Literacy, Place, and Pedagogies of Possibility Barbara Comber, 2015-07-30 How can teachers ensure a pedagogy of possibility underpinned by social justice and what has literacy got to do with this This book explores the positive synergies between critical literacy and place conscious pedagogy Through rich classroom research it introduces and demonstrates how a synthesis of insights from theories of space and place and literacy studies can underpin the design and enactment of culturally inclusive curriculum for diverse student communities and illustrates how making place and space the objects of study provide productive resources for teachers to design enabling pedagogical practices that extend students literate repertoires The argument is that systematic study of and engagement with specific elements of place can enable students academic learning and literacy Literacy Place and Pedagogies of Possibility is informed by critical literacy place conscious pedagogy and spatial theory is richly illustrated with examples from classroom research including teacher and student artifacts provides new directions for classroom practice in critical literacy This novel combination of multidisciplinary theory and classroom research extends previous work in critical literacy pedagogy drawing on two decades of ethnographic and collaborative inquiry in classrooms situated in culturally and linguistically diverse classrooms

Navigating Learning, Culture, and Identity in Island Education Bufalino, Giambattista, 2025-06-06 Navigating Learning Culture and Identity in Island Education invites readers into the lived educational experiences of island communities where geography tradition and the rhythms of the natural world converge to characterize distinctive pedagogical practices In these contexts educational processes are characterized by situated relationships with the land and sea with cultural memory and identity and with the often close knit social fabric of island communities While challenged by limited infrastructure and scarce resources island communities cultivate pedagogies of resilience adaptive situated and deeply relational These educational approaches emerge not in spite of isolation but through it formed by proximity interdependence and a sustained attentiveness to place Navigating Learning Culture and Identity in Island Education explores selected educational landscapes across a range of island communities worldwide From the Greek Aegean to the Ryukyus from Ponza and Sicily to the Maldives Philippines Solomon Islands and the Canadian Maritimes this volume highlights how spatial distinctiveness cultural hybridity and ecological vulnerability shape the ways in which people learn teach and lead in island contexts Educational practices arise in response to local histories environmental precarity linguistic and cultural diversity and the legacies of colonization Themes explored include school community collaboration sustainability education inclusive and intercultural pedagogy literary imaginaries of the sea leadership development and the complex transitions faced by students in island based higher education Spanning formal non formal and community based learning across various small island states and territories the chapters establish a productive dialogue between educational research and island studies This volume offers both theoretical insights and practical approaches for educators scholars and policymakers seeking educational paradigms that are both locally grounded and globally resonant At once rooted and far reaching Navigating Learning Culture and Identity in Island Education invites readers to rethink what education means in places defined not only by their geography but by their imaginative cultural and ecological distinctiveness Ecological Footprints in Literature: An Excursion into Selected Nature Writings and Nature Novels Dr. Archana R. Kadiyan, 2022-08-22 The book provides a comprehensive view of the environmental discourses that are found in the literary representations of the natural world The book presents an in depth analysis of the symbolic manifestations of the outer world in various genres of literature such as nature novels and nature or ecological writings It deeply captures the mutual interactions that occur between the human and the non human world that tend to influence each other's actions and processes By exploring the ecocritical leanings and tracing all the phases of Anthropocene the book takes its readers for a deep excursion into the beautiful dynamic natural and overtly spiritual world of Nature as exhibited in the writings such as Thoreau's Walden Khushwant Singh's Nature Watch and Starhawk's The Earth Path which is contrasted against the eco catastrophic world of Rachel Carson's Silent Spring An insightful and analytical journey into the world of more unique portrayals of the ecological world that tend to strike a balance between two distinct worlds the real and the imaginative the spiritual and the material as well as the natural and the man made as reflected in the nature novels George Eliot's Mill on the Floss Khushwant Singh's I Shall not Hear the Nightingale Starhawk's Fifth Sacred Thing and Ernest Callenbach's Ecotopia A Novel The book thus with its underpinning wisdom will be an interesting and more enlightening read for the critics academicians and researchers Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Linguistics and Culture (ICLC-4 2023) Muhammad Hasyim, 2024-05-22 This is an open access book Research and teaching activities in the fields of language literature and culture are still being carried out even during the Covid 19 era that hit the world It is undeniable that the results of research and learning of language literature and culture at this time were a bit hindered because most activities were carried out from home During the Covid 19 period which started in early 2020 practically more activities were done at home Likewise institutions during the Covid 19 era were carried out online For example the Language Agency continues to carry out activities but it is carried out online such as online webinars that contribute to the wider community in accordance with the duties and functions of the Language Agency carried out using a hybrid method or completely online Various events are packaged creatively and innovatively to produce a new spirit in speaking Research and teaching of language literature and culture during the Covid 19 period resulted in many amazing innovations and creativity in line with technological developments Covid 19 has inspired many in research on language literature and culture In the field of language you can see research on the language used in Covid 19 such as said cases of suspected respiratory tract infection ODP People Under Monitoring confirmed cases a person who is late known to be infected with Covid 19 etc That s the content Content on YouTube about the use of language is a hot object of research to research In terms of culture the Government is making various efforts to break the chain of the spread of the Covid 19 pandemic in a massive and systematic manner Covid 19 is not only a deadly virus but has a domino effect that is also terrible One of the policies used by the government in preventing and controlling the spread of Covid 19 is implementing the Large Scale Social Restrictions PSBB policy As an investment culture also requires strategies and enablers so that it is able to achieve the target of the happiness and welfare of the Indonesian people This strategy is implemented through providing for a diversity of cultural expressions developing cultural practices utilizing cultural promotion objects accelerating institutional reform and increasing the government s role as a facilitator Teaching issues especially teaching methods of language literature and culture need to be highlighted in terms of IT based innovation and creativity after Covid 19 How especially teaching methods in applying the material Research on learning methods has also been carried out a lot especially methods that focus on students entering the new normal era or the new era after Covid 19 with innovative research and learning of language literature and culture It is interesting to reveal a major event namely the 3rd International Conference on Linguistics and Cultural Studies sponsored by the Faculty of Cultural Sciences Hasanuddin University Makassar

