Logic Of Images Essays And Conversations:

The Logic of Images Wim Wenders, 1992 This book is the companion volume to Emotion Pictures In the book Wenders moves from a contemplation of pure cinema to a consideration and analysis of his own films Beginning with the question Why do you make films Wenders expresses his own unique approach to cinema Reorienting Ozu Jinhee Choi, 2018

Considered by many film critics and scholars as a master of Japanese Cinema director Ozu Yasujiro still inspires filmmakers both within and outside of Japan With fifteen never before published chapters in English by contributors from North America Europe and Japan Reorienting Ozu explores the Japanese director's oeuvre and his lasting impact on global art cinema Exploring major theoretical frameworks that characterize Ozu studies chapters consider the various cultural factors that influenced the director's cinematic output such as the anxiety of middleclass Japan in the 1930s the censorship imposed by the US occupation after World War II and women's rights in Ozu's late work such as Tokyo Twilight 1957 Ultimately chapters illuminate Ozu's influence on the directors of Japan and beyond With the recent restoration and re release of Ozu's early and late films this volume provides an opportunity to examine not only the auteur's major works but also the relationships both cultural and aesthetic that are forged among directors across the world Coral and Concrete Greg Dvorak, 2018-11-30

Coral and Concrete Greg Dvorak's cross cultural history of Kwajalein Atoll Marshall Islands explores intersections of environment identity empire and memory in the largest inhabited coral atoll on earth Approaching the multiple atollscapes of Kwajalein's past and present as Marshallese ancestral land Japanese colonial outpost Pacific War battlefield American weapons testing base and an enduring home for many Dvorak delves into personal narratives and collective mythologies from contradictory vantage points He navigates the tensions between little stories of ordinary human actors and big stories of global politics drawing upon the little metaphor of the coral organisms that colonize and build atolls and the big metaphor of the all encompassing concrete that buries and co opts the past Building upon the growing body of literature about militarism and decolonization in Oceania this book advocates a layered nuanced approach that emphasizes the multiplicity and contradictions of Pacific Islands histories as an antidote to American hegemony and globalization within and beyond the region It also brings Japanese Korean Okinawan and American perspectives into conversation with Micronesians recollections of colonialism and war This transnational history built upon a combination of reflective personal narrative ethnography cultural studies and postcolonial studies thus resituates Kwajalein Atoll as a pivotal site where Islanders have not only thrived for thousands of years but also mediated between East and West shaping crucial world events Based on multi sited ethnographic and archival research as well as Dvorak's own experiences growing up between Kwajalein the United States and Japan Coral and Concrete integrates narrative and imagery with semiotic analysis of photographs maps films and music traversing colonial tropical fantasies tales of victory and defeat missile testing fisheries war bereavement rituals and landowner resistance movements from the twentieth century through the present day Representing history as a perennial struggle between coral and concrete the book offers an Oceanian paradigm for decolonization resistance solidarity and optimism that should appeal to all readers far beyond the Marshall Islands

Adapting Nathaniel Hawthorne to the Screen Laurence Raw, 2008 Raw explains how some filmmakers have tackled the difficulty of Hawthorne's material by treating it as being firmly situated in American life of the mid nineteenth century while others have used Hawthorne's work to comment on various aspects of twentieth century American life This latter device is particularly evident in the many versions of The Scarlet Letter including a 1950 television broadcast that aired two months after senator Joseph McCarthy's speech about card carrying members of the Communist Party and 1960s and early 70s versions supporting countercultural values

Seeing and Making in Architecture Taiji Miyasaka, 2013-08-22 You always aim to achieve that moment of insight that leads to ingenuity and novelty in your design but sometimes it remains elusive This book presents a variety of techniques for mapping and making hands on design build projects and relates this work to real architecture It helps you to learn new ways of seeing and making that will enhance your creative design process and enable you to experience moments that lead to ingenuity in design Each of the book's two parts Seeing and Making is organized according to technique which ranges from quantitative analysis and abstraction to pattern and scale to provide you with a framework for mapping and hands on exercises Interviews with architects Yoshiharu Tsukamoto Atelier Bow Wow and Jesse Reiser and Nanako Umemoto Reiser Umemoto give you perspective on using these exercises in practice

The Cinema of Wim Wenders Roger F. Cook, Gerd Gemünden, 1997 The Cinema of Wim Wenders the first anthology of scholarly work on Wenders is a unique anthropology of source materials and selected critical essays on the films of Wim Wenders a major filmmaker in the so called New German Cinema movement His work probably more than that of any other European director reflects the tension between the European auteur tradition and the increasing dominance of the American media industry In both his filmmaking and his critical writing he explores how the relationship between image and narrative manifests the basic opposition between these two film traditions This book serves as an introduction to the central concerns of his cinema while situating his work within German film history and the contemporary debates about postmodern film and media theory

