategy The report says clear strategic leadership is indispensable to advance British interests in an increasingly fast changing world But it raises serious concerns about Whitehall s capacity to support the Foreign Secretary s aspiration to extend the UK s global reach and influence with the necessary strategic analysis and assessment This applies particularly to the Government s Strategic Defence and Security Review and the MPs question how far this can actually be strategic The Committee calls for ministers to invest more time and energy into strategic leadership the creation of a community of strategic thinkers across Whitehall to provide ministers with the capacity for strategic analysis and assessment the National Security Council s remit to encompass national strategy greater emphasis to be placed on strategic studies and training both within Whitehall and in academia Parliament s Joint Committee on National Security Strategy to extend its remit to include national strategy a small central budget to be established to fund central coordination of departmental contributions to
