Raj Rhapsodies: Tourism, Heritage and the Seduction of History Maxine Weisgrau,Carol Henderson,2016-03-23 Heritage is a prized cultural commodity in the marketing of tourism destinations Particular aspects of heritage are often more actively promoted with others played down The representation of heritage in tourism as static and timeless derived since time immemorial from a distant past is seductive In Asia a major part of the tourism market lies in the sale and consumption of highly orientalized images and versions of culture and history In India s marketing discourse the state of Rajasthan symbolizes the nation in its heritage laden traditional and most authentic form These images draw heavily on the British period in India the Raj In one sense this vision of Rajasthan is ennobling highlighting moments of cultural pride In another sense it demeans by omitting and obscuring salient features of contemporary life This fascinating book explores the cultural politics of tourism through interdisciplinary perspectives Carol E Henderson and Maxine Weisgrau demonstrate that tourism heritage privileges elite histories that recapitulate colonial relationships compelling non elites to collude in these narratives of subordination even as they advance their own alternative visions of history
