Everyday Knowledge And Uncommon Truths:

Everyday Knowledge And Uncommon Truths Linda Christian-smith, 2021-11-28 Everyday Knowledge and Uncommon Truths Women of the Academy is a thirteen chapter volume which draws on the life experience and varied backgrounds of academic women from the United States Australia New Zealand and Canada The book addresses a variety of issues pertaining to women s home lives education teaching research writing and activism To provide diverse perspectives on women s experiences of being and knowing in and outside the academy contributors draw on a range of critical approaches derived from feminism poststructuralism postmodernism critical education theory discourse theory and analysis narrative inquiry and life histories Lately there has been considerable interest by women in the academy in a discernment process involving an examination of the historically politically and culturally situated nature of their knowledge of the world their work in the academy and other activities in which they engage These examinations especially in the form of narrative inquiry life histories and deconstructive language practices such as discourse analysis figure prominently in breaking silences and giving voice to the many tensions that women experience in the academic workplace and other settings Race, Women of Color, and the State University System Vivian Yenika-Agbaw, Hidalgo-de-Jesús, Amarilis, 2012-07-10 Race Women of Color and the State University System focuses on challenges women of color experience or have experienced while teaching or pursuing administrative duties within the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education The book systematically examines how women of color administrators faculty and staff cope with the demands of the profession their disciplines the expectations from the system and the isolation that comes with working in institutions and or environments that are predominately all white The book identifies challenges that are unique to the state system although they may be applicable to the academy in general Contributors through their testimonies and shared experiences provide academic tools and strategies to navigate the academy successfully this bridge we call home Gloria Anzaldúa, AnaLouise Keating, 2013-10-18 More than twenty years after the ground breaking anthology This Bridge Called My Back called upon feminists to envision new forms of communities and practices Gloria E Anzaldúa and AnaLouise Keating have painstakingly assembled a new collection of over eighty original writings that offers a bold new vision of women of color consciousness for the twenty first century Written by women and men both of color and white this bridge we call home will challenge readers to rethink existing categories and invent new individual and collective identities Women in Academic Leadership Susan J. Bracken, Jeanie K. Allen, Diane R. Dean, 2023-07-03 Colleges and universities benefit from diversity in their leadership roles and profess to value diversity of thought of experience of person Yet why do women remain under represented in top academic leadership positions and in key positions along the academic career ladder Why don t they advance at a rate proportional to that of their male peers How do internal and external environmental contexts still influence who enters academic leadership and who survives and thrives in those roles Women in Academic Leadership complements its companion volumes in the Women in Academe series provoking readers to think critically about the gendered nature of academic leadership across the spectrum of institutional types. It argues that leadership in the academy and the nexus of academic leadership remain gendered structures steeped in male oriented norms and mores. Blending research and reflection, it explores the barriers and dilemmas that these structures present and the professional strategies and the personal choices women make in order to successfully surmount them. The authors pose questions about how women leaders negotiate between their public and private selves. They consider how women develop a vital sense of self efficacy along with the essential skills and knowledge they need in order to lead effectively, how they cultivate opportunity and how they gain legitimacy and maintain authenticity in a male gendered arena. For those who seek to create an institutional environment conducive to equity and opportunity, this book offers insight into the pervasive barriers facing women of all colors and evidence of the need for a more complex, multi dimensional view of leadership. For women in academe who seek to reach their professional potential and maintain authenticity, it offers encouragement and a myriad of strategies for their growth and development.

Graduate Students' Research about Community Colleges Deborah L. Floyd, Cristobal Salinas Jr., Ethan C. Swingle, María-Jose Zeledón-Pérez, Sim Barhoum, Gianna Ramdin, 2021-05-13. This book brings together a collection of chapters with different research designs that explore the research practice and policies of community colleges. The chapters in this book are the result of the graduate students and their faculty mentors' scholarly work and a rigorous special issue's peer review process. Furthermore, this book offers recommendations on how to mentor graduate students in the absence of research and mentorship, on how to publish for graduate students and practitioner scholars, as well as recognizing that graduate programs and professional associations are important in the socialization of practitioner scholars. Each book chapter addresses the implications for practice and future research, policy for community colleges, and recommendation for change indicated by the research results. Five broad research themes: higher education policy, leadership practices and roles, network, community, student success, and technology emerged from the empirical articles and critical reviews. A final chapter shares advice and lessons learned from the 30 authors and mentors. With the exception of Chapter 14, the chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Community College Journal of Research and Practice.

