The Conley Boys of Montana Jim Blodgett, 2023-04-25 The three Conley boys Jack Jim and Frank were sons of an Irish immigrant family raised along the banks of the Susquehanna River in Maryland After the death of their father when Frank was but 18 months old the family relocated to Carroll Iowa During the same time the newspapers were filled with stories of the U S Army and their campaigns against the combined native tribes in Montana and the Dakota Territories The exciting and dangerous stories which celebrated the lives of those involved was a call to action for all three boys Montana Territory in the 1870 s and 80 s was a hostile environment where road agents horse thieves and bad men infested the roads and towns alike Native tribes were at war with settlers attempting to encroach on their lands and the advent of the railroad brought a new species of troublemakers to towns along the Northern Pacific route Other than a rare visit from one of the few U S Marshals assigned to the territory the presence of lawmen was scarce An unusual responsibility fell upon the few fearless officers whose mission it was to enforce the law and maintain order largely upon the force of their own edicts The job of anyone with a badge was filled with danger A lone officer who would attempt to track down a criminal within the huge expanse of the territory was a fearless man indeed There were many desperate men who thought little of killing anyone out to bring them to justice The more efficient and fearless an officer was the more challenging and dangerous was the job Legendary lawman Tom Irvine became the first elected sheriff of Custer County which included the town of Miles City Irvine was the right man for the thriving and wild town but the awesome and dangerous job of sheriff required deputies with experience tested courage and the confidence to handle whatever problem that came their way Prior to his election as sheriff Irvine worked alongside Jim and Jack Conley when they served as packers and guides for General Nelson Miles during the Indian wars Irvine knew of Jack and Jim Conley's capabilities and was successful in recruiting both as his first deputies Seventeen year old Frank had just arrived in Miles City and had always dreamed of working with his brothers so he approached Irvine for a job Irvine hesitated as he could not recall a deputy as young as Frank in the territory or any of the surrounding territories But then again there had never been brothers quite like the Conley boys Frank was well over six foot at the time had broad shoulders a trim waist powerful build a mature manner and appearance All three of the brothers especially Jim were known as expert marksmen with the pistol rifle and shotgun Jim assured Irvine he would vouch for Frank and be there if needed to look out for him Irvine trusted Jim's judgement If Frank is half the man you and Jack are Jim I believe he would make an excellent lawman Besides there is only one way to find out Sheriff Irvine was not disappointed nor were the other lawmen and communities the Conley boys served over the next forty years Jack and Jim both became effective and respected Sheriff's stock detectives and U S Deputy Marshals Young Frank became one of the longest serving Prison Wardens and city mayors in the United States This is a story based upon real events characters and the lives of three remarkable brothers and lawmen Jack Jim and Frank The Conley boys of Montana

Death on the Lonely Llano Estacado Bill Neal, 2017-07-15 In the winter of 1901 James W Jarrott led a band of twenty five homesteader families toward the Llano Estacado in far West Texas newly opened for settlement by a populist Texas legislature But frontier cattlemen who had been pasturing their herds on the unfenced prairie land were enraged by the encroachment of these nesters In August 1902 a famous hired assassin Jim Miller ambushed and murdered J W Jarrott Who hired Miller This crime has never been solved until now Award winning author Bill Neal investigates this cold case and successfully pieces together all the threads of circumstantial evidence to fit the noose snugly around the neck of Jim Miller's employer. What emerges from these pages is the strength of intriguing characters in an engrossing narrative: Jim Jarrott, the diminutive advocate who fearlessly champions the cause of the little guy; the ruthless and slippery assassin Deacon Jim Miller; and finally Jarrott's young widow Mollie, who perseveres and prospers against great odds and tells the settlers to stay put.

Lone Star 134/great P Wesley Ellis, 1993-10-01. When Jessie and Ki meet a mysterious minister, it's more than their souls that lie in need of saving. Leading Reverend Henry Abrams and his flock across desolate prairie, Jessie and Ki must fight off ambushes and they soon discover that Abrams is in possession of something for which many would kill.

The Retreat Michael Jones, 2009-11-12. At the moment of crisis in 1941, on the Eastern front with the forces of Hitler massing on the outskirts of Moscow, the miraculous occurred: Moscow was saved. Yet this turning point was followed by a long retreat in which Russian forces, inspired by old beliefs in the sacred motherland, pushed back German forces steeled by the vision of the ubermensch, the iron-willed fighter. Many of Russia's 27 million military and civilian deaths occurred in this desperate struggle. In THE RETREAT, Michael Jones, acclaimed author of LENINGRAD, draws upon a mass of new eye-witness testimony from both sides of the conflict to tell, with matchless vividness and comprehensiveness, of the crucial turning point of the Second World War: the moment when the armies of Hitler could go no further and of the titanic and cruel struggle of two mighty empires.
