Shangler Cynthia Skenazi Kendall Tarte Cara Welch and Cathy Yandell The Shape of Change ,2021-11-01

In The Shape of Change Anne L Birberick and Russell Ganim bring together essays by fourteen established scholars who dedicate their studies to David Rubin as they explore the ways in which artistic endeavor shapes and is shaped by literary memory The volume is divided into two sections The first section Continuity and Discontinuity offers essays by Jody Enders Timothy Reiss Twyla Meding Marie Odile Sweetser Robert Corum Jr and the editors themselves and considers the ways in which seventeenth century authors draw upon generic conventions or diverse artistic media to create works that reflect the aesthetic and moral values of their time The second section entitled La Fontaine focuses primarily on Jean de La Fontaine s masterpiece Les Fables Here the problem of imitation and innovation as it relates to genre influence and literary reputation is examined in essays by Jules Brody Richard Danner Judd Hubert Catherine Gris Michael Vincent Nicholas Cronk and Ralph Albanese Jr The Shape of Change serves as a fine scholarly contribution to the studies of French seventeenth century literature and La Fontaine The essays are thoughtful as well as thought provoking and the volume s critical diversity is nicely balanced by its thematic coherence In its ability to stimulate new thinking this collection of essays will be of interest to both students and scholars of early modern France Voluntary Servitude and the Erotics of Friendship Marc D.

Schachter,2016-12-05 Focusing primarily on three early modern French authors this book explores the erotics and politics of voluntary servitude in classical antiquity and the early modern period These authors tienne de La Bo tie Michel de Montaigne and Marie de Gournay pursue related inquiries into voluntary servitude and self control in marriage friendship pederasty and politics Marc Schachter shows how Montaigne s intimate textual relationship with La Bo tie provides him the opportunity to honor his beloved friend while transforming many of his ideas Similarly Marie de Gournay s editorial voluntary servitude to Montaigne provides her the occasion to authorize her own practice as a woman author and to engage critically with Montaigne's ideas even as she celebrates her friendship with him. Schachter's analyses are pursued particularly through the lens of Michel Foucault's concept of governmentality which like voluntary servitude operates on three interrelated scales: self control, control in interpersonal relationships and political control. Schachter argues that thinking about the function of voluntary servitude through the lens of governmentality leads to a more nuanced understanding both of Foucault's late work and of the transformational possibilities offered by friendship and voluntary servitude in early modern France. Biography in Early Modern France, 1540-1630 Katherine MacDonald, 2017-12-02. When the famous Royal Professor of Philosophy and Eloquence Petrus Ramus 1515-1572 gave a lecture one of his most promising pupils stood by ready to tug on his coat if he made a mistake. That pupil was Ramus's future biographer the much less famous Nicolas de Nancel 1539-1610 who recounted this anecdote in his Vita Rami 1599. Nancel's insertion of himself into his life of Ramus is typical of early modern biographies of men of letters. As biographer the humanist man of letters situated himself within the same cultural field as his subject thereby accrediting himself as a fellow man of letters by his display of humanistic competence. The first study of monograph lives of men of letters in sixteenth century France this ground breaking book offers valuable insights into biography's role as a form of social and cultural negotiation geared to advance the biographer's career. The Social and Political Body Theodore R. Schatzki, Wolfgang Natter, 1996-01-01. Beginning with the provocative premise that the body is the anchor of the social order this book delves into the multidimensional relationship between sociopolitical bodies and human bodies. It explores the way that prevailing economic and political institutions affect our experience of our physical selves and in turn the ways that our bodily senses, energies, activities and desires reinforce or challenge the status quo.

Reading the Renaissance Jonathan Hart, 2019-06-04. Approaching the Renaissance from many perspectives: historicism, genre studies, close reading, anthropology, feminism, new historicism, cultural materialism and postmodernism, these original essays explore the boundaries between genre and gender, languages and literatures, reading and criticism, the Renaissance and the Middle Ages, the early modern and the post modern world and theater. They offer a new way of looking at the Renaissance and at literature and history generally through the lens of cultural pluralism which reflects the changing nature of Western society. The collection reveals that the study of literature should take into account its cultural context and that it is enriched by an examination of other literatures. The Pursuit of Equality in the West Aldo Schiavone, 2022-07-05. Do democratic citizens have equal right to rule? Is it enough that they have equal standing before the law or must there also be economic and social equality? Aldo Schiavone traces these questions and their diverse answers from the ancient world to the present and urges a new course to rescue democracies now suffering from excesses of inequality.
