The Loghouse Nest Louise Flach de Kiriline, 1945 The Loghouse Nest. With Drawings by Thoreau MacDonald Louise de Kiriline Lawrence, 1945 Woman, Watching Marilyn Simonds, 2022-05-24

Woman, Watching is an entrancing blend of biography, memoir, history, research, and homage that is unlike anything I've ever read. It's radical, it's ravishing. Kyo Maclear, author of Birds Art Life. From award-winning author Marilyn Simonds, a remarkable biography of an extraordinary woman: a Swedish aristocrat who survived the Russian Revolution to become an internationally renowned naturalist, one of the first to track the mid-century decline of songbirds. Referred to as a Canadian Rachel Carson, Louise de Kiriline Lawrence lived and worked in an isolated log cabin near North Bay. After her husband was murdered by Bolsheviks, she refused her Swedish privilege and joined the Canadian Red Cross, visiting her northern Ontario patients by dogsled. When Elzire Dionne gave birth to five babies, Louise became nurse to the Dionne Quintuplets. Repulsed by the media circus, she retreated to her wilderness cabin where she devoted herself to studying the birds that nested in her forest. Author of six books and scores of magazine stories, de Kiriline Lawrence and her loghouse nest became a Mecca for international ornithologists. Lawrence was an old woman when Marilyn Simonds moved into the woods not far away. Their paths crossed, sparking Simonds's lifelong interest. A dedicated birder, Simonds brings her own songbird experiences from Canadian nesting grounds and Mexican wintering grounds to this deeply researched, engaging portrait of a uniquely fascinating woman.

The loghouse nest Louise Flach de Kiriline, 1945 The Feminine Gaze Anne Innis Dagg, 2006-01-01 Many Canadian women fiction writers have become justifiably famous. But what about women who have written non-fiction? When Anne Innis Dagg set out on a personal quest to make such non-fiction authors better known, she expected to find just a few dozen. To her delight, she unearthed 473 writers who have produced over 674 books. These women describe not only their country and its inhabitants but a remarkable variety of other subjects, from the story of transportation to the legacy of Canadian missionary activity around the world. While most of the writers lived in what is now Canada, other authors were British or American travellers who visited Canada throughout the years and reported on what they found here. This compendium has brief biographies of all these women, short descriptions of their books and a comprehensive index of their books subject matters The Feminine Gaze A Canadian Compendium of Non Fiction Women Authors and Their Books 1836 1945 will be an invaluable research tool for women s studies and for all who wish to supplement the male gaze on Canada s past The SAGE Handbook of Historical Geography Mona

Communicating in the Anthropocene C. Vail

Fletcher,Alexa M. Dare,2021-02-04 The purpose of Communicating in the Anthropocene Intimate Relations is to tell a different story about the world Humans especially those raised in Western traditions have long told stories about themselves as individual protagonists who act with varying degrees of free will against a background of mute supporting characters and inert landscapes Humans can be either saviors or destroyers but our actions are explained and judged again and again as emanating from the individual And yet as the coronavirus pandemic has made clear humans are unavoidably interconnected not only with other humans but with nonhuman and more than human others with whom we share space and time Why do so many of us humans avoid deny or resist a view of the world where our lives are made possible maybe even made richer through connection In this volume we suggest a view of communication as intimacy We use this concept as a provocation for thinking about how we humans are in an always already state of being in relation with other humans nonhumans and the land