Challenging Anthropocentrism in Eco-Science Fiction Novels Fatma Gamze Erkan, 2024-01-03 This book explores the relationship between humanity and nature while challenging the notion that anthropocentric behaviour causes the environmental catastrophes depicted in the four selected British eco science fiction novels These novels are John

Christopher s The Death of Grass 1956 J G Ballard s The Drought 1965 Brian Aldiss s Earthworks 1965 and John Brunner s The Sheep Look Up 1972 all of which fictionalise the fact that the consequences of environmental problems can be diverse but equally serious This book examines how even the smallest damage caused by human beings to the environment negatively affects them other living beings and the ecosystem they need to live and flourish In conjunction with these the factors and conditions that push characters in the novels to ignore and harm the environment are also scrutinised While examining how and why the environmental problems in the novels have arisen it is evaluated whether the authors propose solutions to these problems and if so what they are APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service ,

Folk Epics of Rajasthan: An Ecological Study of Pabuji and Devnarayan Dr. Meenakshi, 2024-06-30 The book attempts to trace ecological insights embedded in two major folk epics of Rajasthan Epic of Pabuji and Epic of Devnarayan The first chapter explores man s relation with nature in past and attempts to locate the genesis of our attitudes towards nature in ancient myths as well as its portrayal in literature It tries to define ecology and summarises the ideas about ecological literary criticism given by various critics It highlights the tradition and types of oral epics in Rajasthan The second chapter named Cultural Ecology focuses on the mutuality and interdependence of nature and culture It reflects upon what effects human culture has on nature and vice versa in context of the epics of Pabuji and Devnarayan The chapter focuses on literary ecology which explores the ecological dimensions of literary texts and also puts forth the artistic capability of the text as an agency of ecological awareness The third chapter named History Aesthetics and Phad explores how painters make phad and to what purpose these phads are made what purposes of bhopas and commercial consumers it fulfils and in what ways bhopas inspire the process It also discusses the history of visual narratives and locates the place of phad in it It delves deep into the history of phad tradition of painting as well as its aesthetics The discussion of aesthetics of phad foregrounds how phad helps bhopa in devising as well as improvising the narrative The fourth chapter named Performance and Ecology focuses on how performances of folk epics of Pabuji and Devnarayan further an ecological vision in which natural surroundings play a contributory role in formation of meanings An interconnection between the ecology of the region and the performance of phad has been evaluated which contributes in comprehending the full ecological implications of phad An analysis of both the epics from an ecological literary perspective substantiates the excellence and contribution of the epics in enriching the literary genre with different aspects of ecological connections between man and other natural elements on earth The book establishes that the literary ecology of phad is as diverse as an ecosystem The ecology of phad thrives on cultural diversity including people from all fields such as phad painters phad performers and the audience followers of the deities This correlation is based not only on their economic relations or transactions but they also depend upon each other for their exclusive identity Sustainable Energy Education in the Arctic Gisele M. Arruda, 2019-11-07 This book examines the nature of the energy curriculum in Arctic Higher Education and provides invaluable data and new models to assess levels of Sustainable Development Literacy Drawing on course mapping conducted in Higher Education institutions across the Arctic Arruda looks at the nature structure and design of the Arctic Higher Education curriculum in order to assess levels of Sustainable Development Literacy and considers the extent to which Arctic Higher Education courses align to UNESCO Education for Sustainable Development ESD Using data from four key case studies in Norway Canada and the US and applying a framework drawn from different knowledge systems Traditional Knowledge and Western educational