The Return of Politics David Hine,Salvatore Vassallo,2000 By the spring of 1998 it had become clear that Italy after considerable effort had succeeded in bringing its public finances into line with the Maastricht parameters for joining the European Monetary Union This was generally viewed as an important success of the Olive Tree coalition government led by Romano Prodi and a sign that Italian political life had become normal Nevertheless the Bicameral Commission which should have fostered a radical constitutional reform with the aim to stabilize and strengthen the bipolar structure of the party system and the majoritarian functioning of democracy in Italy was dismantled in June Moreover in October 1998 the Prodi government suddenly collapsed because of the internal opposition of the Neo Communist wing of its parliamentary majority a further demonstration that the Italian transition towards a more effective democratic rule is far from complete David Hine is Fellow and Senior Censor at Christ Church College Oxford Salvatore Vassallo is senior civil servant in the Emilia Romagna regional government s Institutional Affairs Bureau and Professor of Public Policy Analysis at the University of Trento

The Teacher, Literature and the Mediterranean Simone Galea, Adrian Grima, 2014-11-26 At a time when the Mediterranean has rediscovered its own vitality seven academics from the fields of education and literature look at how fictions set in the region narrate the role of the teacher from the point of view of the students and from that of the teachers themselves While an increasingly technocratic approach to the performance of teachers focuses on competences these often highly subjective narratives tell stories of practitioners who refuse to fit into the mould imposed on them by patriarchy or the educational institutions The writers dealt with in this volume are aware that teachers cannot be solely defined in terms of what they are expected to do within schools and classrooms This reductively conceives them as simply needing the skills to teach without having the ability to contextualise their teaching within wider historical social and cultural realities With its migration flows and intricate web of social and cultural politics the Mediterranean of the 21st century is an ideal space for reflections on the role of the teacher in an ever changing society Dizionario della lingua italiana Niccolò Tommaseo,1869