Intermediality Ladislaus Semali, 2018-02-02. With the ever growing proliferation of electronic and other popular media, the complexity of relationship between what students see and hear, what they believe, and how they interact with one another underscores now more than ever the need for across the curriculum teaching of critical thinking, critical reading, and critical viewing skills. The emerging consensus is that teaching critical viewing skills bolsters students' abilities in traditional disciplines, combats problems of youth apathy, violence, and substance abuse, and improves students' parents' and teachers' attitudes toward school.

Intermediality Teachers Handbook of Critical Media Literacy challenges the practice of teaching the classics and the canon.

of acceptable literary works far removed from students experiences with emphasis on learning environment over the presentation of any specific or specified content The authors Ladislaus Semali and Ann Watts Pailliotet present literacy education as intermedial in nature it entails constructing connections among varying conceptions and sign systems Reading printed texts requires more than simply decoding letters into words or sounds it involves finding meaning motive structure and affect The same goes for reading the electronic text The authors argue for the discourse of literacy to take up a critical stance by examining a whole wide array of texts that form the meaning making process of the looming information age Intermediality examines extends and synthesizes the existing literary definitions texts theories processes research and contexts It brings into focus the possibilities of working with media texts to address questions adapted from linguists and literary educators Thus in this book critical media literacy becomes a competency to read interpret and understand how meaning is made and derived from print photographs and other electronic and graphic visuals

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Continental Philosophy of Education John Baldacchino, Herne Saeverot, 2024-07-11 This handbook is the first reference work to explore and define what continental philosophy of education is or could be and what its boundaries are serving as a point of entry for those who need an overview of the ideas in the field The book includes 34 chapters written by leading scholars based in Belgium Canada China Croatia Cyprus Denmark Finland Germany Hong Kong Iceland Ireland Israel Lithuania the Netherlands Norway New Zealand Sweden Taiwan the UK and the USA It is subdivided into three sections covering the metaphysics ethics and aesthetics of education and the chapters focus on philosophical concepts such as otherness empathy and personhood and problems including political influences on education and the limits of education The contributors discuss a range of continental thinkers and look at how their work has influenced the wider field of philosophy of education