system she analyses the different educational approaches and pedagogies used and specifically considers how Higher Education in this region can contribute to the accomplishment of Sustainable Development and the Sustainable Development Goals The book concludes by proposing new models to assess Higher Education adherence to ESD and outlines how a culturally inclusive curriculum can invite different groups of people to engage in a meaningful Sustainable Development debate learning experience and knowledge application This innovative volume will be of great interest to multicultural students scholars and educators of Sustainable Development climate change energy Arctic studies and global Higher Education across the Arctic and non Arctic nations

Disability and the Environment in American Literature Matthew J. C. Cella, 2016-10-12 This book includes a collection of essays that explore the relationship between Disability Studies and literary ecocriticism particularly as this relationship plays out in American literature and culture The contributors to this collection operate from the premise that there is much to be gained for both fields by putting them in conversation and they do so in a variety of ways In this manner the collection contributes to what Joni Adamson and Scott Slovic have referred to as a third wave of ecocriticism Adamson and Slovic attribute the rise of this third wave to the richly diverse contributions to ecocriticism over the past decade by scholars intent on including postmodernism ecofeminism transnationalism globalization and postcolonialism into ecocritical discussions The essays in Toward an Ecosomatic Paradigm extend this approach of this third wave by analyzing disability from an environmental point of view while simultaneously examining the environmental imagination from a disability studies perspective More specifically the goal of the collection is to investigate the role that literary narratives play in fostering the ecosomatic paradigm As a theoretical framework the ecosomatic paradigm underscores the dynamic and inter relational process wherein human mind bodies interact with the places both built and wild they inhabit That is the ecosomatic paradigm proceeds from the assumption that nature and culture are meshed in an ongoing and deep relationship that has implications for both the human subject and the natural world An ecosomatic approach highlights the profound overlap between embodiment and emplacement and is therefore enriched by both disability studies and ecocritical insight By drawing on points of confluence between disability studies and ecological criticism the various ecosomatic readings in this collection challenge normative even ableist constructions of the body environment dyad by complicating and expanding our understanding of this relationship as it is represented in American literature and culture Collectively the essays in this book augment the American environmental imagination by highlighting the relationship between disability and the environment as reflected in American literary texts across multiple periods and genres

Geopoetics in Practice Eric Magrane,Linda Russo,Sarah de Leeuw,Craig Santos Perez,2019-12-05 This breakthrough book examines dynamic intersections of poetics and geography Gathering the essays of an international cohort whose work converges at the crossroads of poetics and the material world Geopoetics in Practice offers insights into poetry place ecology and writing the world through a critical creative geographic lens This collection approaches geopoetics as a practice by bringing together contemporary geographers poets and artists who contribute their research methodologies and creative writing The 24 chapters divided into the sections Documenting Reading and Intervening poetically engage discourses about space power difference and landscape as well as about human non human and more than human relationships with Earth Key explorations of this edited volume include how poets engage with geographical phenomena through poetry and how geographers use creativity to explore space place and environment This book makes a major contribution to the geohumanities and creative geographies by presenting geopoetics as a practice that compels its agents to take action It will appeal to academics and students in the fields of creative writing literature geography and the environmental and spatial humanities as well as to readers from outside of the academy interested in where poetry and place overlap
