Named one of Choosing Therapy's 14 Best Books on Losing a Parent for 2022

The Long Journey Home Margaret Robison, 2011-05-17 First introduced to the world in her sons' now classic memoirs Augusten Burroughs's Running with Scissors and John Elder Robison's Look Me in the Eye, Margaret Robison now tells her own haunting and lyrical story. A poet and teacher by profession, Robison describes her Southern Gothic childhood, her marriage to a handsome brilliant man who became a split personality alcoholic and abusive husband, the challenges she faced raising two children while having psychotic breakdowns of her own, and her struggle to regain her sanity. Robison grew up in southern Georgia where the facade of 1950s propriety masked all sorts of demons including alcoholism, misogyny, repressed homosexuality, and suicide. She met her husband John Robison in college, and together they moved up north where John embarked upon a successful academic career and Margaret brought up the children and worked on her art and poetry. Yet her husband's alcoholism and her collapse into psychosis, and the eventual disintegration of their marriage, took a tremendous toll on their family. Her older son John Elder moved out of the house when he was a teenager, and her younger son Chris, who later renamed himself Augusten, never completed high school. When Margaret met Dr. Rodolph Turcotte, the therapist who was treating her husband, she felt understood for the first time and quickly fell under his idiosyncratic and eventually harmful influence. Robison writes movingly and honestly about her mental illness, her shortcomings as a parent, her difficult marriage, her traumatic relationship with Dr. Turcotte, and her two now famous children, Augusten Burroughs and John Elder Robison, who have each written bestselling memoirs about their family. She also writes inspiringly about her hard-earned journey to sanity and clarity. An astonishing and enduring story, The Long Journey Home is a remarkable and ultimately uplifting account of a complicated afflicted twentieth-century family.

A Long Journey to Joy Yonah Klem, 2009-11 As a victim of childhood sexual abuse, Yonah Klem mistakenly believed that her version of reality was the Ultimate reality. After decades of therapy and study of Jewish mysticism, she finally cast off the heavy cloak of shameful misconceptions and relaxed into ordinary life. A Long Journey to Joy provides a unique perspective on how to find joy despite a harrowing beginning. It is a must-read for everyone in recovery and for the psychotherapists who guide them. In this rich, amazing memoir, Klem shares her struggles to become whole with a graceful narrative agility that inspires us into hope for our own lives. You'll enjoy and learn from it.

The Long Journey and Other Stories D. Mills, Jerry Mills, 2011-04 About the Cover: This simple sketch is over 100 years old. It hung in the farmhouse I was raised in as a small boy. The artist was a relative on the Jackson side of my family tree. The original sketch now hangs in the cabin where I live. My grandmother tried to explain the meaning of the sketch to me when I was eight years old, but it was way over my head. Now that I have entered the final chapter of my long journey, I look at the sketch a lot differently than I did when my grandmom talked to me about it so long ago. The old man is not only old but very wise. The sweet, mellow smell from his pipe is now an integral part of him. The fragrance of Spring completely surrounds the young girl. As she tells him about his upcoming long journey you can see the slight smile on his face He knows his next journey will be soon and very short I suspect that he will give her very little advice He knows that unraveling the mysteries and finding your own answers are what make our long journeys worthwhile Poppy About the Stories You may find some of them are sad some funny and some a little mysterious However I hope they rekindle and stir emotions you have hidden deep inside you for a very long time