Henri Lefebvre and Education Sue Middleton, 2013-11-07 During his lifetime Henri Lefebvre 1901-1991 was renowned in France as a philosopher sociologist and activist Although he published more than 70 books few were available in English until The Production of Space was translated in 1991 While this work often associated with geography has influenced educational theory's spatial turn educationalists have yet to consider Lefebvre's work more broadly This book engages in an educational reading of the selection of Lefebvre's work that is available in English translation After introducing Lefebvre's life and works the book experiments with his concepts and methods in a series of five spatial histories of educational theories In addition to The Production of Space these studies develop themes from Lefebvre's other translated works Rhythmanalysis The Explosion the three volumes of Critique of Everyday Life and a range of his writings on cities Marxism technology and the bureaucratic state In the course of these inquiries Lefebvre's own passionate interest in education is uncovered his critiques of bureaucratised schooling and universities the analytic concepts he devised to study educational phenomena and his educational methods Throughout the book Middleton demonstrates how Lefebvre's conceptual and methodological tools can enhance the understanding of the spatiotemporal location of educational philosophy and theory Bridging disciplinary divides it will be key reading for researchers and academics studying the philosophy sociology and history of education as well as those working in fields beyond education including geography history cultural studies and sociology Ladies who Lunge Tara Brabazon,2002 Ladies who Lunge Essays on Difficult Women dances through history with the unconventional woman Witty and refreshing the tone texture and feeling of the words on the page are as unconventional as the plucky women who punctuate the prose It is a tough determined moving frank and funny review of difficult women how they got there how we can understand their actions and how we can learn from them The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin (ed),Yvonna S. Lincoln,2005 A thoroughly revised updated edition this volume includes new chapters on auto ethnography critical race theory queer theory testimonies The Value of Knowledge and the Pursuit of Understanding Jonathan L. Kvanvig,2003-08-21 Epistemology has for a long time focused on the concept of knowledge and tried to answer questions such as whether knowledge is possible and how much of it there is Often missing from this inquiry however is a discussion on the value of knowledge In The Value of Knowledge and the Pursuit of Understanding Jonathan Kvanvig argues that epistemology properly conceived cannot ignore the question of the value of knowledge He also questions one of the most fundamental assumptions in epistemology namely that knowledge is always more valuable than the value of its subparts Taking Platos Meno as a starting point of his discussion Kvanvig tackles the different arguments about the value of knowledge and comes to the conclusion that knowledge is less valuable than generally assumed Clearly written and well argued this 2003 book will appeal to students and professionals in epistemology Joanna Baillie, Romantic Dramatist Thomas C. Crochunis,2004-02-24 This superb collection of new essays offers a unique insight into the work of a leading women dramatist of the Romantic era Contributors offer contextual material for those new to Baillie s work examinations of the relationships between her plays and the philosophical and scientific writing of the era discussion of Baillie s theatrical methods extended interpretations of individual plays Ending years of neglect of Baillie s crucial work this volume is essential reading for those working on Romanticism women s writing or drama of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries What is Indigenous Knowledge? Ladislaus M. Semali,Joe L. Kincheloe,2002-09-11 Ladislaus M Semali and Joe L Kincheloe s edited book What is Indigenous Knowledge Voices from the Academy not only exposes the fault lines of modernist grand narratives but also illuminates in a vivid and direct way what it means to come to subjectivity in the margins The international panel of contributors from both industrialized and developing countries led by Semali and Kincheloe injects a dramatic dynamic into the analysis of knowledge production and the rules of scholarship opening new avenues for discussion in education philosophy cultural studies as well as in other important fields The Lover's Seat. Kathemérina Or Common Things in Relation to Beauty, Virtue, and Truth Kenelm Henry Digby,1856 Women of Color in Higher Education Gaëtane Jean-Marie,Brenda Lloyd-Jones,2011-08-31 Focuses on African American Hispanic American Native American and Asian Pacific American women whose increased presence in senior level administrative and academic positions in higher education is transforming the political climate to be more inclusive of women of color Doing the Public Good Kenneth P. Gonzalez, Raymond V. Padilla, 2023-07-03 How can scholars reconnect themselves and their students to higher education's historic but much diluted mission to work for the public good Through the lenses of personal reflection and auto ethnography and drawing on such rich philosophical foundations as the Spanish tradition of higher learning the holistic Aztec concept of education the Hispanic notion of bien educado and the activist principles of the Chicano movement these writers explore the intersections of private and public good and how the tension between them has played out in their own lives and the commitments they have made to their intellectual community and to their cultural and family communities Through often lyrical memoirs reflections and poetry these authors recount their personal journeys and struggles often informed by a spiritual connectedness and always driven by a concern for social justice and show how they have found individual paths to promoting the public good in their classrooms and in the world beyond Contributors include Jennifer Ayala Dolores Delgado Bernal Flora V Rodriguez Brown Kenneth P Gonzales Miguel Guajardo Francisco Guajardo Aida Hurtado Maria A Hurtado Arcelia L Hurtado Raymond V Padilla Caroline Sotello Viernes Turner and Luis Urrieta Jr

Higher Education in the Twenty-First Century Abdulla Y. Al-Hawaj, Wajeeh Elali, E.H. Twizell, 2008-08-04 The skills creativity and research developed through higher education are major factors in any society's success in creating jobs and advancing prosperity Universities and colleges play a vital role in expanding opportunity and promoting social justice The papers in this book reflect the main objective of a conference held in June 2007 at Ahlia Presence Of Mind Pepi Leistyna, 2019-05-20 Taking up the ever shifting cultural and political landscape in the United States Presence of Mind addresses how power manifests itself within and across different social and educational terrain covering a number of contemporary topics and polemics that are central to teaching educational theory and practice Pepi Leistyna argues that it is imperative Defining and Redefining Gender Equity in Education Janice Koch, Beverly Irby, 2002-08-01 In the past 25 years there has been an enormous increase in the amount of research exploring issues of gender and schooling New journals have been established and in the older journals special issues have been devoted to addressing gender equity in education For the editors this has raised some questions and concerns as we organized the topics for this first volume of the Research on Women and Education book series