The Films of Wim Wenders Robert Phillip Kolker, Peter Beicken, 1993-01-29 The authors trace the development of one of the most well known directors of the New German Cinema that flourished in the 1970s and early 1980s Examining Wim Wenders' career from his early film school productions through his mature works of the 1970s this book also analyses the most recent works as well as the themes and preoccupations that unite his oeuvre As the authors note Wenders' works have been profoundly influenced by American films especially the road movie genre His own work often features characters who are always on the move in an attempt to capture a glimpse of their identity and place in the world They also represent a generation of postwar Germans seeking to redeem themselves and the history of their country by turning to American popular culture particularly its music and movies

Narrative Across Media Marie-Laure Ryan, James Ruppert, John W. Bernet, 2004-01-01 Narratology has been conceived from its earliest days as a project that transcends disciplines and media The essays gathered here address the question of how narrative migrates mutates and creates meaning as it is expressed across various media Dividing the inquiry into five areas face to face narrative still pictures moving pictures music and digital media Narrative across Media investigates how the intrinsic properties of the supporting medium shape the form of narrative and affect the narrative experience Unlike other interdisciplinary approaches to narrative studies all of which have tended to concentrate on narrative across language supported fields this unique collection provides a much needed analysis of how narrative operates when expressed through visual gestural electronic and musical means In doing so the collection redefines the act of storytelling Although the fields of media and narrative studies have been invigorated by a variety of theoretical approaches this volume seeks to avoid a dominant theoretical bias by providing instead a collection of concrete studies that inspire a direct look at texts rather than relying on a particular theory of interpretation A contribution to both narrative and media studies Narrative across Media is the first attempt to bridge the two disciplines

Responding to Loss

Robert Mugerauer, 2014-10-15 Much recent philosophical work proposes to illuminate dilemmas of human existence with reference to the arts and culture often to the point of submitting particular works to preconceived formulations In this examination of three texts that respond to loss Robert Mugerauer responds with close detailed readings that seek to clarify the particularity of the intense force such works bring forth Mugerauer shows how in the face of what is irrevocably taken away as well as of what continues to be given the unavoidable task of interpretation is ours alone Mugerauer examines works in three different forms that powerfully call on us to respond to loss Cormac McCarthy s The Crossing Daniel Libeskind s Jewish Museum Berlin and Wim Wenders s film Wings of Desire Explicating these difficult but rich works with reference to the thought of Martin Heidegger Jean Luc Marion Hannah Arendt and Emmanuel Levinas the author helps us to experience the multiple and diverse ways in which all of us are opened to the saturated phenomena of loss violence witnessing and responsibility

East Asian-German Cinema Joanne Miyang Cho, 2021-09-29 This is the first edited volume dedicated to the study of East Asian German cinema Its coverage ranges from 1919 to the present a period which has witnessed an unprecedented degree of global entanglement between Germany and East Asia In analyzing this hybrid cinema this volume employs a transnational approach which highlights the nations cinematic encounters and entanglements It reveals both German perceptions of East Asia and East Asian perceptions of Germany through analysis of works by both German directors and East Asian East Asian German directors It is hoped that this volume will not only accelerate cross cultural exchange but also provide a wider perspective that helps film scholars to see the broader contexts in which these films are produced It introduces multiple compelling topics not just immigration multiculturalism and exile but also Japonisme children s literature musical modernity media hybridity gender representation urban space Cold War divisions and national identity It addresses several genres feature films essay films and documentary films Lastly by embracing three East Asian cinemas in one volume this volume serves as an excellent introduction for German cinema students and scholars It will appeal to international and interdisciplinary audiences as its contributors represent multiple disciplines and four world regions

Myths of Origins

,2024-05-06 The articles in Myths of Origins provide insights into the universality of myths of origins as patterns of literary creation from Antiquity to the present The essays range from an investigation of the six models of beginnings in Western literature to the workings of modern myths of origins in postcolonial literature and relocate the discussion on myths of origin in a wider context that besides the humanities considers linguistics and the impact of new technologies The contributing authors to the volume shed light on issues relating to myths of origins by linking this subject to literary creation and adopting a multidisciplinary approach

Anti-Americanism Richard Higgott,Ivona Malbasic,2008-07-31 Anti Americanism as a concept is confused often used in a contradictory fashion and invariably driven by emotion rather than intellect Nevertheless it casts a long policy shadow with adverse consequences both real and potential for actors including those who may not support the concept This book puts anti Americanism into a contemporary context and analyses some of its political consequences The argument of the book is that ideas matter they shape actions and have policy consequences With the case of anti Americanism even superficial ideas can reflect deep seated emotions that might at first sight appear real These can range from the rhetorical flourish and smart
